Mrs. M. C. Beebe, Pittsburg, Wins the Trophy from Miss S. A. Cutler, Newton.

The second of the series of handicap tournaments, arranged by The Pinehurst Target-Pistol Club, shot Friday aroused special interest owing to the fact that several women participated, and the scores made by them were most satisfactory when it is remembered that none of the contestants had ever shot a pistol under similar conditions. The participants were most enthusiastic over the sport and are sure to become fascinated with it as they become more proficient.

Mrs. M. C. Beebe of Pittsburg, Pa., won the trophy offered with a net score of three hundred and fifty-seven, only fifteen points in the lead of Miss S. A. Cutler of Newton, Mass., who scored three hundred and forty-two.

A pretty contest resulted in the fight for the mens cup offered for the best net score, Thomas B. Cotter of Winchester, Mass., winning with a net score of four hundred and sixty-five. A. I. Creamer of Darmiscotta, Maine, scored four hundred and six net, and F. H. Abbott of Bethlehem, N. H., and H. Nelson Burroughs of Philadelphia, Pa., tied for third with four hundred and five net, each.

Dr. Herbert J. Hall of Marblehead, Mass., scratch, made a pretty card of three hundred and eighty-two gross, and average of seventy-six and two-fifths, which is a club record. Burroughs was shooting in excellent form, making a gross average of seventy-three.

Twenty-first Birthday of Their Son Given Pleasing Observance.

Twenty-eight Guests Dine at The Carolina and Respond to Congratulatory Toasts.

A pleasant feature of the week, at The Carolina, was a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. William C. Freeman, of Montclair, N. J., in honor of the twenty-first birthday of their son, Mr. Edwin A. Freeman.

Covers were laid for twenty-eight and the table was effectively decorated with candelabra and cut flowers. A boutonniere of violets, or a corsage bouquet of the same flowers, rested at the plate of each guest. Following the dinner, there were informal congratulatory toasts, Mr. William C. Freeman acting as toastmaster.
