

The Pinehurst Outlook.

VOL. III., NO. 22.

PINEHURST, N. C., MAR. 30, 1900.

PRICE THREE CENTS.

NOT A KICKER.

The road was rugged, and the way seemed dark;
As sick and alone I came,
To make a home in an unknown place,
Mid mist and falling rain.

No welcome I met, as the electric car,
Stopped at a wayside house;
Weary and sad and hungry too,
I dropped as weak as a mouse.

Weeks have flown with wondrous haste,
A stranger no longer I roam;
In the glow of health, the way grows light,
New friends have made it home.

With flowers and birds, the heart rebounds,
In this land of Pinehurst charm,
For the very air which fans the cheek,
Seems to promise future balm.

Can the grateful heart, now free from pain,
Refrain from slinging praise?
For here the way-worn traveler,
Found health and length of days.

So say I to all suffering ones,
Come like the birds, in trust,
Here's rest and love and sweetest air;—
Recover here you must.

ON THE GOLF LINKS.

Mrs. George C. Dutton of Boston, and Mr. L. E. Baldwin of New York, Winners of the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Handicap Tournament Cups.

During the past week we have been having ideal golfing weather, and as a result the links has been crowded every day. The principal events have been the ladies' and gentlemen's handicap tournaments for the beautiful cups offered by Mr. Tufts. The ladies' handicap tournament was held last Saturday morning and the cup was won by Mrs. George C. Dutton of Boston, with a net score of 93. The contestants and their scores will be found below.

In the gentlemen's handicap tournament the qualification round was held last Saturday morning, the best eight net scores to qualify, and twenty-four contestants went over the course. The play resulted as follows:

On Monday the first eight qualified for match play, which resulted as follows, the first one named in each pair being the winner:

J. H. Edwards } 6 up and 5 to play.
C. M. Brewer }

Robert W. Sise } 3 up and 1 to play.
S. H. Smith }
H. W. Priest } 4 up and 2 to play.
P. M. Prescott }
L. E. Baldwin } 2 up.
E. A. Manice }

Tuesday the four winners paired off with the following result. In the match between Messrs. Priest and Baldwin the first 18 holes resulted in a tie, which made it necessary to go over the course again.

The greens committee has posted the following at the golf clubhouse:

Play for the season's cups, for both ladies and gentlemen, will close Saturday, April 21, 1900. Lowest gross score, duly attested, to win. Special cards issued thrice weekly for the score.

March 30th, at 10 a. m., mixed foursome handicap tournament, 18 holes medal play.

On March 31st, at 10 a. m., will be again broken yesterday, when Mrs. Robert W. Sise took the lead with a score of 94. This record is all the more remarkable as Mrs. Sise has only been over the full course a few times. She is undoubtedly in the race for the season's cup. The next best score was also made by her a few days since, when she did the 18 holes in 95. Her best score was follows:

Out—6, 6, 6, 6, 5, 6, 5, 4, 4—48
In—5, 4, 5, 5, 6, 5, 7, 4, 5—46
Total, 94

Sunday Evening Concert.

In spite of the threatening weather last Sunday night the usual large audience assembled in the music room at the Holly Inn to enjoy the excellent concert by the Holly Inn orchestra. A fine program had been provided and was carried out in a manner that was appreciated by all who had the good fortune to be present. The pianoforte solo by Mrs. May Cook Sharp was played with exquisite expression and in response to an encore she gave some variations on "Home Sweet Home" for the left hand only, which called forth hearty applause for her wonderful left-hand technic. Mr. Barker's cornet solo was finely rendered and was received with generous applause. Following is the program.

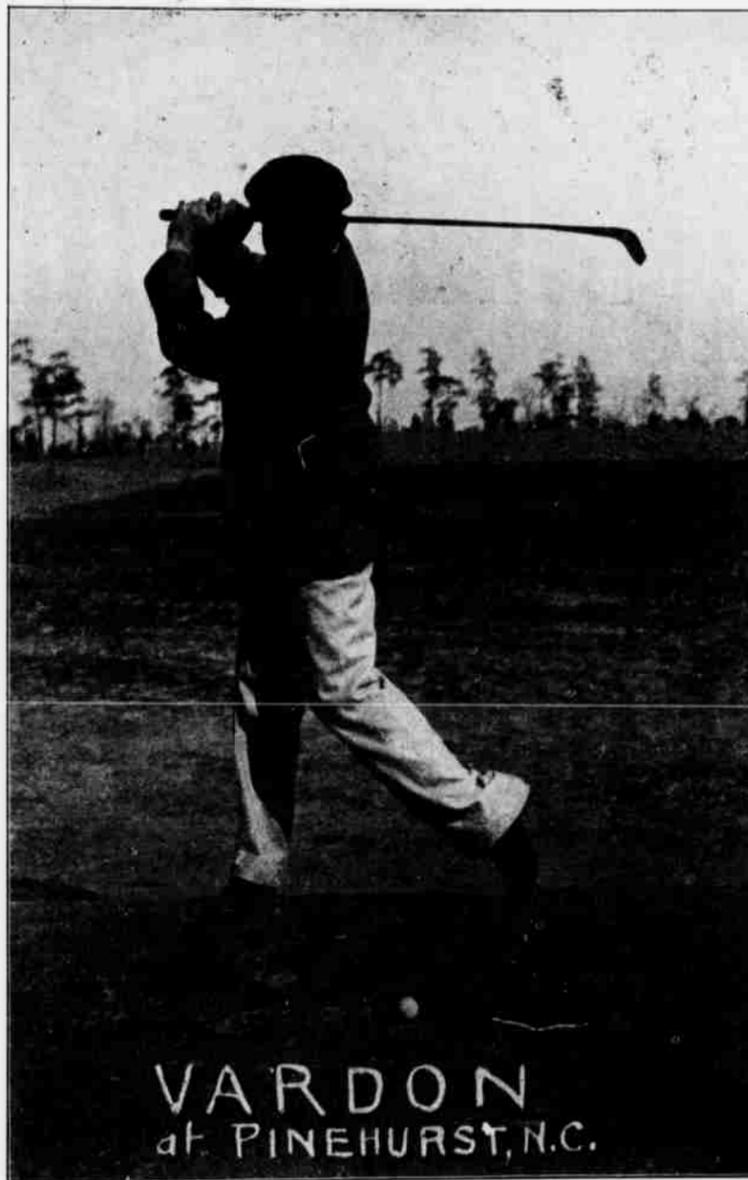

March—"Father of Victory" Ganne
Overture—"Martha" Flotow
Song—"Love's Sorrow" Shelley
Selection—"The Singing Girl" Victor Herbert
Pianoforte Solo—"Q'tette from "Rigoletto" (Transcription) Verdi-Liszt May Cook Sharp.
(a "Simple Aveu" Thome
(b "Song Without Words" Mendelssohn
(c "To Spring" Gounod
Cornet Solo—"Sing, Smile, Slumber" Gounod Claude Barker.
Wedding March—"Midsummer Night's Dream" Mendelssohn
Hymn—"God be with you," by the audience.

Mrs. Perry Entertains.

Last Tuesday evening the parlors at the Cedars were the scene of a most enjoyable entertainment, the occasion being an evening at German whist. Mrs. S. B. Perry was the hostess and her guests included all who are stopping at the Cedars and its annex cottages. The party was necessarily limited to the guests at these places as the parlors are too small to accommodate more. As it was, the six tables were filled and game went on to a finish when the following winners were declared: first ladies' prize, a spool case, Miss Thomas; ladies' consolation prize, a handkerchief case, Mrs. McKown; first gentlemen's prize, a glove box, Mr. F. H. McAlpine; gentlemen's consolation prize, the book "Cranford," Mrs. M. W. Smith.

At the conclusion of the playing refreshments, consisting of lemonade, cheese straws, wafers and chocolate fudge, were served. The guests departed at a late hour with many expressions of appreciation to their genial hostess for a most delightful evening's entertainment. Among the guests outside the Cedars were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McAlpine.

The ladies' record for the 18 holes was

L. E. Baldwin } 6 up and 5 to play, 36 holes.
H. W. Priest }
J. H. Edwards } 3 up and 1 to play.
Robert W. Sise }

The final match was held Wednesday morning, when Mr. L. E. Baldwin defeated Mr. J. Howard Edwards 3 up and 2 to play, thus winning the gentlemen's handicap tournament cup.

There were seven entries for the ladies handicap tournament cup, which was won by Mrs. George C. Dutton with a net score of 93. The names of the contestants and their scores are as follows:
