"CITY OF THE IDEAL."

modest beginning has grown the City of the Ideal—The Pinehurst of to-day—which now has within its limits at the height of the season, nearly three thousand souls.

Pinehurst is seventy miles southwest of Raleigh, one hundred and twenty-five miles from the seacoast, and has an altitude of six hundred and fifty feet. The Village was founded in 1895 and now consists of nearly fifty private family cottages, four modern hotels, several boarding and apartment houses, a public cafe and numerous public buildings. The Village is beautifully laid out, and abounds in shrubs, perennials, sub-tropical and other plants.

The Carolina, completed in 1900, is the largest hotel in the State and one of the best appointed in the South; an imposing four-story structure, accommodating four hundred guests, modern in every particular and with luxurious appointments. The Holly Inn is roomy, home-green throughout the course is excellent and the putting greens are perfection. Natural and artificial hazards are found in sufficiency to make the course an exceptionally attractive one.

A shooting preserve embracing 30,000 acres, nearly 50 square miles, is under control of the Village, and maintained expressly for the use of its guests, and is one of the largest in the South. Kennels containing thoroughly trained blooded setters and pointers, are run in connection, and trustworthy guides are available. Trap shooting grounds modern in equipment, are a feature of this department.

There are numerous croquet grounds and tennis courts scattered throughout the Village; a public bowling alley and billiard hall.

Dairy and poultry farms are maintained and which will eventually supply the entire Village with fresh milk and cream, poultry and eggs.

A market garden supplies fresh vegetables.

The Village has a post and telegraph office, maintains a private electric rail-like, modern and accommodates two hundred guests. The Berkshire and The Harvard are two modern hotels, accommodating one hundred guests each, and equipped to furnish every comfort at a moderate price.

The Casino, designed for the use of all the guests of the Village, is supplied with a ladies' parlor, game, reading and bath rooms, and daily papers and periodicals are kept on file. In connection, is a Cafe. The boarding houses are the Lenox, Concord, Magnolia and Pine Grove. The Cedars and several other cottages, provide rooms only, singly and en suite.

The family cottages are cozy, substantially built, well-furnished and provided with modern conveniences, including electric lights, running spring water, and perfect sanitary drainage. Many are heated by steam and supplied with bath.

The Pinehurst Golf Links are generally acknowledged by experts to be the finest in the South, embracing two distinct courses, one of eighteen holes and six thousand yards in length, another of nine holes, and a finely appointed and admirably located club house. The fair road, telephone system, electric light and power station, pure water system, and has a village hall, circulating library, public school, department store, meat market, steam laundry, ice-making plant, bakery, livery stable, photographic studio, resident physicians, and weekly newspaper.

In fact, Pinehurst supplies every modern need at a varying range of prices. Consumptives are not received.

The Pinehurst electric railroad connects with the Seaboard Air Line at Southern Pines. Railroad connection is made from Pinehurst over the Aberdeen and Asheboro Railroad, with the Seaboard Air Line at Aberdeen, and the Southern Railway at High Point. Pinehurst is eighteen hours ride from New York, and through Pullmans run during the season from Washington direct to the Village, over both Railway Lines.—
