NIGHT HAWKS IN SORROW.*Marriage of President Hill is Crushing and Fatal Blow.

Sorrow reigns in the hearts of the survivors of the Night Hawk Club, once a thriving organization at The Holly Inn, which whiled away many happy hours together between ten P. M. and later; mostly later. One by one the members have drifted away from the protecting arms of the parent, either because business called them home or wives had come; but the final blow comes in the marriage of the President, Dr. Hill, and it is feared that the blow will be fatal.

The following resolutions adopted at a recent meeting of the survivors, will show that all hope is apparently, lost:

Owing to the fact that our Honored President and All Round Good Fellow, Doctor George Sumner Hill, has seen fit to take to himself a wife, We the survivors of the Night Hawk Club, in Sorrow Assembled, Resolve that We express our Great Grief at our Irreparable Loss.

Be it Further Resolved, that We express our Deep Appreciation of Our Esteemed President's Fertile Imagination and Total Ignorance of the Lapse of Time.

Be it Further Resolved, that a copy of these Resolutions be printed in THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK and the Medical Record, and sent to the Families of the Increased.

Guests at The Magnolia.

Mr. H. W. Ormsbee, manager of the advertising department of the Brooklyn Daily Times, is located at The Magnolia for a long sojourn with Mrs. Ormsbee.

Guests at The Lenox.

Mrs. F. L. Patterson, of Glen Falls, N. Y., is at The Lenox to remain some months.

Miss Winnifred Munroe, of North Reading, Mass., has gone after a short visit.

MISS GLENNY—MR. SHERMAN.*They are Winners in Final Round in Mixed Doubles Tennis.

The final round in last week's mixed doubles tennis tournament, was won by Miss Glenny of Sheffield, Mass., and A. C. Sherman of Northboro, who defeated Dr. M. A. Crockett of Buffalo, and Mrs. Leonard Tufts of Medford, Mass., 6-1, 6-2.

The popularity of these events will lead to a number during the season and the tournaments scheduled by the Tennis Club, later in the season, are being awaited with interest.

Professional Ross Arrives.

Professional Donald Ross [and bride arrived Friday morning and is located at The Pine Grove House for the winter. A rousing welcome was given him by friends and associates.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Otto, of Reading, Pa., entertained very pleasantly with a Novelty Party at The Cedars Wednesday evening, the occasion being Mrs. Otto's birthday. Games of various sorts were played and refreshments served, the evening passing very pleasantly.

Among the week's arrivals are Mrs. E. A. Barbour, Miss Barbour, Winthrop, Mass., Miss M. Morrill, Exeter, N. H.

Excursion to Raleigh.

The Seaboard Air Line announces a special excursion rate of one fare, plus twenty-five cents, for one person, and one cent per mile for ten or more on one ticket, from all points in North Carolina to Raleigh and return from January 10 to 14 inclusive. The occasion for the reduction is the inauguration of Governor Glenn, January 11.

FIND THE ABSENT HUSBAND.

A Pittsburg Story.

"Tread lightly, Patty, for here lies the daid," said Mikey as a milestone near Pittsburg, was approached, and then stopping, he read:

"His age was 36, and his name was Miles from Pittsburg."

Christmas Fund Contributors.

In the list of contributions to the Christmas tree fund furnished THE OUTLOOK last week, by the treasurer, the item "Cottages, $72.15" included $5.15 from the Lexington, $2.50 from the Pine Grove, and contributions from the apartment houses.

Invitation Putting Contest.

An invitation putting contest for a prize given by Mrs. G. Lee Knight, of Philadelphia, was a pleasant feature Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Montgomery A. Crockett, of Buffalo, won with a score of 26.

Ross Defeats Jolly.

An interesting golf feature of the week past, was a thirty-six hole match play contest, for a purse contributed by the guests, between professionals Alec Ross and Jack Jolly. Ross had matters much his own way, defeating his opponent seven up and six to play. A large gallery followed the match.

Approaching Contest.

An approaching contest for an English Kit bag presented by P. F. Murphy, of the Mark Cross Company, is announced for Monday afternoon from 1:30 to 5, in connection with the advertising men's tournament.

Forgiving.

Fogg thinks it is not so difficult to forgive one's debtors; it's forgiving creditors that tells on a man.

SPORTSMEN'S CALENDARS.*Laffin and Rand, Peters and Dupont People, Issue Attractive Ones.

Very attractive calendars have been issued by Laffin & Rand, Dupont & Peters Cartridge Powder Companies, all of which sportsmen will prize as pleasant reminders of days afield. The calendars are all beautifully printed in many colors.

The Peters calendar is of special interest to Pinehurst sportsmen, owing to the fact that it depicts a couple of quail hunters resting. Seated on the ground, one of the sportsmen is holding aloft a quail at which two dogs are looking intently. Close at hand his companion is rolling a cigarette, and on the ground near by, lie a pile of birds.

The Laffin & Rand calendar is a Northern Maine scene, and very striking with its brilliant coloring. It shows a canoe under full speed, in the bow of which stands a sportsman, taking aim at a bull moose which is swimming in the water some fifty yards distant.

The Dupont calendar is a study of a water Spaniel retrieving a Mallard duck.

How He Escaped.

"How does it happen," asked the customer, with gratified surprise, as he got out of the chair, "that my hair isn't harsh and dry, that it is not all coming out, and doesn't need singeing?"
"I haven't got as far as that," replied the barber at chair No. 7, handing him a 25 cent check. "I'm the apprentice."
