NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Superior court convenes in Carthage Nov. 29th.

A marriage will soon be celebrated in the vicinity of West End.

Thomas King of Carthage inspected the beauties of Pinehurst last Sunday.

E. H. Caddell & Sons will soon remove their saw mill to the vicinity of Parkwood.

Mr. — says that Pompey is a favorite no longer. The trolley cars are now running.

M. D. McIver of our village, has been appointed town marshal of Carthage. Evil doers take notice.

Rev. W. R. Coppedge will preach at the Jackson Springs church next Sabbath, at 11 o'clock a. m.

Sweet potatoes are now being dug at the village farm. Several specimens tip the scales at four pounds each.

Supt. Benbow is a very busy man these days, but he manages to look out for the comfort of every one in the village and has a pleasant word for all.

The Casino restaurant is growing in popularity, and the excellent fare provided by the manager, Mrs. A. E. Upham, is winning many words of praise.

The new town magistrate expresses his intention to strictly enforce the law against the use of bicycles on the sidewalks in the village. A word to the wise is sufficient.

All communications to THE OUTLOOK must be accompanied by the writer's name, not necessarily for publication but to insure good faith. No exception will be made to this rule.

Remember the debate at the Pine Ridge school house tonight, and assist in settling the question, "Which is the most damaging to the community, a prevaricator or a drunkard?"

Rev. Mr. Ransom of Southern Pines preached a very interesting and instructive sermon last Sunday morning, from John 7:17: "If any man will do His will, he shall know the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself."

At the Pine Ridge Sunday school last Sabbath, Duncan Black gave a talk to the members, in addition to the regular services. Immediately after the session of the Sunday school a prayer meeting was held in place of the regular prayer meeting at the Arbor.

Regular religious services are now being held in Pinehurst, and it is expected that a Union Sunday school will be formed Sunday, November 28th. Announcements for this, the Sunday evening service, and mid-week prayer meeting will be made later on.

On Sunday morning the service at 11 o'clock in the Casino parlor will be in charge of Rev. Rufus B. Tobey of Boston. Gen. H. B. Carrington of Boston will address the meeting; Subject: "The Bible mirror of man." A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this service.

The question under discussion at the meeting of the Pine Ridge Intellectual Improvement society last Friday evening—"Which is the most enjoyable, anticipation or realization?"—was settled favorable to anticipation. The subject at the next meeting will be: "Which is the most dangerous to the community, a prevaricator or a drunkard."

A resident of the village who has been in this section somewhat more than a year partook of his first roast 'possum last Sunday. The animal was dressed in a scientific manner by a colored expert, and roasted to a turn, and our estimable citizen informs us that he won't allow another year to pass without enjoying this toothsome Southern dish.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. N. Packard of Pinebluff enjoyed the sights in the village last Monday.

J. D. Fry, who has been to the Fayetteville fair, returned home last Friday evening.

Prof. A. C. Rhodes, superintendent of the Experimental Farm, was in the village last Sunday.

Mrs. Fowler, wife of Stanley G. Fowler, editor of S.A.L. Magazini, was in town yesterday and paid a visit to the office of THE OUTLOOK.

Mrs. Martha Parkhurst of Mountain-side, N. J., and her niece, Miss Edith Andrews of Atlantic City, N. J., will make their winter home here.

Miss Mabel T. Hall of Newton, Mass., who was a leader of equestrian parties in our village last winter, writes that she will arrive at the Holly Inn about the first of next month.

Misses M. H. and E. M. Andrews of Roseville, Newark, N. J. will occupy cottage C on Elm road the coming winter. Mr. H. Helroyd, also of Newark, has engaged apartments in the same cottage.

Capt. Allen V. Reed of New Canaan, Conn., writes to subscribe for THE OUTLOOK, and states that he and his family will soon occupy a cottage on Main street, which he has rented for the season.

Mrs. E. F. Adams and son of East Boston, Mass., who occupied a suite in "The Palmetto" last season, will again visit Pinehurst this winter and occupy a suite in the new "Marlborough" on East Main street.

Francis Deaton arrived home on Tuesday from a trip to Hope Mills, where he is interested in a survey for a new railroad, which is intended to connect Hope Mills and Southern Pines, a distance of about 30 miles.

Sarah D. Gilbert of New York City is occupying a suite of rooms in the "Palmetto." Miss Gilbert is a well-known artist and will no doubt reproduce on canvas some of the interesting and unique scenes in this vicinity, during her winter sojourn here.

L. Stanley Redding and Fred Poole of West Medford, Mass., Frank E. Lindsey of Orange, Mass., and E. R. Ellis of South Boston, Mass., arrived in town last Sunday evening. They are members of the orchestra at the Holly Inn, and will remain here during the season.

Mrs. Seeley D. Sutton and child of Medford, Mass., will spend the coming winter in our village. Mrs. Sutton has made her winter residence here since the village was founded, and her regular return during the cold weather is a good testimonial of Pinehurst's advantages as a winter resort.

Mr. W. W. Trickey of Jackson Falls, N. H., arrived yesterday, and the Pine Grove House is now open for boarders for the season of 1897-8. Mr. Trickey conducted the same house successfully during the past season and can be relied upon to give satisfactory service in every respect.

Letter from General Carrington.

Mr. Tufts sends us the following letter which, with the permission of General Carrington, we take pleasure in publishing.

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 14, 1897.
DEAR MR. TUFTS:—

Arrived safely on Friday morning, and found every accessory to our immediate comfort, fully anticipated. My entire baggage came yesterday, and we are fully settled. I am more than I could possibly anticipate, delighted with Pinehurst, its climate, its adjuncts, natural and artificial, and anticipate, not only for ourselves a delightful and profitable winter, but for the place itself an ever increasing popularity and patronage, in proportion as its merits are known.

Sincerely yours,
HENRY B. CARRINGTON, U. S. A.

Pinehurst Nurseries.

Beautify your gardens. The best planting-time begins now. We wish to call your attention to our healthy stock of over one quarter million trees, shrubs and climbers, each one an ornament to any garden, which we can offer at very reasonable prices. We are glad to give you any information and advice if you let us know what you want. As a special bargain we offer our fine stock of over 25,000 grape vines in best varieties at prices next to nothing. We desire to clear the land for other cultures and therefore must dispose of the vines quickly. Write for details. Visitors are always welcome to our grounds.
