Government Closed Year With Balance.

The Government closed its fiscal year, June 30 with total receipts of $838,403,969 and total disbursements of $759,666,159, and excess of $78,737,810, compared with a deficit of $59,436,580 for the year ending June 30, last. Both the income tax and internal revenue receipts in 1916 showed up far above the estimates made by Secretary McAdoo and swelled the balance. Income tax receipts amounted to $124,867,430, compared with $79,828,675 last year, an increase of about $15,000,000 over the amount expected by officials even as late as a week ago. Of the total $56,909,941 came from corporations and $67,957,488 from individuals.

Biliousness and Stomach Trouble.

"Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness," writes Miss Emma Verbyke, Lima, Ohio. "I could eat very little food that agreed with me and I became so dizzy and sick at my stomach at times that I had to take hold of something to keep from falling. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised I decided to try them. I improved rapidly. Obtainable everywhere.

A Reason for It.

Uncle Jethro sat fishing on the bank of a tiny rivulet, says the N. Y. Times Magazine, when a stranger stopped beside him and asked: "Is it possible there are any fish in such a small stream as that?" "No, there ain't none!" Uncle Jethro grunted. "But you're fishing." "Yep," said Uncle Jethro. "What, then, is your object?" "My object is to show my wife I ain't got no time to sift the ashes."

Didn't Come to Fall In.

A boy fell into a pond, and when a man who was passing pulled him out, he said to the boy: "Well, son how did you come to fall into the lake?" "I didn't come to fall in at all," replied the boy with some heat, "I came to fish."—Ladies Home Journal.

Constipation and Indigestion.

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Wilmington, N. C. Chamberlain's Tablets are mild and gentle in their action. Give them a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the agreeable laxative effect which they produce. Obtainable everywhere.

According to a statement issued Wednesday by the Department of Commerce, 12,706 bales of cotton were exported from North Carolina ports for the week ending July 1st.

Look Good—Feel Good.

No one can either feel good nor look good while suffering from constipation. Get rid of that tired, draggy, lifeless feeling by a treatment of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Buy a box to-day, take one or two pills to-night. In the morning that stuffed, dull feeling is gone and you feel better at once. 25c. at your druggist.

A new fire-fighting tool has been invented by a forest ranger in California which consists of an interchangeable hoe and rake. It is said to be the best tool of the sort yet devised.

Taking Big Chances.

It is a great risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. Attacks of bowel complaint are often sudden and very severe, and everyone should go prepared for them. Obtainable everywhere.

NOT SILLY ENOUGH TO WORK

Tramp Admitted He Was Little Bit Weak-Minded, But He Was Too Wise to Join Army.

Early one bright spring morning a ragged tramp called at a country vicarage, where the woman of the house had the name of being very charitable. "Kind woman," he began whiningly, as he doffed his cap politely, "I ain't 'ad a bite to eat since my supper yesterday, an' termorror will be the third day." "Poor fellow!" said the kind-hearted woman. "You must be hungry! But you look strong. Why don't you look for work, or, better still, join the army?" "Ah, mum, ye see, I'm a little bit silly—" began the man in explanation. "Yes, but silly people can often get work," interrupted the lady. "But I'm not that silly!" finished the tramp quickly.—London Answers.

A Warning.

"What are you doing in my room?" asked the man who was awakened by a burglar. "I'm robbing the place." "You merely think you are. Everything here was bought on the installment plan, and if you take the property you'll be responsible for the balance. You're not robbing anybody. You're running into debt."

No Use.

"It's no use trying to please everybody." "That's right," replied Mr. Meekton. "I bought a music machine for each member of the family so that there couldn't be any argument. Now everybody wants to play his favorite selection at the same time, and we're even unhappier than before."

Nothing Doing!

"With this attachment on your auto if you knock a man down it won't hurt him a particle, won't disable him for a minute." "Nothing doing!" "But you don't seem to appreciate—" "Don't eh? If I was to knock a man down without disabling him what do you think he would do to me?"

Yea, Verily.

They had been married just three short weeks and the honeymoon had begun to slump the slumps. "There is only one thing certain about marriage," remarked the former bachelor. "And what is that, dearest?" queried his better two-thirds. "The uncertainty thereof," he answered.

A Happy Thought.

"Once I get to sleep I'm very hard to wake," said the man who talks about trifles. "If your house were to catch fire you might burn to death." "I've thought of that. Er—is there such a thing as an asbestos night-shirt on the market?"

Money by the Bushel.

She—What's this I hear about your getting a large sum of money from some woman? He—Someone's been kidding you. Who was the woman? She (innocently)—Why, May Wheat, they told me her name was.

A Boy's Remarks to His Stomach.

(Recited by Oliver the Poultryman.) What's the matter with you, ain't I always been your friend? Ain't I been a partner to you? all my pennies don't I spend In getting nice things for you? Don't I give you lots of cake? Say, stomnick, what's the matter that you had to go and ache? Why I loaded you with good things yesterday— I gave you more potatoes, squash and turkey than you'd ever had before; I gave you nuts and candy and pumpkin pie and chocolate cake, And last night when I got to bed, you had to go and ache. What's the matter with you, ain't you satisfied at all? I gave you all you wanted—you was hard just like a ball; And you couldn't hold another bit of pudding, yet last night You ached most awful, stomnick; that ain't treating me just right. I've been a friend to you, I have why ain't you a friend of mine? They gave me medicine last night because you made me whine, I'm awful sick this morning and I'm feeling mighty blue, Because you don't appreciate the things I do for you.
