

FURNISHED HOUSES.

A few cottages in Pinehurst remain unrented. They are comfortably furnished throughout with everything necessary for housekeeping, except bed and table linen, which may also be obtained at a small extra charge. Desirable parties, giving satisfactory references, can secure these attractive winter homes at reasonable rental.

There are also SUITES FOR LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING and SINGLE ROOMS for those who obtain table board at the Pinehurst Casino.

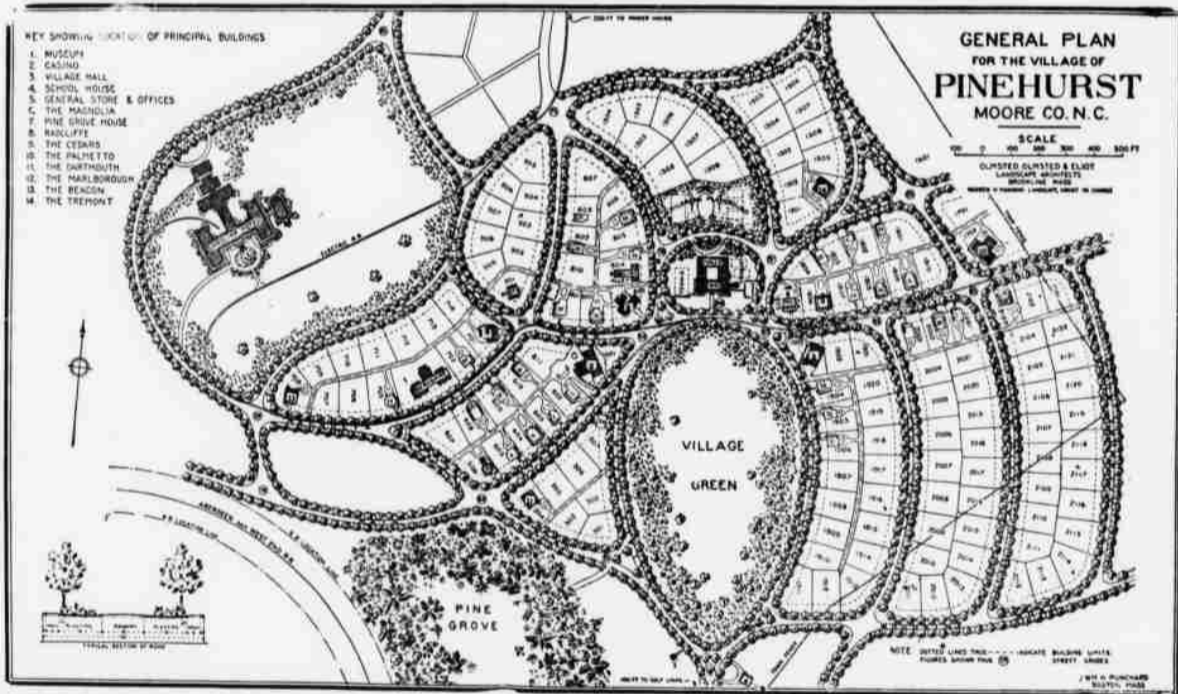

For the security of both invalids and pleasure seekers, cases of pronounced consumption will under no circumstances be allowed admission.

For information regarding rental of cottages or rooms, address

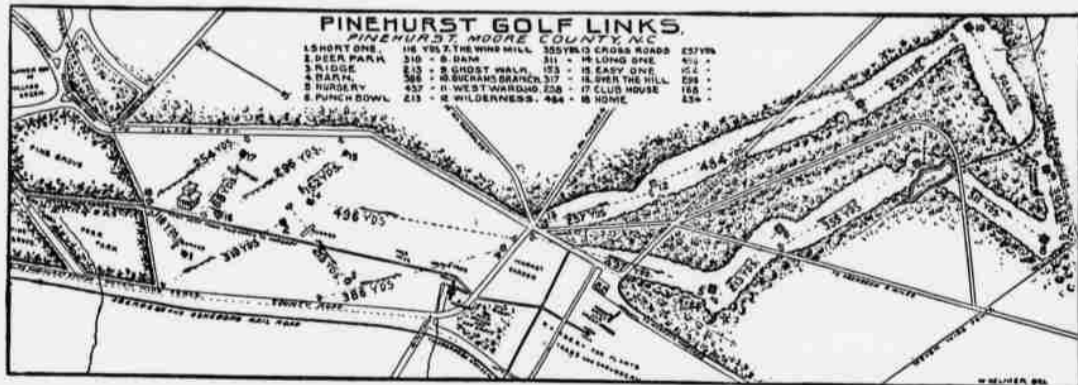

COTTAGE DEPARTMENT, Charles E. Kennedy, Agent, Pinehurst, N. C.

Write for Illustrated and Descriptive Circulars.

PINEHURST is a unique town in the Southland—apparently a Yankee village dropped down in the woods. It is located in highest and driest part of Moore County, North Carolina, in the well-known sand belt, and among the health-giving long-leaf pines. It is 70 miles southwest of Raleigh and 125 miles from the sea coast, at an altitude of 650 feet, and noted for its healthfulness. The village was founded by Mr. James W. Tufts, of Boston, in 1895, and consists of fifty cozy cottages, elegantly boarding and apart-casino, village hall, museum and other Carolina, the largest a magnificent four-this season, with aped to gratify the most Holly Inn is quiet all modern comforts The Berkshire has more than double its up-to-date in every has a cafe where ex-may be obtained at building also con-game room, and a plied with the leading free use of the villagers.

Bath rooms are also to be found here. The houses are all substantially built, painted and plastered, well furnished, and supplied with all modern comforts and conveniences, including electric lights, water, and perfect sanperts and all those who coming such will find indulge in the game. recently been enlarged fully laid out and con-covers over 150 acres. in charge and his ser-available. There are few part of the winter, when with comfort and great physical benefit. There are also croquet grounds, tennis courts, bowling alleys, trap shooting, billiards, quoits and shuffleboard. The village offers unequalled attractions for refined people, at very moderate cost. Trolley cars connect with Southern Pines, a station on the Seaboard Air Line, eighteen hours from New York City.

furnished hotels, ment houses, public schoolhouse, store, public buildings. The hotel in the state, is story hostelry erected pointments calculat-luxurious tastes. The and home-like, with and conveniences. been enlarged to former size, and is respect. The Casino cellent table board moderate rates. This tains a ladies' parlor, reading room sup-periodicals for the Pinehurst Spring itary drainage. Golf ex-cherish the hope of be-excellent opportunity to The Pinehurst links has to eighteen holes, care-venient of access, and A professional golfer is vices as a teacher are days, even in the coldest golf cannot be played

JAMES W. TUFTS, Owner,
BOSTON, MASS.

C. D. BENBOW, Res. Mgr.,
PINEHURST, N. C.