LOCAL AND PERSONAL

I. J. Holler, of Union Mills, was a visitor here last week.

Gordon Ambler, of Winston-Salem, is here on a visit to relatives.

John Erwin, of Davidson, visited friends here the latter part of last week.

Miss Pearl Gibbs has returned home from Maxton, where she has been teaching music for several weeks.

Mrs. J. H. Buckley and daughter, of Abingdon, Va., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kirby.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bobbitt, of Asheville, arrived in the city last Friday and will again make their home in Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Kirby and two children, of Gastonia, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. M. Gilkey during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Crawford and children, of Mocksville, and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Grayson, of High Point, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Jonas.

Mrs. J. E. Neal was taken to Asheville last Thursday where she underwent an operation Friday. The operation was successful and at last reports she was doing as well as could be expected.

B. B. Price attended the Sunday School Institute at Rutherfordton last week. Mr. Price returned home Tuesday afternoon, having walked the greater part of the way. He reports fearful damage in that section.

The Department of Agriculture of the State, the duty of which it is to enforce the pure food laws, has spent much time on the matter of requiring ice cream dealers to comply with the law. An inspection will be made soon of all places in the State which sell ice cream, and places where it is sold must be in a clean and sanitary condition. As yet no prosecutions have been made of the ice cream dealers, the department reports, but they have been given ample opportunity to comply with the law, and in the future violations will have to be reported to the courts.

Surprise Wedding at Old Fort.

Old Fort, N. C., July 14.—A surprise wedding of unusual interest took place here Thursday night, when Mrs. Lucy McCarry and T. L. Grant were married. Rev. R. F. Mock, of the Methodist church, officiated. The marriage of these two popular residents of Old Fort was a distinct surprise to even their most intimate friends. Mrs. McCarry is the daughter of T. M. Green, and Mr. Grant is the postmaster here.

Court Proceedings.

Owing to absence of witnesses, court adjourned Monday afternoon. In addition to the cases mentioned last week, the following cases were disposed of:

Joe Parker, Will Cannon, Walter Lewis and Harve Presley, charged with conspiracy and assault, were each sentenced to twelve months on the Henderson county roads. Each of the defendants appealed to the Supreme court.

Alf Boyce, dynamiting residence, not guilty.

Ella Deal, assault with deadly weapon, fined $20 and cost.

Walter Curtis, carrying concealed weapon, fined $10 and cost.

William Clark, retailing, three cases; fined $25 and required to show for a period of two years that he has not manufactured or sold any wine, peach juice or any intoxicating liquors.

Joe Ray, carrying concealed weapon, sentenced to 30 days in jail.

District Conference.

The district conference of the Morganton district convened at Glen Alpine last Thursday, the 13th. The sessions were presided over by Rev. J. E. Gay, presiding elder of this district, with Rev. J. B. Carpenter as secretary. There was a large attendance, the usual routine business was transacted and a resolution was adopted favoring the union of the Northern and Southern Methodist church. The administration of Presiding Elder Gay was endorsed and he was extended a month's vacation and given a purse to pay his expenses at Lake Jnnaluska.

Burnsville was selected as the place of meeting next year and Noah Pitts, of Glen Alpine; G. E. Gardner, of Burnsville; L. H. Miller, of Old Fort, and J. M. Swafford, of Rutherford county, were elected delegates to the annual conference which meets in Gastonia in November.

Farm Demonstrator For Rutherford

It is now an assured fact that Rutherford county will again have a farm demonstration agent. The county commissioners in session last Monday made an appropriation for the purpose, and District Agent E. S. Millsaps, of Statesville, who was at the meeting, stated that work would begin about July 30th. Mr. C. C. Proffit, of Bald Creek, Yancey county, will be the demonstration agent for Rutherford county.—Rutherfordton Sun.

Services at the Episcopal church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

A clean town never needs to advertise the fact. It spreads.

A MATTER OF BUSINESS.

It is poor business to neglect your health. Your health depends mostly on the condition of your teeth.

Aside from the pain of toothache, neuralgia, a foul breath and bad appearance, you are incapacitated for any kind of work or business.

It is a matter of good or bad business judgement whether you have your teeth attended to by the old slip shod and unsanitary methods, or in an up-to-date scientific manner.
