Asheville Citizens

Claimed by Flood

Saluda—It is quite indefinite as to when the Southern will operate trains over its Asheville and Spartanburg division. Train 42 which left Asheville Friday is tied up at Melrose. It is uncertain when the road will again be open to travel.

Catawba Bridge Washed Away.

Charlotte, July 16.—What is said to be the worst flood ever known in Catawba and Broad river today had done damage that will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars in the territory within a radius of fifty miles north and west of Charlotte.

Ten or twelve bridge workers under Joe Killiam, division engineer of the Southern, went down with the Southern's main line bridge at Belmont, out of Charlotte, late today. Five or six were reported caught in tops of trees and rescued.

Just above the Southern's bridge the Piedmont and Northern Interurban bridge and the Seaboard Air Line bridge were washed away. Farther up the river near Mooresville and Statesville two highway bridges went out, while at Catawba the Southern bridge on the Salisbury-Asheville division was washed away. At Munbo, below Catawba, the west Munbo Cotton Mill of 5000 spindles is under water and the East Munbo Mill is almost under water, while a cotton warehouse with four hundred bales has been washed away.

Damage to mills is laid to a water spout in Alexander county that caused the earth embankment of the Lookout Shoals power plant of the Southern Power Company to give way today, adding fifteen feet of water to the already more than twenty foot tide in the Catawba. That volume of water also caused the last two or three bridges to go.

The Dravo Power Company dam on Broad river near Shelby went out late today, menacing the Southern Power Company plant near Blacksburg, S. C.

GOOD TASTE IN FURNITURE

There are standards of good taste in furniture—just as there are in everything else. Yet People often spend more time and money in searching for personal adornments than they do for clothes for the house.

Nowadays when such good furniture may be purchased so inexpensively no family need neglect the proper furnishing of the home.

We have in stock all grades of furniture from the choicest Period pieces to the plainest and least expensive.

You may choose what you wish for at any price you desire. We are always glad to show you our goods even if you are "merely looking"—and our advice is given with pleasure for this is a source of personal service.

NOTICE!

On account of the damage to the water line there will be no water in the reservoir for several days.

Everyone is requested to boil the water used for drinking purposes to prevent if possible typhoid contagion.

Fill up bath tubs with water and use this for flushing closets. You can have water brought to your home for 25 cents a barrel. Don't use outside surface closets if it is possible to prevent it. Place the water in box above the closet and flush, by this means it will drain better.

We ask our citizens to comply with this request and to use lime freely around premises.

Bills of Ignorance.

"Just look at this, Jane," said the lady of the house, "I can actually write my name in the dust on this sideboard."

"So yez kin, ma'am," replied Jane, admiringly. "Yez oughter be proud av th' eddycation yez do have."

The Apprehension.

"Do you permit dogs in this apartment house?"

"No," replied the agent.

"Afraid they might annoy the residents?"

"No. The quarters are so cramped we are afraid of the S. P. C. A."

BARGAINS.

"Better mark those goods up 33 1-3 per cent."

"Why?"

"The reduction will be more striking when we mark them down one-fourth."

The Trouble.

"Dogs are allowed on this car. Why do you want to bar mine?"

"Most dogs are, sir, but there's a rule against expectation, and begging pardon, sir, your dog's a Spitz."

Strange Falling.

"William always goes to pieces when he has to speak."

"Well, if he's any kind of a Bill, he ought to be able to collect himself."
