THE OUTLOOK is now occupying permanent quarters with ample room especially fitted up for newspaper work. Though young in the journalistic field, we feel encouraged by the support we are receiving to improve our plant, multiply our pages, and endeavor to present to our patrons the news and matters of interest as fully as possible. In this issue THE OUTLOOK contains eight pages of matter which we believe will be of interest to the people of the North and South alike, and hereafter it will be our ambition not only to continue the size but also to improve THE OUTLOOK in every respect, the first of which we believe will be comparatively easy from the fact that in place of the motive power of Africa's sons, we are now able in working the successor of Franklin's press, to utilize the spark which was by him first discovered. We believe in booming North Carolina and to show to the world outside our borders, that the conditions that make life pleasant and profitable can be found within the limits of the Old North State to a greater extent than in any other portion of our great country.

THE OUTLOOK is a weekly newspaper and gives all the news possible in each weekly issue, but we desire to give news more frequently to our people and have come to the conclusion that we can do so to some extent by providing a bulletin board on the outside of our office. This we have done, and have made arrangement to have all events of importance occurring in the North especially, telegraphed to us for the benefit of our northern visitors and others who are far from their permanent homes.

OUR CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION.

Plans Made and Committees Appointed Last Monday Evening.

A meeting was held in the Casino parlor last Monday evening to discuss plans for a Christmas celebration in the new Village Hall. Rev. R. B. Tobey was elected chairman, Miss Mabel T. Hall, secretary, and Miss Nettie Drew, treasurer. It was agreed to follow the same general plan as last year in dividing the work among various committees. Accordingly a committee on funds, including Miss Drew, Miss Upham, and Mr. Spinney, was appointed. Contributions large or small will be received by them, and will be devoted to defraying the expenses of the entertainment. The committee on decoration consists of Miss Gilbert, Miss Hopkinson, Dr. Jones, Mr. Vale, and Mr. Poole. The committee on entertainment consists of Mrs. Adams, Miss Carrington, Miss Jane Carrington, Mr. Redding, and Mr. Lindsey. It was agreed that the chairman, secretary, and treasurer of the meeting should serve as a central or executive committee. The various committees are to confer, devise plans and report at another meeting to be held next Monday evening in the Casino parlor. After some general discussion of plans that will be presented more fully matured next week, the meeting adjourned.

After the adjournment of the meeting for the Christmas entertainment a second meeting was held to consider the expediency of forming a society to promote the social side of life at Pinehurst by holding entertainments at intervals during the winter. Mr. Tobey was again made chairman and Miss Hall secretary. The subject was freely discussed and opinions were expressed by all present. The sentiment seemed in favor of giving the society a wide scope; not confining it to literary entertainments, but giving variety by having musical and dramatic entertainments, now and then. Mr. Spinney moved the appointment of a committee of five to consider the expediency of forming such a society and report a tentative plan after the next meeting of the Christmas committee. The motion was carried. Upon motion of Miss Frisbee it was voted that the committee be appointed by the chair. The chair accordingly named Mr. Spinney, Miss Frisbee, Miss Upham, Mrs. Adams and Gen. Carrington. The meeting then adjourned.
