LOCAL AND PERSONAL

J. E. Wilson, of Ashford was a visitor here Tuesday.

Jas. G. Hollifield, of Little Switzerland, was in town Monday

Don't forget the meeting at the court house next Saturday night.

Mrs. R. H. Bennett is visiting relatives and friends in Statesville.

Mrs. J. J. Fritz and little son are visiting relatives in Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. M. F. Morphew is reported seriously ill at a sanatorium in Asheville.

R. L. McCurry and family have moved to the J. A. Perry property near Elhanan.

Supt. S. L. Sheep and family now occupy rooms at Mrs. W. M. Blanton's.

The new plate glass front for the City Barber Shop is a decided improvement.

Governor Craig's appointment to speak at Old Fort on the night of the 28th has been cancelled.

Mrs. D. S. Masters and little son, of Black Mountain, are visiting relatives and friends here.

Mrs. R. B. Clark has gone to Texas where she will spend some time with relatives and friends.

There will be a special communication of Mystic Tie Lodge No. 237, A. F. & A. M., next Friday night.

Can you vote? Not unless you register. The books are now open but will close October 28. Register today.

Mrs. L. E. Wooten and daughter, Margaret, of Knoxville, Tenn., are visiting the former's father, A. B. Gilkey.

Mayor J. W. Streetman has just finished remodeling his house on Garden street and it is now considered one of the handsomest residences in Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. DeTamble and mother, of Charlotte, were visitors here Friday. Mr. DeTamble is head of the Ford Automobile company for the Carolinas.

Hon. R. N. Page, Representative of the 7th district, will speak at the court house next Monday night at 8 o'clock. Everybody is invited to come out and hear this distinguished speaker.

There will be a box supper at the Stroudtown school house, Saturday night, October 28. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the school. The public is cordially invited to attend.

W. B. Quinn, an aged Confederate veteran, died at his home at Woodlawn last Friday night. Mr. Quinn was about 80 years old and is survived by three daughters, Mrs. William Godfrey of Morganton, Mrs. Bud Bird and Miss Quinn of Woodlawn.

Dave Bowman has returned from the Rutherford hospital where he underwent an operation two weeks ago. He is improving rapidly.

In its issue of the 10th The Gastonia Gazette presented some interesting facts about some of the officers of the State Division U. D. C., together with their pictures. In the group was Mrs. J. Q. Gilkey of this place with the following clipping: "Third vice-president of the North Carolina Division of the U. D. C. resides at Marion. Mrs. Gilkey organized the McDowell Chapter U. D. C. in her home town and served as its president for four years. She is very much devoted to the work of the organization."

Won Prizes at Fair.

The many friends of Mrs. B. A. Cheek, who formerly resided here where she has relatives, will be interested in the following clipping taken from the Knoxville Sentinel, giving an account of recent prizes won at the Knoxville fair:

"Mrs. B. A. Cheek, 2418 Virginia avenue, won first and second prizes in crochet work in the contests at the Woman's building. Mrs. Cheek is seventy-six years old, and is quite an expert at this work. She also won first and second in embroidery work. In the contests at the expositions held here about three years ago, Mrs. Cheek also won prizes. She is very proud of her prizes, and thinks she did exceedingly well for one of her age."

Members of the McDowell Chapter U. D. C. Are Honored.

Daughters to the U. D. C. convention in Gastonia last week have returned and are unbounded in their praise of Gastonia's hospitality. It seemed that nothing was left undone for the comfort and enjoyment of the visitors. The mayor, the Board of Trade and Woman's Betterment Society tendered luncheons and automobile rides, the D. A. R. and Mrs. T. L. Craig receptions, and Mrs. O. F. Mason a tea in honor of the convention. Everybody seemed to welcome the Daughters and the men and women of the town worked together for this end.

The McDowell chapter was doubly honored as it has two members on the official board. Mrs. J. Q. Gilkey was re-elected third vice-president and Mrs. J. W. Pless was elected treasurer. The war records of Captain T. Y. Lytle and Captain G. W. Seagle received high recommendation from the State Historian, Miss Georgia Hicks.

Democratic Speakings.

A MATTER OF BUSINESS.

It is poor business to neglect your health. Your health depends mostly on the condition of your teeth.

Aside from the pain of toothache, neuralgia, a foul breath and bad appearance, you are incapacitated for any kind of work or business.

It is a matter of good or bad business judgement whether you have your teeth attended to by the old slip shod and unsanitary methods, or in an up-to-date scientific manner.
