EUCHRE AT THE HARVARD.

Weekly Card Party Enjoyable--Many New Guests are Here.

The weekly euchre party at The Harvard proved most enjoyable. Miss Lucy H. Fosdick of Concord, Mass., won the first prize for women and Miss Van Mater of Atlantic Highlands, N. J., the consolation. The "mens" prize was won by Miss Kate G. Rea of Danville, Pa., and Mrs. Eaton took the consolation.

AMONG THE GUESTS.

Rev. Fr. G. B. Harrington of Washington, D. C., is welcomed back for a return visit, and an extended stay. "Father Harrington" as he is called, is a general favorite.

Mr. I. I. Broome, Mrs. J. J. Broome and Miss McClellan of East Orange, N. J., are here for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Check, Miss Carrie C. Check and Miss Ethel S. Check, of East Orange, N. J., spent a

MANY IMPORTANT CHANGES.

Transformation Scene Has Taken Place in Office of The Berkshire.

A transformation scene has taken place at The Berkshire since the house closed last year and with important changes this popular home is sure to be more comfortable than ever before.

The most striking improvement is in the office which has been greatly enlarged and improved by making it include the small parlor at the left, the introduction of new counters and the like.

The mens' smoking room has been made more comfortable by the introduction of a long writing desk, painting, papering and rearrangement have been general throughout the house, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherrard have added many effective little touches here and there.

short time here during the week, previous to taking their apartments in the Beacon. The Misses Check are vivacious young women who are general favorites throughout the Village.

Mr. H. K. Willard, nurse and child, of Washington, D. C., were recent visitors.

TRAP SHOOTING BEGUN.

Winter's Series Formally Opened With One Hundred Single Target Event.

The winter's series of trap shooting tournaments was formally opened Thursday afternoon with a hundred single target scratch event and an interesting contest developed. Herbert L. Jillson of Worcester, Mass., won first with sixty-four with Arthur C. Ketcham of New York, a close second in sixty.

The event was shot from scratch and a number of the Villagers witnessed the shooting. Next weeks shoot is fifty singles and ten doubles, Magautrap.

days are Mrs. E. G. Hutchinson of Lancaster, Pa., and Miss Mary Lovett of Philadelphia, who come for an indefinite sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hawkins of New York, are here to remain several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watchorn and child of Montreal, Canada, spent a few days here previous to securing apartments at The Cedars.

Professional Jolly a Visitor.

Jack Jolly, the well-known golf professional, was a visitor during the week and during his stay played a number of interesting matches with Professionals Donald J. and Alec Ross.
