

WOW-WOW CLUB IS NO MORE

Organization Adopts More Appropriate Name of Tin Whis'les.

Second Tournament is Held and New War Cry Adopted--M. C. Parshall Wins Both Prizes.

Yes, we are; Yes, we are; Tin Whis'les! Tin Whis'les!--Rah! Rah! Rah! Can we golf and can we sing; Can we make the echoes ring? Well, we rath-er think we can; For the rest just "ASK THE MAN!" Yes, we are; Yes, we are; Tin Whis'les! Tin Whis'les!--Rah! Rah! Rah!

The "Wow! Wow! Wow! Rah! Rah! Rah! Club" which is now known by the more appropriate name of the "Tin Whis'les," got together for its second tournament Monday and a farewell blow-out to a fellow member, W. J. Fleming of Cleveland, Ohio, who has gone after a pleasant stay here.

President F. W. Kenyon of New York, as usual offered trophies for the best net and best gross scores, and there was no protest when M. C. Parshall of Warren, Pa., won both because they were of a character which would not "keep."

At a meeting of the club after the tournament, the war-cry which appears at the head of this story was adopted.
