PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA.

F. J. BAILEY WINS AGAIN!

Defeats J. A. Baker in Final Round of Match Play Handicap.

Edwin A. Freeman, Montclair, and Burritt S. Mills, Philadelphia, Lead in Qualification.

THE eighteen-hole match play handicap tournament begun Saturday, furnished a pretty series of contests and resulted in a final victory for F. J. Bailey of Kearsarge golf club, North Conway, N. H., over J. A. Baker of the Glen View golf club, Chicago, one up, after a match which was uncertain to the end. Bailey was one up at the seventeenth hole and halved the eighteenth for a win. The Berkshire cups were offered for the winner and runner-up.

Edwin A. Freeman of the Montclair golf club, playing from scratch, was an easy winner of the best gross score in qualification with a card of eighty-seven, a duplicate of the round which won him the cup the week previous, and Burritt S. Mills of Philadelphia, playing with a handicap of eighteen strokes, led the field with a net score of seventy-six, five strokes better than his nearest opponent, C. M. Brett of the Brookline country club, Massachusetts.
