NEWS IN BRIEF.

First cauliflower from market garden Tuesday morning.

Everett Couch of Southern Pines assumed the duties of motorman on the trolley car yesterday.

The little ones missed Wednesday's school session on account of the brief illness of Miss Taylor.

Rev. H. T. Gregory will hold Episcopal services at the school house Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

Strawberries were in bloom at the nursery yesterday. They are sheltered on the north by a wire fence.

Charles D. Benbow has been appointed postmaster in our village and will take possession of the office on Jan. 1st.

One of the finest specimens of mistletoe ever seen hereabouts, decorates the front entrance to the Eureka cottage.

Rev. H. M. Ingram will preach at the Beulah Hill Baptist church the fourth Sunday of each month at 11 o'clock a. m.

Rev. Prof. W. N. Clarke of Hamilton, N. Y., a guest at the Holly Inn, will preach next Sunday in the new school house.

Last Monday evening religious services were held in the Pinehurst school house, conducted by Rev. Hugh M. Ingram of Pekin, N. C.

At the Sunday school next Sunday morning Gen. H. B. Carrington will speak upon the theme: "The World at its first Christmas."

Motorman Bruce M. Buie of the Pinehurst Electric railroad, started this morning for Norfolk, Va., where he has another position in view.

Our colored brothers will be given a good time Christmas afternoon by our winter guests. A Christmas tree will be provided, with presents and an entertainment consisting of instrumental and vocal music, speeches, and declamations.

Rev. H. M. Ingram, pastor of the Beulah Hill Baptist church, held religious services in the Pine Ridge school house last Sunday, as the new meeting house is not yet finished. All services will be held in the school house until further notice.

An interesting and beneficial series of meetings has just closed at the Jackson Springs Presbyterian church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. R. Coppedge, assisted by Rev. Jonas Barclay of Charlotte, N. C. Eighteen persons were received into full fellowship on profession of faith.

The Union Bible school has been organized under the most favorable auspices, Mr. Tobey acting for the present as superintendent. The school holds its sessions immediately after the preaching services. Competent teachers are in charge of the different classes. The superintendent invites the co-operation of parents especially in this work.

The public appreciates the fact that our village has a well-stocked general store second to none in this section of the state, and during the entire week it has been thronged with buyers of Christmas goods. The silverware department has proved especially attractive and the bargains there offered are unprecedented in this part of the country.

Great interest is excited among the children connected with the Pine Ridge day and Sunday schools over the prospect of a genuine Santa Claus and Christmas tree on Christmas day. It is a new thing to them, and will be provided by some of our northern visitors. Parents and others are requested to bring presents to the school house early Saturday morning so they may be placed on the tree.

The following is a copy of the title page of a new book that our distinguished resident, Gen. H. B. Carrington has had copyrighted this week: "Washington as Soldier, in Narrative Form, with Illustrations, Maps, Chronological Index and Appendix, by Henry B. Carrington, U. S. A., LL. D., Author of 'Battles of the American Revolution,' 'Battle Maps and Charts of the Revolution,' 'Indian Operations on the Plains,' 'The Six Nations,' 'Beacon Lights of Patriotism,' Etc."

Great preparations are being made for the Christmas festival to be held in the Village Hall on Christmas eve. The hall will be tastily trimmed with holly, mistletoe, evergreen, etc., including "Old Glory," and every effort will be made that all may feel that Christmas here is the same as in the frozen North, only much more comfortable. Parents, sweethearts and others are requested to bring presents they intend to make, to the hall this morning, so that they may be placed on the Christmas tree. Let's all have a good time.

Mr. J. R. Moore of Charlotte, who is connected with the office of the Seaboard Air Line in that city, has been in town, and has made arrangements for taking a course of lessons in shorthand under the instruction of Prof. T. J. Ellinwood, who has had long experience not only as a practical reporter but as a teacher of phonography. Prof. Ellinwood will be pleased to also receive as pupils any persons in Pinehurst or the neighboring villages who may wish to acquire a knowledge of this useful art; and for further information he may be called upon, or addressed by letter, at "The Dartmouth" in this place.

Jones says he thought his gas-meter had gas-trick fever, but now believes it to be affected with galloping consumption.—Observer.

A juvenile logician.—"Ma, is there any pie left in the pantry?" "There is one piece, but you can't have it." "You are mistaken, ma, I've had it."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

MR. F. T. SPINNEY, PUBLISHER:

DEAR SIR,—Enclosed please find post office order for two dollars for one year's subscription for THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK; one copy for myself and one for Mrs. Hattie Thurston. We are very much pleased with the paper and would not like to be without it.

Yours truly,
I. W. SPRINGFIELD.

New Illustrated Literature.

The passenger department of the Seaboard Air Line has just issued two new illustrated books; one entitled "Education in the South," giving a full and complete list and description of schools, colleges and universities along the Seaboard Air Line; the other entitled "Winter Excursions via Seaboard Line," in which appears descriptive and illustrated sketches of the numerous winter tourist points reached via the Seaboard Air Line.

An exceptionally convenient feature of this book is the arrangement of excursion rates and routes to the principal Florida, Texas, Mexico and California resorts which show considerable reduction in total rates, especially to Southern Pines, N. C., the famous winter health resort, which was so well patronized last season.

Copies of these books can be secured by addressing T. J. Anderson, General Passenger Agent, Portsmouth, Va., enclosing five cents in stamps to cover postage.

THE OUTLOOK is for sale at this office at three cents per copy.
