Good Cheer for Christmas.

Our suggestion last year to Pinehursters, what to send their friends home for Christmas was accompanied with such an unalloyed success and satisfaction all around, that we have made much more extensive preparations this season to pack and ship again cases with choice holly, mistletoe, branches of our long-leaved pine and samples of persimmons, cotton and peanuts.

The standard cases are thirty inches long, eighteen inches wide and nine inches deep, and contain more than sufficient material for average decoration. The price is—delivered at express or freight office at Pinehurst—75 cents per case or $2.00 for three crates in one order, which may be sent to different parties of course.

Orders for shipment to points near Boston by freight ought to reach us not later than December the 10th or 12th, and for express not later than December the 21st. For places off the main lines special time allowance ought to be made and while we shall take every pains to insure prompt deliveries, we cannot of course, hold ourselves responsible.

We have succeeded in obtaining a special discount of 20 per cent. from regular express rates on these cases, and the rate to Boston is about $1.35, and to New York $1.15—to other places in proportion. Freight rate to New York and Boston is about $0.40 per case. Charges may be prepaid at this end or be collected at destination.

Early orders will be appreciated and all orders will be filled in strict rotation.

Very truly yours,

PINEHURST NURSERIES.

The German Police.

A stranger in Germany soon makes the acquaintance of the police, little as he may desire it. A German Socialist once said, "It takes half of all the Germans to control the other half," and one who sees Germany's immense army, her cloud of officials, great and small, and her omniscient policemen, is inclined to believe that the Socialist was right. You have been in Germany a week, more or less, when the policeman calls. At first you cannot believe that he is really after you, and then your mind runs back guiltily over your past. He takes out his little book—one of a small library of little books which he carries in his blouse—and inquires your age, your nationality, and how long you intend to stay. You learn subsequently that a record of every person in the empire is carefully kept, with full details as to his occupation, material wealth, and social standing. If you move into a new house, you must notify the police; if you move out, you must notify the police; if you hire a servant girl, you must purchase a yellow blank and report the fact, the girl also making a report. When she leaves, you must send in a green blank stating why she is dismissed, where she is going, and so on. If you fail in any one of these multitudinous requirements of the Government—and I have only mentioned only a few of them—there is a fine to pay, each fine graduated to the enormity of the offense. There are offenses graded as low as two cents.—The Independent.
