

"Laugh and the world laughs with you,
But that isn't all by half;
Just bear in mind that we first must find
The things to make us laugh."

NEWS IN BRIEF.

LOST or mislaid, the key to the Pinehurst Museum. Finder please return to the General Office.

Miss Lillie Black has gone to Raeford academy for the remainder of the term, through the aid of the Dr. Hale Educational Fund.

Prof. Henry Gaddy and wife of Smoky Hollow are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the birth of a son (Benjamin Davis) last Monday.

A recent census taken in Pinehurst reveals the fact that among our villagers are people from twenty-five states and territories and three foreign countries.

The vesper service in the Village Hall last Sunday evening was conducted by Rev. R. B. Tobey. It was very interesting and was heartily enjoyed by all who participated.

Choice cut flowers, roses and carnations at lowest prices supplied promptly through the Pinehurst Nurseries. See list of prices and leave orders at the Department Store.

Episcopal services appropriate to Easter were held in the Village Hall last Sunday afternoon by Rev. Mr. Gregory. A pleasing feature was a vocal solo by Miss Eugenie Upham.

WANTED by electric wireman and dynamo tender, also expert in bicycle business, desires situation in Pinehurst or locality. Address C. W. Brown, Box 78, Southbridge, Mass.

Rev. Dr. Wright will preach at the Christian union services next Sunday morning. Dr. Wright is one of the best known and popular preachers of the South and a large congregation will no doubt be present to hear him.

A very pleasant dancing party was held at the home of Mr. Louis Letien last Wednesday evening. A large crowd was present and "tripped the light fantastic" to the music of violin and banjo. The gathering broke up at a late hour and all were pleased with the evening's recreation.

The County court is now in session at Carthage, presided over by Judge Robinson of Greensboro, and many cases are on the docket. The present week will dispose of the criminal cases, and next week the civil cases will be tried. Judge Robinson is guided in his decisions by a deep sense of justice and has rare faculty for completely summing up the evidence so that no juryman can fail to comprehend the evidence in every case.

Children's day was observed at the Jackson Hamlet colored church last Sunday afternoon. About forty of our Northern visitors were present and enjoyed the exercises, which were very interesting. Miss Pocahontas Carr, teacher of the day school, conducted the services and the children showed her careful training in their songs and recitations. The minister made a very timely address to the children and the occasion as a whole was very creditable to the colored people in this vicinity.

Mrs. Flora Patterson, sister of the late Sheriff Black of this county, was in town last Saturday with a wagon load of brooms, fat pine wood, gourds, arrow heads, walking sticks made of sweet gum wood, and other things curious to Northern eyes. She also has an ancient clock made in Scotland 106 years ago and brought to this country by her husband's father. The clock is now in the General Office and is for sale to the highest bidder. Mrs. Patterson sold many articles to our villagers, and returned home well satisfied with her trip.

popular lecturers in New England, arrived at Holly Inn with his wife last evening.

James W. McArdle, and wife and daughter Doris, of Boston, who have been spending the winter in our village, started north last Tuesday morning. They will stop at Richmond, Washington and New York, arriving home about the last of the month. Their many friends here will be pleased to learn that they intend to return to Pinehurst again next winter.

Dr. C. S. Adams and family of Wallaston, Mass., who have spent the winter in our village, returned to their Northern home last Tuesday morning. The doctor came here to rest and recover from the effects of the grip. He has succeeded to a remarkable degree and weighs twenty pounds more than when he arrived here. The family have made many friends in Pinehurst and will be warmly welcomed another winter.

Mrs. Baxter and daughter Jeanette started for their Northern home yesterday morning, but will spend some time in Washington on their way. Mr. Charles Baxter will remain with us several weeks longer. This is the second winter that Mrs. Baxter and family have spent in Pinehurst and they have been closely identified with everything of interest in the village. Miss Jeanette has especially endeared herself to those attending the Christian union services during the winter. Through the whole season she has given her services as pianist and has been as faithful as though a large salary was the reward. In many other ways she has been of great assistance in the social life in the village. Early in the season she was chosen secretary of the village entertainment committee and fulfilled the duties to the satisfaction of all. We trust it will be our good fortune to have the family with us again next season.

Easter Service.

One of the largest congregations of the season assembled in the Village Hall last Sunday morning and listened to a short, but very interesting sermon by Rev. R. B. Tobey of Boston, who took for his text I. Corinthians 15:19, 29, 32. A special musical program was very pleasingly given under the direction of Mr. St. Clair. Instrumental music was furnished by Miss Jeanette Baxter, pianist, and Miss Maud Clark, violinist, and a vocal solo by Mr. St. Clair was beautifully rendered. The program was as follows:

ORDER OF EXERCISES.

- Doxology.
- Invocation.
- Song, "Easter Praises," by Choir.
- Hymn 295, by Congregation.
- Responsive Reading.
- Anthem, "Seek ye the Lord," by Choir.
- Prayer.
- Notices.
- Offertory.
- Solo by Mr. St. Clair.
- Song, "Risen Redeemer," by Choir.
- Sermon.
- Anthem, "The Day is Past and Over," by Choir.
- Hymn 795, by Congregation.

Dobbs. "There's a man who shaves several times a day." Wigin. "You don't mean it? Should think there'd be nothing left of his face." Dobbs. "It doesn't hurt his face at all. He is a barber."—Harlem Life.
