WOMEN'S COURSE RECORD!

Mrs. M. D. Paterson Lowers it With a Card of Eighty-six.

A Remarkably Clean Score which Reduces the Record Made by Mrs. E. A. Manice Two Strokes.

The golf season for 1903 goes out brilliantly, and one of its most important features is found in the individual course records which have been established. One of the most important of these is the women's record for the course, made recently by Mrs. M. D. Paterson of the Englewood Golf Club, New Jersey, with a card of eighty-six.

This score lowers the course record made by Mrs. E. A. Manice winner of the metropolitan championship, and which held for some years, two strokes, and it is close enough to make the doubtful Colonel Bogey decidedly uncomfortable. Mrs. Paterson is a golfer of National reputation. She plays a beautiful game, always in perfect form, both in driving, approaching and putting. In the Metropolitan championship last June she qualified fifth, ahead of many former champions, and she holds the women's record for the Englewood course at ninety.

Her new record for the Pinehurst course is in detail, as follows:

OUT			IN
Yards	Bogey	Mrs. P.	Yards	Bogey	Mrs. P.
168	3	4	311	5	5
254	4	4	133	3	4
116	3	4	317	5	6
310	5	5	285	4	4
213	4	5	484	6	8
386	5	4	257	4	5
437	5	6	505	6	6
213	4	4	152	3	3
355	5	5	370	5	4
2454	38	41	2834	41	45
			2452	38	41
			5286	79	86
