All cordially invited to attend.

Services Last Sunday.

The regular Christian union service was held in the Village Hall last Sunday morning, and was largely attended.
Rev. Rufus B. Tobey of Boston preached a very able sermon which was listened to with the greatest attention. Mr. St.
Clair gave a fine rendering of "Palms" by Faure, and Mrs. May Cook Sharp kindly presided at the piano.

The Sunday school at noon was attended by a large number. Rev. Mr.
Tobey led the bible class.

The Episcopal service at 3.15 p. m. was conducted by Rev. Mr. Gregory, as usual.

In the evening, at 7.15 o'clock, a special Palm Sunday vesper service was held, with a very large congregation present. Rev. Mr. Tobey preached a very interesting short sermon, which was greatly enjoyed. The musical portion of this service was very pleasing.
Mr. St. Clair sang two solos in a very effective manner and also led in the hymns. Mrs. Bradbury kindly presided at the piano at the afternoon and evening services.

Presentation.

Last Tuesday evening about 7.30 o'clock Mrs. F. W. Bradbury received a message requesting her presence at the General Office. On her arrival there she was ushered into Mr. Benbow's private office where she found a little company assembled. Mr. Benbow then stated that the gentlemen who had taken part in the Village Hall entertainments during the winter desired to show their appreciation of the help they had received from her, and in their behalf presented her with a beautiful 5 o'clock tea set of the Pinehurst souvenir ware.

During the past season Mrs. Bradbury has kindly acted as accompanist on the piano whenever her services have been desired at the many rehearsals for the entertainments, and her unselfish efforts have contributed largely to the success of many of the musical productions on the Village Hall stage. The presentation of Tuesday evening is a slight expression of the esteem in which this unassuming lady is held by those who know her best.

He Lost No Time.

The house was burning. People outside were yelling at them to hurry or it would be too late. The man grabbed up his loose belongings, and saying, "Come on," started toward the stairway. When they reached it his wife stopped him, looked searchingly into his eyes as if to let him know that she would see through him if he failed to answer her truly, and said:

"John!"

"Yes, it's on straight," he replied, for he had been married five years and had studied woman.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Merchant—No, I tell you, I have absolutely nothing for you to do. Applicant —Well, I'd be willing to do that, on salary.—Philadelphia Press.
