AUTUMN IN THE SOUTH.

(CONCLUDED FROM FIRST PAGE.)

especially the latter, and, if by chance Thanksgiving lacked anything of good cheer, it could be amply made up at this season.

Remembering how pleasant was this holiday season in the pine woods years ago, and realizing how much more favorable are all the conditions for enjoyment now, the writer feels like urging all who propose spending the winter at Pinehurst to go now, and get the benefit of its mild autumnal weather. They will lose nothing; they will gain much.

BENJAMIN A. GOODBRIDGE.

SOUTHERN PINES.

Miss Edith Ruggles visited Pinehurst last Tuesday.

W. R. Perry and family of Rushville, N. Y., are occupying rooms in Mr. Getchell's new house.

C. L. Hayes, the news dealer, has thoroughly renovated and painted the interior of his store on Pennsylvania avenue.

D. Augustus Clark and Miss Ella A. Cole were last Tuesday united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. G. R. Ransom, pastor of the Congregational church.

Little Florence Smith, the six-year-old child of Mr. I. W. Smith, after leaving school last Monday afternoon wandered away from home, and being missed as darkness came on a large party of men started out to find her. After a vigorous search she was found wandering in the vicinity of the Piney Woods Inn about 9 o'clock in the evening and returned to her home, bringing happiness to all concerned.

Clinton and Polly McMillan (colored) of Cumberland county were brought before U. S. Commissioner Clark, this week, charged with illegally selling corn whiskey. As a result of the examination Mrs. Polly was set free, but Clinton was bound over to the U. S. court at Raleigh the first Monday in December, in the sum of $300. He was lucky enough to get bonds and will enjoy his freedom until the time set for trial.

The Y. P. S. C. E. will hold a sale of choice drawings and pictures in King's Daughters hall, on Monday next, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Cake, tea and chocolate will be on sale. No admission fee will be charged in the afternoon. In the evening, commencing at 7 o'clock, an entertainment called "The Peak Family" will be given. Admission fifteen cents; children, ten cents. The proceeds are to help buy choir and pulpit seats for the new Congregational church.

ABERDEEN.

Miss Mary Page is visiting relatives in Alabama.

Dr. Jewett has returned from a short visit to Lumberton.

Squire Shaw and wife, of Southern Pines, were in town shopping last Tuesday.

Dr. Bethune has removed to Lumberton, where he will continue the practice of his profession.

Miss Emma Page left last Tuesday for Raleigh and will attend the Methodist conference while there.

Miss Cornelia Shaw left last week to make her home in Biscoe, much to the regret of her many friends.

N. M. Bryan, the general merchant, has just received a full line of goods and toys for the Christmas trade.

A. F. Page is home from Baltimore, where he went for medical treatment, very much improved in health.

Rev. Jesse H. Page was at the Methodist Church Conference for the Eastern District, held at Raleigh last Wednesday.

H. H. Powell, the real estate agent, has a number of houses, farms, and large tracts of land for sale, which he is offering at remarkably low prices. The Johnson plantation, one mile from town on the main road to southern Pines, is a bargain. It contains 280 acres of land, of which forty acres are under cultivation, a six-room house, barns and necessary out-buildings, all in good order and with water supply in house and barn. A beautiful lake stocked with fish is on the premises. The house is on high ground commanding an extended view of the surrounding country, and the estate is very desirable property.

Embossed in Gold.

To buy and reproduce famous paintings involves an expenditure that could hardly be borne unless, as in the case of The Youth's Companion, the enterprise is sustained by the approval of more than five hundred thousand subscribers. The Companion's Souvenir Calendar for 1898, a series of charming figure-pieces, faithfully copied in colors and embossed in gold, is recognized as one of the richest and most costly examples of this form of art. Yet every new subscriber receives it without additional charge. Moreover, the paper is sent free to new subscribers every week from the time the subscription is received until January, 1898, and then a full year to January, 1899.

The popular price of The Companion, $1.75 a year, and the character of its contents, make it a paper for every household. Exceptional attractions are promised for the fifty-two numbers to be issued during 1898. The Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, the Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Rudyard Kipling, Lillian Nordica, John Burroughs, W. D. Howells, and Max O'Rell are prominent in the long list of eminent contributors named in The Companion's announcement, which will be sent free to any one addressing The Youth's Companion, 205 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.

Letter From a Former Resident.

WOBURN, MASS., Dec. 1, 1897.

MR. F. T. SPINNEY:

MY DEAR SIR:—Enclosed please find check for one dollar in payment of one year's subscription to THE OUTLOOK. Happily the necessity of a trip south this winter does not exist, but if we were to follow our inclinations solely, we should spend the next three months at the Holly Inn. THE OUTLOOK is very welcome each week, as it is a reminder of the many pleasant acquaintances made during our stay last winter.

With best wishes, I am,

Yours very sincerely,

WINTHROP HAMMOND.
