CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES.

Preparations for the Grandest Celebration in the History of Pinehurst.

Next Monday is Christmas, the greatest of holidays, now observed all over the civilized world. In the southern part of our country, where at this season the mild climate and clear blue sky tempt all to out-door life, Christmas is observed in a way that seems to crowd a dozen holidays into one grand season of rejoicing.

This year Pinehurst will celebrate the joyous season in a manner that will eclipse all previous efforts in that line.

ORDER OF THE SERVICE.

Carol—"Hark What Means Those Holy Voices," H. P. Dank
 Lord's Prayer.
 Hymn Carol—"It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," A. S. Willis
 Reading.
 Hymn—"Calm on the Listening Ear," Lambeth Prayer.
 Offertory.
 Anthem—"Praise Ye the Father," Gounod Sermon.
 Hymn—"O, Come All Ye Faithful," V. Novello Benediction.

Sunday school will be held at 12 o'clock, at the close of the morning service.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the regular Episcopal service will be held in the Village Hall, Rev. Mr. Gregory officiating. Special Christmas music has been provided. Following is the such as is absolutely necessary, will be abandoned, the Department Store will close at 12 o'clock noon, and the day will be given up to feasting, field sports and fun. Elaborate preparations are being made and the celebration will undoubtedly eclipse anything ever seen in this section.

All the workmen in Pinehurst will be the guests of Mr. Tufts at a bountiful Christmas dinner, which will be served at 1 o'clock. The boarders at the Berkshire and Casino will be entertained by Landlord Treadway at Holly Inn, and the Berkshire and Casino will be entirely given up to the workmen and dinner will be served in first class style by Landlords Kimball and McAlpine. The colored employes will be feasted by Mrs. Keander at the Power House cafe. Everything pertaining to be a first class

The lists for all the events are now open, and all wishing to participate in the contests should enter their names with any member of the committee before 10 o'clock Christmas morning. There will be no entrance fees. Names should be entered as soon as possible, as in some of the events the number of contestants will be limited. The committee will be pleased to meet the contestants any evening at Nest Cottage, opposite the Magnolia, at 7.30 o'clock.

The committee on sports, and the places where the members may be found and names entered for events, are as follows:

Chairman, C. E. Kennedy, 1st Regt. A. A., General Office; Secretary, C. L. Baxter, Dartmouth College A. A., Freight Office; F. T. Spinney, Cedars; F. H. Carpenter, Livery Stable; A. D. St. Clair, Village Hall.

Starters—C. E. Kennedy and F. T. Spinney.

Judges—C. L. Baxter, F. H. Carpenter and A. D. St. Clair.

In the evening a fine concert will be given in the Village Hall, commencing at 7.30 o'clock, under the management of Mr. A. D. St. Clair. The Holly Inn orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Trev. Sharp, have kindly volunteered their services for this entertainment. All are cordially invited to attend.

THURSDAY.

Next Thursday, Dec. 28th, the colored people of this vicinity will have their Christmas celebration at the Jackson Hamlet church about two miles from the village. The Christmas tree exercises will be held at 3 o'clock p. m., and the concert will be held at night. As the church has a very small membership the people will be thankful for any help from Northern friends in making the affair a success. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

MUSICAL PROGRAM.

Processional—"Listen to the Wondrous Story," Danks
 Hymn—No. 202.
 Gloria—R. Cooke in F.
 Magnificat—Turner in G.
 Deus Misereatur—Mammatt in G.
 Offertory—"Praise Ye," Gounod
 Hymn—No. 205.
 Benediction—No. 76.

In the evening a prayer and praise service will be held in the Village Hall from 7.15 till 8 o'clock. Mr. I. A. Flint will lead.

Commencing at 8 o'clock the regular Sunday evening concert by the Holly Inn orchestra will be held in the music room at Holly Inn.

Our villagers are cordially invited to attend all these services.

MONDAY.

The grand celebration will be held on Monday. By direction of Mr. Tufts it is proposed to make Christmas Day, 1899, an event long to be remembered by the Pinehurst employes. All work, except Christmas dinner will be served, and the feast will not soon be forgotten by those who partake of the good things prepared.

With the inner man satisfied, all hands will repair to the Village Green where a grand program of athletic events will commence at 2.30 o'clock. Provision has been made for both white and colored to try their muscle and skill, and a liberal array of prizes awaits the victorious contestants. The list of field sports and prizes is as follows:

- 1 100 Yards Dash, for whites. 1st prize, $2.00; 2d prize, $1.00.
- 2 100 Yards Dash, for colored. 1st prize, $2.00; 2d prize, $1.00.
- 3 Wheelbarrow Race Blindfold, for colored. 1st prize, $1.00; 2d prize, 50 cents.
- 4 Running High and Broad Jump, for white and colored. 1st prize, $2.00; 2d prize, $1.00.
- 5 Sack Egg Race, for colored. 1st prize, $1.00; 2d prize, 50 cents.
- 6 Climbing Greased Pole, open to all. $2.00 prize pinned to top of pole.

The festivities will commence with a children's entertainment and Christmas tree in the Village Hall, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. The entertainment will consist of carols by the children, followed by the entrance of Santa Claus, with speeches, presentation of gifts, etc. After this part of the program is completed a short pantomime performance will wind up the exercises of the evening. It is expected that the entertainment will be over by 9 o'clock so that the children will not be kept out late. All persons having gifts for their children or friends are requested to send them to the Village Hall as early as possible.

SUNDAY.

Sunday morning the regular Christian union preaching services will be held in the Village Hall at 10.45 o'clock. A special musical service appropriate to Christmas has been prepared, and it is hoped that the attendance will be large. Following is the
