KINDERGART'N ESTABLISHED

Addition to the Equipment of Pinehurst Schools Announced.

Miss Edith G. Bearnse, Orange, N. J., Will be the Teacher—Work Will Begin Soon.

The addition of a Kindergarten to the equipment of the Pinehurst Schools, has been definitely decided upon and the announcement will be received with pleasure by those of the Villagers who have children too young to attend the Primary School.

The equipment will be of the best and all the appliances needed for interesting children will be furnished. Sessions will be held in the Persimmon cottage, next door to The Berkshire, each morning from nine to eleven o'clock. The school will open about February first.

Miss Edith G. Bearnse of Orange, N. J., who has been secured as teacher, is a graduate of a leading school for Kindergarten teachers. For the past five years has been working with great success in that department of the public schools of Newark, N. J.

Further information may be had of Aldice G. Warren, Head Master of the Pinehurst Schools, at the Persimmon cottage, during the forenoon.

FATHER HARRINGTON WINS.

Takes Berkshire Cup in Men's Singles Tennis Tourney.

The second event in the winters' series of tennis tournaments, mens singles for The Berkshire cup, furnished an interesting series of matches, Rev. Fr. G. B. Harrington of Washington, D. C., winning the finals from A. S. Whiting of Brookline, Mass., 6-2, 6-1.

In the drawings M. B. Byrnes of New York, drew a bye. Rev. Fr. Harrington drew H. Nelson Burroughs of Philadelphia, whom he defeated 6-0, 6-1. Mr. Whiting drew Mr. L. F. Brigham, of Salem, Mass., whom he defeated 6-3, 5-6, 6-3.

In his second match Father Harrington defeated Mr. Byrnes 6-0, 6-0, bringing him with Mr. Whiting in the finals.

SOME GOING!

Luther L. Kellogg, Jr., Makes Two Rounds in Seventy-nine Each.

Some excellent golf is being played as the season advances and the players are becoming more familiar with the course, and among the high men Luther L. Kellogg, Jr., of the Fox Hills Club, Staten Island, is figuring prominently.

Tuesday Mr. Kellogg made two rounds in seventy-nine each, and by glancing through the cards it is easy to see how they might have been cut down four or five strokes easily. As it is, however, the score is "Some going" and one under bogey:

The card in detail:

Out	4	5	3	7	4	4	6	3	5	—41
In	4	3	5	4	4	4	6	3	5	—38—79

Mr. Kellogg has figured prominently in Metropolitan events for several years past, and he is sure to be heard from in the various events which are to come.
