THE BOYS GOLF TOURNAMENT

Preliminary Round for The Pinehurst Outlook Trophy Played.

George Hayes Makes Score of Sixty—
Albert Crockett and Levi Jones
Close up in 62 and 63.

EVERY boy in town who owns golf clubs is entered in the handicap tournament for the Sterling trophy offered by THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK, and the preliminary round, played last Saturday, was characterized by unbounded enthusiasm and some really good golf, the scores ranging from 60 to 175.

George Hayes made the best score of the day, a card of 60, but Albert Crockett and Levi D. Jones were close after him with scores of 62 and 63, respectively. These cards in detail, form an interesting basis for comparison:

A CLOSE FINISH ON THE HOME GREEN.

George Hayes,	7	7	5	7	6	6	11	4	7-60
Albert Crockett,	8	7	4	8	5	6	9	5	10-62
Levi Jones,	6	7	5	6	7	8	10	6	8-63

Other scores were:

Gilman Crockett	70
Carl Abbott	77
Parker Hansel	84
Corydon Ashby	107
Richard Tufts	175

In view of the interest shown THE OUTLOOK has decided to offer two cups, one for the best gross and another for the best net, and in addition there will be souvenirs for each of the contestants who fail to win as six must surely do.

The final round with handicaps will be played this afternoon in the posted order, the same holes as last week, the first six and last nine, being used. Participants must each be accompanied by adults who will be required to keep the score both by strokes and by holes, and see that the contestants observe the conditions governing the contest printed in last Saturday's paper.

The order of play will be as follows:

Master Ashby	-
Master Tufts
Master Hansel
Master Abbott
Master Hayes
Master A. Crockett
Master G. Crockett
Master Jones

CHRISTMAS TREE PLANS.

Arrangements Began During the Week
With Meeting at The Harvard.

Plans for bringing happiness into the homes of the children of the Village and vicinity on Christmas day, were begun during the week with meetings at The Harvard parlor Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, Mrs. Montgomery A. Crockett acting as chairman and Mrs. B. B. Glenny as secretary.

A committee was chosen of which Rev. J. B. Seabury will be chairman and treasurer, including Mrs. Crockett and Mrs. Glenny of The Harvard; Mrs. Creamer and Mrs. Priest of The Holly Inn; Mrs. Underhill of The Cedars; Miss Fiske of The Lenox, and Miss Wilbur of the cottagers.

Details for various arrangements were placed in the hands of the following women: Tree, Mrs. Cotter; Children, Miss Mabley; Candy, Mrs. Currier; Toys, Mrs. Knight; Clothing, Mrs. Otto. These women will make up their own committees and have entire charge of their departments, including the buying, arranging and distribution of gifts.

Contributions of money, clothing, toys, books, etc., are desired and should be handed to the members of the committee at as early a date as possible.

WHAT WAS THE MATTER?

It Lay With the Englishman; not the Pumpkin Pie.

Dr. J. H. Packard, of Philadelphia, who is spending the winter at The Holly Inn, tells the following story to illustrate the traditional inability of an Englishman to see a joke:

A traveler dining at a country hotel, was asked by the waitress if he would have "Apple pie, peach pie, cherry pie or pumpkin pie?"

"Bring me apple pie, peach pie and cherry pie" was the reply.

"What's the matter with the pumpkin pie?" was the retort of the waitress.

This story was told in a company where there was an Englishman; who after a little while edged up to the teller, and queried: "Aw—beg pardon—but—what was the matter with the pumpkin pie?"
