NORTH CAROLINA TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY

Next Annual Session Will Be Held In Asheville, June 14-17.
The next annual session of the
will be held in Asheville, June 14-17, 1910. It will be the twenty-seventh annual session of that organization, and the program as announced by the Secretary promises to be one of the best in its history.
Some of the best-known educators of this and other States will appear on it. Delightful social features are being prepared, and already the teachers are beginning to look forward with eager anticipations to their outing in "The Land of the Sky." A thousand teachers will be present, and Asheville will set out its best for their entertainment.

The social and recreation features will be delightful, but there will also be work enough, and real work at that. The program provides for forty-one addresses, reports of committees, etc., besides the general discussions and the regular business of the organization. That the addresses and discussions will be of a high order is evident from a list of those who will take part.

Interesting features of the sessions will be the reports of the standing committees on the History of Education in North Carolina during 1909-10; on Teachers' Salaries and Pensions; on the Course of Study in the Elementary Schools; and on An Educational Platform for North Carolina.

The Assembly is divided into four departments, each of which has its own program. They are as follows: The Department of Elementary Education; the Department of Secondary Education; the Department of School Principals; and the Department of Superintendents.

The Department of School Principals will hold its first session this year. It has only recently been organized. Its program promises, however, to be of interest equal to that of the older departments.

It has been ten or fifteen years since the Teachers' Assembly met last in the western part of the State; but it is evident from the above that when it returns there this year it will carry with it a program that has not been surpassed in interest or practical help for many years.

The railroads and hotels will offer reduced rates, and every effort will be made to make this session the most delightful in the whole twenty-seven years of the Assembly's history.

Lenoir News Endorses Brown

The News is pleased to heartily endorse the candidacy of Mr. H.
C. Brown for Corporation Commissioner to succeed Mr. S. L.
Rogers, who will not be a candidate.

Mr. Brown is a Surry County man and has been Clerk to the North Carolina Corporation Commission for 18 years and we doubt if there is a man in the State as well qualified for the position of Commissioner as Mr. Brown is.
He has made good in the position of Clerk to the entire satisfaction of the officials and the public and we hope the Democratic party of the State will show its appreciation of such faithful service by promoting him to the office of Commissioner.—Lenoir News.

The Situation.

Half of the people are blundering along today "taking no stock in politics" except now and then to whoop up a particular candidate, and the other half are being fooled by party names, "party harmony" or some other outworn prejudice.
And meantime a few men are taking chattel mortgages on the whole push, by simply using the party bosses to make laws that enable them to say what shall be paid for the things necessary to live, and deeper still, to fix the very conditions under which the toll shall be squeezed out.—Monroe Journal.

HIGH COMPLIMENT FOR MR. CARLTON

Duplin County Bar Passes Resolution of Regret That He Leaves Duplin.

The Eastern News of Kenansville last week had this to say about Mr. Carlton who has located in Marion to practice law:

The News deeply regrets to say Mr. D. L. Carlton will soon leave the County and will locate for the practice of his profession at Marion, N. C. He will be associated in the practice with Col. P. J.
Sinclair under the firm name and style of Sinclair and Carlton. He makes this change only after a long and careful consideration. As our people hate to give him up so does he regret to give up Duplin to cast his lot among strangers and in a new section of the State. He will carry with him the sincerest good wishes of a great many true friends. Mr. and Mrs. Carlton have resided at Kenansville since their marriage two years ago and the people of the town will always welcome them back. To them the sky is a little bluer here than elsewhere and the songs of the birds are just a little sweeter and at all times when they may feel like a change for rest and recreation the homes of our people are open to them.

Mr. Carlton is a native of Duplin County having been born on the farm at the old Carlton Homestead near the town of Warsaw.
He received his early education at Lanefield Academy and the Warsaw High School. He graduated from Wake Forest College in 1898 with the A. B. and B. L. Degrees.
He was principal of the graded schools of Norway, S. C. in the fall of '98 and spring of '99. He was admitted to the bar of Duplin in the fall of '99 and soon thereafter formed a partnership with Judge W. R. Allen of Goldsboro for the practice of the law until Judge Allen was elevated to the Superior Court bench. Soon afterwards he was associated in the practice for awhile with Hon. H.
D. Williams of Kenansville until by mutual consent the partnership was dissolved and since then Mr.
Carlton has been practicing alone, enjoying a large and successful practice. He was County Attorney for six years. As an evidence of the confidence and esteem in which he has held by the Bar of Duplin County the following resolution will show:

The Bar of Duplin County being in session on this the 5th day of April 1910, and having heard with regret that Hon. D. L. Carlton has decided to remove to the town of Marion for the practice of his profession, and whereas, we have known him intimately for many years and having often been associated with him in the practice and having found him at all times painstaking, able and fair; and whereas knowing him to be a man of great intelligence and ability and of the very best character:

Be it therefore resolved, that with regret we see him leave our community and that in his new field of endeavor he has our best wishes for success and that he and his loved ones may enjoy lives of comfort, health and plenty.

Resolved further that copies of this resolution be forwarded to Mr.
Carlton and be published in the Eastern Carolina News.

Mr. Carlton has been Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for the past ten years and was a hard worker in the interests of the Democratic party. He was elected to the Legislature in 1901 and again to the Legislature of 1903 where he made a fine record, making many friends among the statesmen of North Carolina. He was elected from the 3rd Congressional District as a delegate to the National Democratic Convention at St. Louis. As a citizen of Duplin county Mr. Carlton has always taken a high stand and has made a good name for himself with our people; for upright, honesty and sobriety his reputation is unsurpassed.

Jury List for May Term.

For the special term of McDowell Superior court, which was ordered by Governor Kitchin for the trial of civil cases only, to convene May 16th, jurors were drawn as follows: J. M. Clay, B. M.
Stepp, S. P. Tate, J. P. Bird, W.
D. Long, W. C. Nesbitt, J. L.
Nichols, F. A. Hall, J. N. Yelton, B. E. Grindstaff, J. L. Cowan, W.
C. Morris, E. B. Baber, J. A. Ar-rowood, H. W. Gibson, A. L.
Bright, J. E. Wilson, W. R. Mc-Koy.
This special term of court was ordered at the request of Judge and others.

COLONY NEAR TRYON.

Hebrews to be Brought from the City and Put on the Farm.

Asheville Citizen.
Mr. Isaac Landman, secretary of the National Farm School, near Philadelphia, arrived in this city yesterday in the interest of a big agricultural movement for the State of North Carolina. Mr.
Landman has come primary to complete the final arrangements for the establishment of a Jewish colony of farmers near Tryon on the land given for colonization purposes to the National Farm School by Mr. Henry Hellman, of New York.

The plan, as outlined by Mr.
Landman to The Citizen, includes the division of the tract of 750 acres into individual farms for graduates of his institution and their families, all of whom come from the crowded cities of the country. The first settler already on the place, is Julius Stabinsky, a graduate from the school, who has been employed in general agricultural work at Peck, La., for the last three years. Mr. Stabinsky is the type of student and graduate from the National Farm School—an orphan from the New Orleans orphan asylum, and he brought with him his brother-in-law, his sister, and two children.
Fifty acres have been allotted to him, part of which is to be set out in vineyards and peach orchards.
The National Farm School is to sell these farms to graduates of at least one year's experience, at a very cheap price and on very favorable terms of payment, so that their probable success will not be hindered by the load of heavy mortgages.

To Democratic Voters.

I wish to remind you that this is election year, and if every democrat does his full duty throughout the campaign the tenth congress-sional district will be rescued from the enemy of popular rights and restored to the democratic column where it rightly belongs. To make the victory decisive should be the determined purpose of all democrats, and, of course, it is expected that no one will fail to qualify himself to vote when the time comes. Therefore, let us remember that the payment of poll tax on or before May 1st must be made by all who expect to vote in November.

Many good men overlook this important matter and thereby deprive themselves of the suffrage privilege. Few, if any, democrats purposely neglect to pay their taxes. In the rush of business they simply forget about it, while their republican neighbors are "stealing a march on them." The experience of two years ago should serve as a warning and I hope every democrat (in arrears for taxes) who reads this notice will secure his own poll tax receipt and urge his neighbors to do likewise.
Only a few days until May 1st, delays are dangerous.

Hoping that every democrat will be fully qualified for participating in the fall election, and believing, by concerted action, that we will achieve a complete victory for the great party of the people, I am Yours very truly,
M. L. SHIPMAN,
Chairman 10th Dist.
Dem. Ex. Com.

Terrible Accident at Erwin.

The Comet.
Erwin, Tenn., April 7.—At half past eight o'clock this morning Clarence Copenhaver, a pipe fitter in the C. C. & O. shops was fatally injured while testing an air drum. The drum exploded and the end of it struck him on the head and badly fractured his skull, tearing away part of his head. He died about two o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Copenhaver was about 24 years of age and was married last Christmas at Roanoke, his former home. The remains will be prepared for burial and shipped to Johnson City on a special train Thursday in time to take the New York Special for Roanoke.

AUNT DRUCILLA'S TRIP ABROAD

Written as English Work at Nebo High School by Miss Mary Greenlee.

CHARACTERS
Mr. Fairfax or Uncle Jim.
Mrs. Fairfax or Aunt Drucilla.
Miss Drucilla Elouise Fairfax, a niece of theirs.
Mrs. Rhidenbouser, a friend who lives in Paris, France.
Miss Rhidenbouser, her niece.
Dick Covington, Drucilla Elouise's lover.
Jake, a negro servant of Mr.
Fairfax.

ACT I

Scene 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax in the kitchen. Mrs. Fairfax is washing dishes.

Mrs. Fairfax, says I, I have been a thinking of going abroad and taking Drucilla Elouise. Drucilla Elouise said something about it some several days ago and I think it's a pretty good plan. I was simply horrified at the idea when she first spoke of it and says I, "Law sakes alive Drucilla Elouise what do you mean?" She says, says she, "Why yes, aunt Drucilla, why can't we go abroad, see some of the world and have some pleasure before we die; there's no use staying at home all the time." Says I, I have been thinking about it and I believe we will go that trip. And again there is that Dick Covington that somehow appears to be liking Drucilla Elouise right smartly and, Jim, I believe it's a pretty good idea to take her cause the next thing we know she will be a marrying him and he ain't worth his salt. I got my foot down that she shant marry him and she'll not if I can help it. What do you say about us going, Jim?

ENTER JAKE.

Jake. Where is dat you is a going, Miss Fairfax?

Mrs. Fairfax. Now is that any of your business? Leave and go to your work, you lazy nigger you or I will—will—can't nothing be said but what you have to but in.

Jake. Yes, Misses, I got a paper tother day sayin' you belongs to "The American Federation of Butter." You can but in all conversation whatever public or private if you wants too, and I wants too.

Mr. Fairfax. Leave this room, you impudent nigger, or I will knock you down with a chair.

Jake. Yes, Massey, I specks I can stand that kind of floggin'.
You frets that about seven times a week but you ain't never done none of it yet. (Exit)

Mrs. Fairfax. He is the most impudent negro I ever saw in my life. I shall be glad to be away from hearing of him for at least one month.

Mr. Fairfax. He is hateful but I guess we will have to put up with him.

Mrs. Fairfax. Well, Jim, tell me what you think of Drucilla Elouise and me going abroad.

Mr. Fairfax. I—I speck you can go, I believe you will have a pretty good time and see right smart of the world if you was to go abroad and take Drucilla Elouise with you.

Mrs. Fairfax. Well, when do you say for us to go? Hadn't we better go at once, we ain't got much to get ready and then it ain't long before time for spring cleaning and gardening after Christmas.
Mrs. Rhidenbouser lives over there in Paris somewhere. We can stay with her because she knows Drucilla Elouise right smartly and I know she will be glad to see us.

Mr. Fairfax. Well! Yes I spose you better get ready and go right at once. Tell Drucilla Elouise about your arrangements.

Mrs. Fairfax. I believe that is her coming now you just wait and we'll both tell her about it.

ENTER DRUCILLA ELOUISE.

Mr. Fairfax. Drucilla Elouise we have got something terrible surprising to tell you. Your aunt Drucilla and uncle Jim has Drucilla Elouise. Uncle Jim, please tell me what it is. Something real good, uncle Jim!

Mr. Fairfax. Yes, Guess!
Drucilla Elouise. Uncle Jim, please tell me. I don't have the slightest idea what it can be.
Please tell.

Mrs. Fairfax. Well, guess something.

Drucilla Elouise (looking around) Auntie, I can't. Please tell me.

Mrs. Fairfax. You know what we was talking about the other day, Drucilla Elouise.

Drucilla Elouise. Me, aunt Dru-cilla! I don't have the slightest idea, please tell.

ENTER JAKE.

Jake. Haves you anything else that you wants done Misses!

Mrs. Fairfax. Haves you done all I told you to; feed the cows and water the horses and have you fed that little calf that is sick and—Jake. No, Misses; you said you wanted him for beef.

Mr. Fairfax. So I did but if you don't feed it how in creation do you expect it to ever get fat!

Jake. Well you knows good beefs ain't all fats. I feeds him one day and lets him do wid out a day so when you kills him be will be a streak of lean and a streak of fat.

Mrs. Fairfax. You block headed negro you go feed that calf or leave here con. (Exit Jake.)

Mr. Fairfax. I got to go see about things, I can't trust Jake for anything here lately. (Exit.)

Mrs. Fairfax. Undoubtedly that's the hateful nigger I ever saw in my life. I despise niggers anyway.

Drucilla Elouise. Auntie I am waiting patiently for you to tell me what the surprise is.

Mrs. Fairfax. Come on then and lets go in my room till I get my knitted and I will tell you then. (Exit)

Pay your poll tax before May 1.
