and SOCIETY NEWS

PROGRAM
MARION THEATRE

THURSDAY and FRIDAY,
February 27-28

JOHN BOLES and GLADYS SWARTHOUT in
"ROSE OF THE RANCHO"

An outdoor musical that combines smashing outdoor Western action with sparkling songs and music, and has a charming romantic plot, beautiful California settings, and two great singing stars. It's great entertainment and we know you'll like it. Also a special cartoon—

"ADVENTURES OF POP EYE THE SAILOR"

SATURDAY, Feb. 29—

JACK HOLT in
"DANGEROUS WATERS"
An action-thriller of the open seas
A Todd-Kelly comedy.

"THREE LIVE GHOSTS"
NOTE: 10:10 P. M. Show—with RICHARD ARLEN
A riot of fun and laughs.

MONDAY and TUESDAY,
March 2-3

MARGARET SULLIVAN with RANDOLPH SCOTT in
"SO RED THE ROSE"

Stark Young's great novel which headed the best-seller lists for months, brought to the screen in a magnificent production. The story is a dramatic romance played against the background of the old South with its beauty and gallantry and chivalry, and combines a tender romance with drama and conflict. A great novel, a glorious picture! Don't miss seeing it.

WEDNESDAY, March 4—REB RUSSELL in

"LIGHTNING TRIGGERS"
A packed-with-action Western.

MISS DEBS HENDERSON ENTERTAINS FOR MISS VIRGINIA GILKEY

Miss Debs Henderson complimented Miss Virginia Gilkey, bride-elect with four tables of bridge Saturday afternoon.

Miss Gilkey and Mrs. Jack Noyes, Jr., were presented lovely gifts.

Miss Henderson used the George Washington motif in her covers and refreshments. She served two courses. The ice cream was clever red, white and blue hatchets, with cherry trees iced on the cakes. Candy dolls dressed in celophane, representing bridesmaids were favors. Miss Gilkey's favor was a lovely celophane bride.

Those invited: Miss Gilkey, Mrs. W. K. M. Gilkey, Mrs. Noyes, Jr., Mrs. Fletcher Shumaker, Mrs. Paul Howard, Mrs. Vernon Eckerd, Misses Elizabeth Neal, Kathryn Giles, Mary Margaret Giles, Marguerite Morris, Margaret Gilkey, Grayse Mary Justice, Laura Neal Newton, Bonnie Cox, and Frances Jones of Greensboro.

MRS. JACK NEWTON GIVES BUFFET SUPPER

A lovely affair of the week was the buffet supper and bridge party given by Mrs. Jack Newton at her home on North Main street Saturday evening when she entertained the members of the Contract Bridge Club, their husbands and several additional guests. Four tables were in play for contract bridge Mrs. R. B. Crisp won high score prize for the ladies and L. J. P. Cutlar for the men. Mrs. L. J. P. Cutlar and Dr. Frank Wood received the consolation award.

Invited guests were Misses Mary Yancey, Mrs. Roy McNairy, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cross, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Frank Wood, W. D. Lonon, and Carter Hudgins.

MISS BURTON HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Miss Julia Burton was hostess at a dinner-bridge Thursday evening at her home on North Main street. Her guests included members of the La Nuite Bridge Club, and Mesdames W. W. Neal, Jr., Simeon Cross, and John Tyler, of Rocky Mount. The George Washington motif was effectively carried out in the appointments, place cards and tallies.

Upon the arrival of the guests a four-course dinner was served at two small tables, after which contract bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. W. W. Neal, Jr., won high score prize and was presented with a boutonniere of cherries.

MRS. CUTLAR ENTERTAINS WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. L. J. P. Cutlar was hostess at a George Washington luncheon last Wednesday, entertaining the members of the Wednesday afternoon Bridge Club at her home "Bonnie Doon" on Buck Creek. The George Washington motif was used in all the table appointments. The table was graced with a miniature cherry tree and the place cards were small bunches of cherries.

Concluding the luncheon the guests were invited to the living room where contract was enjoyed at two tables. After several progressions Mrs. Ralph Alexander was presented with high score.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY ELECTS OFFICERS

The general meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church was held Monday afternoon in the church parlor, with the president, Mrs. Arthur McCall, presiding. During the business meeting officers for the coming year were elected. They were as follows: Mrs. R. E. McCall, president; Mrs. W. S. Shiftet, vice-president; Mrs. Charlie Craig, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. George McCall, historian.

After a devotional led by Mrs. J. W. Streetman, the pastor, Rev. A. R. Batchelor, presented a most interesting talk on "Foreign Missions" discussing China and Japan. Concluding the program, the meeting was dismissed with prayer.

MEMBERS OF CHURCH CHOIR ENTERTAINED

Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Batchelor entertained at a lovely party in the dining room of the First Presbyterian Church Thursday evening, honoring the members of the church choir and a few additional guests. Progressive games and contests provided entertainment. Among the winners were Miss Elsie House and Miss Lois Gilkey. In conclusion, the hostess, assisted by Mr. J. W. Streetman, and Mr. C. A. Workman, served an ice course carrying out the George Washington motif.

MRS. HARRIS HONORS MRS. NOYES AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Jack Noyes, Jr., recent bride, who has been accorded a series of social courtesies, was honored, again on Tuesday when Mrs. Chas. A. Harris entertained in her honor at a charming bridge luncheon. Upon the arrival of the guests they were invited to the dining room where cocktails and hors d'oeuvres were served. The table was covered with a handsome cloth and centered with a bowl of carnations.

Concluding the first course, a salad and sweet course was served at three individual tables arranged in the living room, which were later set up for contract. Mrs. R. J. Noyes, Sr., won high score award. To the honoree the hostess presented maderia tea napkins.

Covers were laid for Mrs. R. J. Noyes, Jr., Misses Charlotte Winborne, Virginia Gilkey, Marguerite Morris, Debs Henderson, Grayse Mary Justice, Elizabeth Neal, Katherine and Mary Margaret Giles, and Mesdames Paul Howard, Vernon Eckerd and R. J. Noyes, Sr.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. G. B. JUSTICE

The Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. G. B. Justice on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ernest Crawford and Mrs. C. A. Harris as assisting hostesses. Twenty-six members were present.

New officers for the coming year were appointed as follows: Mrs. J. L. Gourley, president; Mrs. B. A. Dickson, vice-president; Mrs. Roy Davis, secretary; and Mrs. W. G. Ballew, treasurer.

At the conclusion of business Mrs. Hugh Beam gave the prologue to the play, "They're None of Them Perfect", by Sophie Kerr. Those taking part were Mrs. W. B. Gibbs, Mrs. Fred Bryson, Mrs. Robert McCall, Mrs. John Finley, and Mrs. W. C. Branch.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. R. Chambers, on March 11.

MRS. J. M. SULLIVAN ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. J. M. Sullivan delightfully entertained members of her bridge club at her home Friday afternoon. Pretty potted plants were used in the living room where the tables were arranged for contract bridge. After several progressions Mrs. J. R. Logan received a potted plant for high score award. Concluding the game a salad and sweet course was served.

Mrs. J. R. Logan was an invited guest.

MRS. T. W. WILSON FETES BOOK CLUB

Members of the Book Club and a few special guests were delightfully entertained by Mrs. T. W. Wilson at her home on South Main street Saturday afternoon. After several progressions of "108" books were exchanged. In conclusion the hostess assisted by Mrs. Roy Davis, served a salad and sweet course.

Invited guests were Mesdames A. E. Neal and Fred Morris.

PLEASANT GARDENS GRANGE ENTERTAINED

Members of the Pleasant Gardens Grange entertained with a most enjoyable oyster supper last Monday evening in the Pleasant Gardens community house. Forty-three grangers were present. Mrs. John Ray Jimerson, social chairman, was in charge. Games and contests furnished entertainment for the evening. Oysters were donated by R. L. Greenlee and coffee was given by the management of the A. & P. Store.

MRS. CONLEY HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Roby Conley was hostess at a lovely party Tuesday evening at her home, entertaining the members of the Pleasant Gardens Bridge Club and their husbands. Three tables were placed for contract bridge. Concluding the game, Mrs. J. R. Jameson won top score for the ladies and L. J. P. Cutlar for the men. A salad course was served carrying out the St. Patrick's motif.

MISS GILES ENTERTAIN

Honoring Mrs. Jack Noyes, Jr., and Mrs. Fletcher Shumaker, recent brides, and Miss Virginia Gilkey, bride-elect, Misses Katherine and Mary Margaret Giles entertained informally at a lovely tea at their home on Rutherford Road last Friday afternoon. The table was covered with a blue imported cloth and centered with a blue bowl filled with red, white and blue candy. Silver candlesticks holding blue tapers were used at each end.

The guests included twenty-five intimate friends of the honorees.

Next Monday and Tuesday at the Marion Theatre a picture you've heard about, — "SO RED THE ROSE". It's a splendid production, so be sure to see it.
