MISS BARNETT WINS CUP.

Leads Field in Target-Pistol Shooting.

Miss Edith Barnett, New Haven, Conn., was the winner of the womens net score cup in the weekly tournament of the Target-Pistol Club, with a net score of four hundred and seventy-eight, a gross average of seventy-five and three-fifths.

Miss Eddy of Boston, scored three hundred and seventy-four net, a gross average of fifty-four and four-fifths; Miss S. A. Cutler of Newton, Mass., three hundred and nine net, a gross average of fifty-four and four-fifths, and Miss Augusta Endicott of Boston, two hundred and eighty-six gross, an average of fifty-seven and one fifth.

Miss Heffelfinger and Miss Fanny Heffelfinger of Minneapolis, Mrs. St. John Smith of Portland, Maine, and Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson of Worcester, Mass., were among the participants who did not hand in targets.

Owing to a misunderstanding regarding a postponement of the shoot, the men's event was not shot.

KETCHAM AND WESCOTT.

They Have a Close Contest in Trap Shooting Tournament.

Indifferent scores were the rule of the weekly trap shooting tournament, one hundred targets at unknown angles thrown from the expert traps. The contest however was close enough to hold the interest of the big company assembled. There was a pretty race for the cup between Arthur C. Ketcham, New York City, and J. D. Wescott, Union City, Pa., both of whom had a handicap allowances of twelve targets. Ketcham won with sixty-six net, leading Wescott two targets.

Other gross scores were: C. A. Lockwood, New York, sixty-three; M. H. Wilson, Cleveland, O., fifty-six; Herbert L. Jillson, Worcester, Mass., fifty-five; M. C. Parshall, Warren, Pa., fifty-two; W. S. Edey, New York, forty-four.

Next Thursday's event is thirty singles and fifteen pairs of double targets from the Magautrap.

THE POPULAR HARVARD.

Attendance at Weekly Card Parties is Steadily Increasing.

The card parties at The Harvard are showing a steady increase in popularity, and the participants include many guests of the Village, to whom a general invitation is extended. A pleasing and special feature of these parties is the serving of dainty refreshments at the close of play.

There were twenty-eight participants in the euchre party Wednesday evening, and the prize winners were: Rev. G. B. Harrington, Washington, D. C., Mrs. F. H. Abbott, Bethlehem; Miss Louise Macleod, Prince Edward Island; Mrs. Herman Wendell, Wayne, Pa.

EASY FOR PINEHURST.

Southern Pines Nine Defeated Twenty-three to Two in Indifferent Game.

The Pinehurst nine had an easy time of it with the Southern Pines players in the ball game played here Wednesday, winning by a score of twenty-three to two, in a decidedly uninteresting game.

In future games will be confined between Village nines which are closely matched, and more of the kind of games which opened the series are promised in the near future.
