PRICE THREE CENTS

THE H. W. PRIEST CUPS!

W. C. Chick and I. C. Bates Dana Secure Them with Low Scores.

C. R. Corwin, A. C. Ketcham and I. W. Chick are Well up in the List and Tied.

The fifth event of the winter's program of stated handicap golf fixtures, played Monday, for the magnificent H. W. Priest trophies, offered for the best net and best gross score, drew a large field and developed into an interesting contest. W. C. Chick, of Boston, (scratch), won the gross score cup, with eighty-four, and I. C. Bates Dana, of New York City, (18), the net score cup, with seventy-three. Three were tied with net score of seventy-seven, and the first fifteen handed in cards from eighty-four down. The day was perfect with many onlookers on the course.

MADE DULL DAY BRIGHT!

Ping-Pong Tournament Entertains Both Contestants and Onlookers.

Mr. Leroy R. Clarke and Miss Smith are the Champions—Mr. Durstine and Miss Durstine the Managers.

A ping-pong tournament at The Carolina, Friday afternoon, made a dull day bright, furnishing lively sport for the contestants and entertainment for a goodly company of onlookers. Mr. Leroy R. Clarke of New York City, won the men's trophy and Miss Smith of Portland, Me., the women's prize.

The event was arranged by Mr. Roy S. Durstine and Miss Florence Durstine of New York City, who proved themselves capable managers and gracious hosts. There were events for men and women with prizes in each class. In the preliminary rounds one set without deuce sets was played, and in the finals the best two out of three sets, with deuce sets.

The participants were: Mr. Sydney L. Smith, Mr. Burrows McNeir, Mr. Leroy R. Clark, Mr. H. O. Curtis Davis, New York City; Mr. J. G. Thorpe, Mr. H. W. Mason, Mr. J. S. Seabury, Mr. W. C. Chick, Boston; Mr. Herbert L. Jillson, Worcester, Mass.; Mrs. Sydney L. Smith, Miss Presbrey, Miss Alice Presbrey, Miss Stanton, Miss Florence Durstine, Miss Levett, New York City; Miss Wigglesworth, Boston; Miss Carew, Norwich, Ct.; Miss Smith, Portland, Me.; Miss Jeanette Lawrence, Pittsburg, Pa.

A summary of the play is as follows: Mason beat Davis, 6-4; Smith beat Jillson, 6-2; Thorpe beat McNeir, 6-0; Seabury beat Mason, 6-5; Clark beat Chick, 6-4; Smith beat Thorpe, 6-3; Clark beat Seabury, 6-4. Finals, Clark beat Smith, 9-7, 6-3.

Miss Levett beat Miss Wigglesworth, 6-1; Miss Durstine beat Miss Carew, 6-1; Miss Smith beat Miss Lawrence, 6-1; Mrs. Smith beat Miss Presbrey, 6-0; Miss Stanton beat Miss Alice Presbrey, 6-4; Miss Levett beat Miss Durstine, 6-2; Miss Smith beat Mrs. Smith, 6-4; Miss Levett beat Miss Stanton, 6-0. Finals, Miss Smith beat Miss Levett, 6-4, 7-5.

GOLF TOMORROW.

Men's Tournament and Women's Open Handicap Events.

Two golf tournaments are scheduled for tomorrow, and a third and special event is a possibility. The first of the stated fixtures, is a men's tournament for The Berkshire cup, open to all who have never played golf previous to January 1, 1902. The Tufts' cups are offered in the women's event, for the best net and best gross scores.
