

The Pinehurst Outlook

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA.

EVENING OF ENJOYMENT!

Beautiful Tableaux and Clever Pantomine Skit Entertain Guests.

Rarely Has Program Been Given With Greater Excellence--Collection for Colored School.

THE entertainment at The Holly Inn Tuesday evening, was one of the most delightful ever given in the Village, and a company which taxed the capacity of the Music Room was in attendance. The first part of the program was devoted to patriotic tableaux and the last to a clever semi-pantomine skit, "A Japanese Wedding." The Holly Inn orchestra furnished music and at the close a collection was taken for the Dickinson Colored School, $23.05 being raised.

THE TABLEAUX.

There were eight of the patriotic tableaux in all, and their effect was artistic and beautiful. The participants were: Mrs. F. J. Bailey, Chicago; Mrs. I. D. H. Ralph, Philadelphia; Miss Susan C. Aldridge, Miss Lucy K. Priest, Boston; Miss Lillian Dodson, Baltimore, Miss Florence Bradbury, Providence, and Mrs. A. I. Creamer. The tableaux included the following:

The Call to Arms.
A Mother's Parting Blessing.
The Fall of the Flag.
Dreaming of Home.
The Glorification of War.
The Surrender.
The Standard Bearer.
The Rescue.
Moll Pitcher.
Defense of the Flag.
The Return.
The Republic.

The participants were gowned in flowing Greek costumes of white, and posed against a rich red background. Flags and palms were used effectively in the decoration of the stage.

JAPANESE WEDDING.

The Japanese Wedding which brought the program to a close contrasted prettily with the tableaux which preceded it. The stage was first prepared for the event by the removal of the tableaux properties and the introduction of Japanese lanterns, and then to "Three Little Maids from School are We" music came a dainty little Japanese maid, (Miss Gladys Bradbury) who prepared the stage for the coming of the bewitching bride (Mrs. I. D. H. Ralph) who appeared shortly. It was at once apparent that an event of much importance was about to take place for a most elaborate toilette was prepared either side of the stage the High Priest (High Mucky-Muck, A-B-C.) Mr. A. G. Warren, took his position at the altar with stately grace, amid great applause. Then came the bridegroom (Mr. J. Henry Hentz, 3rd.) of Philadelphia, and his valet (Mr. F. Walter Hentz), and next came the bride and her maid and the ceremony began. The high mucky-muck uttered a service in real Japanese to which the wedding party nodded

JOHN MOLLER, JR., RUNNER-UP IN THE METROPOLITAN CHAMPIONSHIP.

Then the bride tripped off the stage and a moment later in flocked a bevy of beautiful Japanese maidens—Miss Priest, Miss Dodson, Miss Aldridge, Miss Bradbury, Miss Wiley and Mrs. Bailey—and they tripped about gaily preparing the stage for the wedding party. Just as they divided and took positions on assent and then the happy couple, kneeling at the front of the stage, plighted their troth over a cup of tea and then with the parting blessing of the A B C, the wedding party left the stage amid prolonged applause which was kept up until the bride and groom returned and bowed in recognition.

(Continued to Eighth Page)

TRAVIS WINS GOLD MEDAL!

Outdistances All Comers in Medal Play Rounds of Big Tournament.

Event Unquestionably Takes Its Place As Most Important of Early Winter Season.

THE special inauguration tournament has in opening, fulfilled every expectation and it is a brilliant prophecy for the winter's program of stated golf fixtures, which it inaugurates. The event unquestionably takes its place as the most important tournament of the early winter season, and ranks second in importance only to the annual United North and South Amateur Championship.

Sixty players representing a wide range and including such men as Walter J. Travis, the amateur champion; John Moller, Jr., runner-up in the Metropolitan Championship; John M. Ward, runner-up in last year's United North and South Championship, and many others of National prominence participated.

The match play rounds which are in progress as the paper goes to press, are providing an interesting series of contests and the finals to be played to-day assure some of the most brilliant golf ever seen here.

The tournament has not been without its social side and the serving of tea each afternoon at the Golf Club House has been a very pleasant feature. Mrs. A. I. Creamer of The Holly Inn, Mrs. F. H. Abbott of The Harvard, and Mrs. J. A. Sherrard of The Berkshire, alternated in presiding, and The Holly Inn orchestra was in attendance daily. The Wednesday and Saturday evening hops given in honor of the visitors at The Holly Inn were well attended and much enjoyed.

THE MEDAL PLAY ROUNDS.

Walter J. Travis was an easy winner of the gold medal offered for the best score in Wednesday's medal play qualification rounds, with a card of 156, eleven strokes better than his nearest opponent, W. C. Fownes, Jr., of the Highland Golf Club, Pittsburg, Pa.

John Moller, Jr., of Lakewood Golf Club, New Jersey, William C. Freeman of the Montclair Golf Club, New Jersey, and John M. Ward of the Fox Hills Golf Club, Staten Island, F. O. Horstman, of the Chevy Chase Golf Club, Washington, finished next in order, with 170, 175 and 176, Mr. Ward and Mr. Horstman tying at the latter figure.

(Continued to Eighth Page)