PRICE THREE CENTS

CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNEY!

All Roads Led Toward Pinehurst During the Past Week.

Prominent Amateurs En route to Take Part in the United North and South Open Championship Tournament.

As far as golfers are concerned "all roads led toward Pinehurst" this week. The Tournament Committee for the United North and South Open Championship which begins to-morrow, has answered scores of inquiries from prominent golfers and is confident that this year's list of entries will be the largest and most important in the history of golfing here.

Every detail is complete. Scores of workmen have been busy on the course for ten days past, preparing it for this important event, and the result throughout will be "perfection." This work has been further aided by a new growth of grass, the result of last fall's planting.

The tournament program in detail is as follows:

Saturday March 28.

NINE A. M.—Men's first qualification round, eighteen holes, medal play.

TWO-FIFTEEN P. M.—Men's second qualification round, eighteen holes, medal play.

NOTE—The sixteen best gross scores qualify for the match play rounds in the Men's Open Championship. Maximum handicap, eighteen strokes on thirty-six holes.

Monday, March 30.

NINE-THIRTY A. M.—First round of Men's Open championship, eighteen-holes, match play.

TEN-THIRTY A. M.—Women's Qualification round, eighteen holes, medal play.

NOTE—The four best gross scores qualify for the match play rounds in the Women's Open Championship. Maximum handicap, eighteen strokes on eighteen holes.

TWO-FIFTEEN P. M.—Second round of Men's Open Championship, eighteen holes match play.

TWO-THIRTY P. M.—First round for Men's Consolation Cup, eighteen holes, match play.

NOTE—The defeated participants in the first round of match play of the Men's Open Championship, qualify for this event.

Tuesday, March 31.

NINE-THIRTY A. M.—Semi-final rounds of the Men's Open Championship and Consolation, and Women's Open Championship, eighteen holes, match play.

TWO-FIFTEEN P. M.—Final rounds of the Men's Open Championship and Consolation, and Women's Open Championship, eighteen holes, match play.

MANY NEW FEATURES!

Invitation Cotillon at The Carolina a Charming Affair.

Mr. H. O. Curtis Davis and Miss Carew the Leaders—Many Exquisite Toilettes—Large Attendance.

An invitation cotillon at The Carolina, Thursday evening, arranged by Mr. H. O. Curtis Davis of New York city, was one of the most select and brilliant of the social affairs which have made the present season notable. The participants were many and the ballroom was crowded with onlookers. Dancing began at nine and ceased at eleven-thirty.

Mr. Davis and Miss Carew led, bringing forth many new figures, which ranged from the picturesque to the amusing. The favors were particularly attractive: Japanese fans, rosebud boutonnieres and little oddities for the women, and Japanese parasols, tobacco pouches and the like for the men.

Among the new figures was one in which six men fanned ping-pong balls across the floor to four women waiting at the head of the hall. The first four to accomplish this somewhat trying task, were rewarded with a dance and the two unfortunates were obliged to dance together, much to their discomfiture and to the keen edification of the others.

In the candle figure six men were given matches with which to light a similar number of candles. The first four to light their candles and reach the women waiting at the head of the hall, were rewarded with a dance; the two laggards dancing together.

Another figure which furnished a spirited contest was one in which six men were forced to wind several yards of yarn about their forefingers before they were permitted to dance. In this figure also, two men were left to dance together.

The putting figure furnished a contest for the women and offered an opportunity for a display of golfing skill. Six men at the opposite end of the hall made a desperate scramble for the four golf balls which came their way, the possession of one which meant a dance.

There were numerous favor figures and several marches and circles.

The Toilettes.

Many new and exquisite toilettes were seen. Mrs. Sawyer wore a strikingly beautiful décolleté gown of pompadour silk with sable trimmings.

Miss Harris wore an exquisite décolleté gown of pink dotted French net over pink silk, trimmed with painted lace.
