

W. A. JOHNSTON WINS CUP

Leads the Field in Saturday's Golf Handicap by a Single Stroke.

G. L. Knight and Charles Hansel, the Scratch Men, Finish Only Four Points Apart.

ATURDAY'S medal play handicap for the Casino trophy resulted in close scores, finding five of the eight contestants one hundred and better at the finish. W. A. Johnston, of Latrobe, Pa., whose handicap was 22, won the trophy with 91 net, with but a single stroke to spare.

T. J. Check, of East Orange, N. J., (27), finished with 92 net; G. L. Knight, of Philadelphia (8), with 94, and Charles Hansel, New York (6), and J. V. Hall, Pittsburg (27), were 100 each.

The two best gross scores were but four strokes apart, 102 for Mr. Knight and 106 for Mr. Hansel.

AT THE POULTRY FARM.

Birthday Parties This Week—More Prize Winners Coming.

The coming week will be a busy one at the Poultry Farm and birthday parties are booked for Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the 21st, 22d, 23d and 24th. Thursday and Friday will be the days of special interest to visitors.

The hatching last Tuesday, broke all records for the season 309 downy chicks tumbling forth from their shells with great rejoicing at the prospect of waxing fat and then delighting the guests of Pinchurst.

Another invoice of choice breeding stock is expected during the week in the way of Black Minorcas, prize winners at the great Madison Square Garden and Boston shows. One of the cocks expected is the son of a bird at the head of a pen of five birds which recently sold for $5,000.

Guests at The Lexington.

Mrs. J. E. Lambie and Master Edward, of Erie, Pa., and Miss N. D. Poe, of New York, are guests at The Lexington.

DR. GEORGE S. HILL.

Pistol Club Committee Elect Him President—This Week's Handicaps.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Pinchurst Target Pistol Club, held at The Holly Inn Monday evening, Dr. George S. Hill, of Marblehead, Mass., was elected president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Herbert J. Hall.

Plans for the winter's shoots were discussed and rules governing them were adopted which will be posted at the butts. The prospect for a successful season is unusually bright.
