SOUTHERN PINES.

M. F. Utley spent Wednesday in Raleigh.

A. H. Root visited Pinehurst last Wednesday.

Murray Forbes, of the S. A. L. spent Tuesday in our city.

B. W. Ederly of Milton, N. H., is at the Ozone for the winter.

Mrs. T. Catlin has rented her home to a family from Washington county, N. Y.

W. F. A. Kurz, who has been spending some time in New York City, has returned.

Mr. P. A. Stebbins and family have returned to town and will occupy their old home again.

The electric car from Pinehurst is a welcome sight. Now is the time to get up trolley excursions.

The Seaboard Air Line has added another side track here to make room for the heavy freight traffic.

P. H. Beck and family returned Wednesday night from Pennsylvania, where they have been spending several months.

Miss McNeil, of Boston, Mass., who has been spending the past two months here with Mrs. Hall, returned home Wednesday morning.

T. R. Baker of Boston has purchased the Hugh Black place on the Carthage road, containing 800 acres of land. He is now boarding at the Ozone hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bard, who have been living here for the past two years, left Tuesday night for Jersey City, N. J., at which place Mr. Bard will enter the hardware business.

The stores of O. P. Johnson and C. T. Patch were broken into last Monday night. The burglars were probably frightened away as but a small amount of property was missing.

Stringer's block is beginning to show what it will be when finished. The first floor will have a barber shop, reading room, pool room and bowling alley, and the second floor a tenement of six rooms, and seven rooms will be provided on the third floor.

Mack Cross (colored) was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Clark last Saturday on the charge of illegally selling liquor. The commissioner found sufficient cause to bind him over to the United States court, and failing to get bonds he will await trial in Carthage jail.

It is rumored that the freight station of the Seaboard Air Line is to be moved from its present location. In that event it would be a great improvement to have it located some distance southwest of the passenger station and thus have space for passengers to alight from the cars without getting mixed with freight, etc.

The King's Daughters gave a New England supper in their hall last Wednesday evening. After supper Mr. W. E. Chivers, the artist, entertained the company with chalk drawings which were afterward sold at auction, bringing in a nice little sum. The whole affair was very pleasant and profitable. Mr. Bolwitso kindly acted as auctioneer.

Debating Society.

The Pine Ridge Intellectual Improvement society at their regular meeting last Friday evening elected these officers for the ensuing term of 4 weeks: President, P. A. Gillis; Secretary, Daniel Bunnell; Marshall, D. A. Currie; Monitor, J. D. Fry. The subject under discussion, "Which would be best for a young man twenty years of age, an ample fortune or a through education," was decided favorable to an ample fortune. The subject at the next meeting will be, "Which is the most enjoyable, anticipation or realization." DEADFALL.

Getting Metropolitan.

Last Saturday two hand-organs with monkeys attached struck town about the same time and did a land-office business. This offsets the Aberdeenians' two circuses in one week, and it is now their turn to be green with envy.

ABERDEEN.

The wife of J. H. Hall died last Monday morning.

Mrs. J. E. Malloy of Salisbury is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. H. Powell.

Dr. H. C. Williams, who accompanied A. F. Page to the hospital in Baltimore, has returned home and reports Mr. Page slowly gaining in health.

The names on the weekly roll of honor at the academy are: Mary McKeithen, Mabel Johnson, Talbot Johnson, Vashti Rand, Richard Rush, Mildred Williams, Fannie Powell, Inez Seawell.

W. C. Hull, yardmaster for the Seaboard Air Line, was run over in the freight yard by the shifting engine and fatally injured last Monday evening. He died about 8 a. m. on Tuesday.

Landlord Powell who has heretofore kept a transient hotel, is now prepared to take a few boarders during the winter season. Sportsmen from the north who desire to spend part of their time in the hunting field should patronize the Powell house.

WEST END.

The public school is open for the winter term, with Augustus Caddell as teacher.

Mrs. Nelson B. Jones, who has been sick the past seven weeks, is now able to be about the house.

The case of horse stealing which has been postponed twice, was before M. L. Morris and Daniel Blue, town magistrates, yesterday, and again postponed, this time to Saturday the 27th inst. This does not appear to be a clear case of horse stealing, but a difference of opinion between the buyer and seller of the animal. The seller had waited long for his pay and at last took the animal back without the knowledge of the party of the second part, and a settlement will now be had in court.

There is a restaurant in Boston where the bill of fare might as well sing itself in the minds of the waiters as the "Punch, brothers, punch with care," is supposed to affect conductors. It runs like this:—

"One egg on one butter-cake, 6 cents.
One egg on two butter-cake, 8 cents.
Two eggs on one butter-cake, 10 cents.
Two eggs on two butter-cakes, 12 cents."
