

AT THE VARIOUS HOTELS

Week's Arrivals Include Many Season Guests and Old Friends.

Out-Door Sports and Pleasures Interesting Visitors—Informal Social Affairs Much Enjoyed.

SEASON guests and old friends have increased the hotel colony very notably during the week past, taking the places of those who came for the golf tournament. Out-door sports and pleasures are mainly, interesting the visitors, but informal social affairs are well under way and the more formal events, gormans, dances and the like, will begin shortly.

AT THE CAROLINA.

Many Season Guests and Old Friends Among Week's Arrivals.

The Carolina is filling rapidly, and gradually becoming the centre of many pleasant social affairs. The week's arrivals include many old friends and those who come for the season.

Prominent among the arrivals of the week is a party including John D. Rockefeller, New York, Dr. H. F. Biggar and Mr. William C. Rudd, Cleveland.

Mrs. H. St. John Smith and Miss Smith, Portland, Maine, return for the season. Mrs. Smith who has been a visitor here for many years is a charming woman and a general favorite.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foot, child and nurse, Rye, N. Y., are here for a long sojourn. Mr. Foot has been a frequent visitor and is an enthusiast over golf and shooting.

Mrs. Martha A. Lacy and Miss Caroline Lacy, Ithica, N. Y., are here for January.

A. M. Moreland, Pittsburg, and Mr. F. Warren Davis, Philadelphia, were recent guests.

Mrs. T. D. Messler, Pittsburg, and Mrs. M. V. Gilbert, Rutherford, N. J., come for the season.

Col. J. E. Smith, Wilmington, Del. returns for several weeks golf.

Mrs. Margeret Sabine, Syracuse, N. Y., is here for the winter.

Mr. W. M. Childs, and Mr. A. W. Erickson, New York, are completing a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Grant Anderson. Mrs. J. N. Anderson and William Anderson, Pittsburg, are making a long sojourn.

Mr. F. L. DuBosque and H. B. Guthrie, New York, are completing a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Waters, and Mr. Merrill K. Waters, New York, come for the season.

Mr. A. J. Voyer and Mr. William D. Arnold, Albany, N. Y., join Judge Gregory's party.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Haslam, Philadelphia, return for several weeks.

Mr. George P. Stewart, Hartford, Conn., is making a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Merwin, Utica, N. Y., are among the week's arrivals.

Mrs. W. A. Burnham, Miss J. L. Burnham, and Miss Burnham, Irvington, N. Y., are here for the winter.

Mrs. Cora A. Sands and maid, New York, will remain several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Long, Miss Aline Long, Wilkesbarre, Pa., are making a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. DeWolf, Chicago, return for several weeks.

Mr. Richard S. Childs, Brooklyn, joins his father.

AT THE HOLLY INN.

Week Increases House Count and Brings Old Friends.

The week has brought many old friends and season guests to The Holly Inn and increased the house count very materially.

Mr. R. N. Soper, Kansas City, Mo., spent a few days here recently.

Mrs. Wm. H. S. Jarvis and Miss Jarvis, Somerville, Mass., are among recent arrivals who come for an extended visit.

FOR AN IDLE MOMENT.

THIS IS THE WISE MAN—FIND THE FOOL.

Mr. H. W. Cost returns for a few weeks with his mother.

Mr. Wm. Dunlap Sargent and Mrs. M. F. Sargent, Brooklyn, are here for a long stay.

Mr. George A. Munger and wife, Camden, N. J., are here to remain several weeks.

Mr. W. Edward Scott, Portland, Maine, rejoins Mrs. Scott.

Mr. J. F. Wheelwright, Boston, is here for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gordon, New York, return for the season and are welcomed again by many former acquaintances.

Mrs. C. O. Perkins, two children and maid, Glen Summit, Pa., are here for a long sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tracey, South Coventry, Conn., return again for a season visit.

Mr. Luther Little and Mr. F. B. Holder, Boston, are enjoying a week's shooting.

Mr. C. R. Runyon, Yonkers, N. Y., joins his mother and son, together with Miss Ellen E. Hart, New York.

Mrs. G. A. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. McFeely, two children and maid, Pittsburg, are here for a long visit.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Parker, Winchester, Mass., return for the season. They were accompanied by Miss E. Kehoe, Philadelphia.

Mr. J. R. Such, South Amboy, N. J., returns for quail shooting.

Miss Susan J. Day and Miss Alice Kemp, Colchester, Conn., will remain until spring.

Mrs. J. M. Kenny, Miss Kenny and J. M. Kenny, Jr., Pittsburg, are spending the winter here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Myer, Boston, are spending a few days here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Arlington, Marblehead, Mass., were guests of the week.

Mr. I. R. Marshall and Mr. Milton Welch, Hackensack, N. J.; Mr. Paul F. Richter, Philadelphia; Mr. L. G. Bullis, Keene, N. H.; Mr. Bertrand E. Taylor, Boston; Mr. Geo. D. Bartlett, Jr., Phila-

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Leslie and Miss Phillips, Philadelphia, are here for a long sojourn.

Mr. J. S. Menough, Philadelphia, is here for the week.

Mrs. A. A. Bennett, Wilkesbarre, Pa., will remain until spring.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kendall, Boston, are spending several weeks here. Mr. Kendall is the General Passenger Agent of the N. Y. N. H. and Hartford R. R.

Mr. J. R. Coolbough, Wilkesbarre, Pa., is here for the season.

Mrs. A. K. Wilbur and Mrs. J. D. King, Toronto, were visitors during the week and will return later.

BOWLING LEAGUE FORMED.

Series of Trophy Tournaments Arranged for the Season.

Plans for the formation of a local bowling league are progressing favorably and a series of championship matches will be arranged for Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week.

Prizes will be given the winning team scoring the greatest number of points and individual trophies will be offered for the highest three strings and single string average.

Wednesday evening The Carolina team defeated The Village team by a score of 1801 to 1710.

The scores follow:

THE CAROLINA.

Austin	141	125	167	433
Danzi	131	134	124	389
Francelli	102	148	137	387
Albee	99	120	106	325
Wheeler	116	76	75	267

1,801

THE VILLAGE.

McGovern	95	112	160	367
Savage	118	134	110	362
Pippin	107	105	147	359
Veno	121	111	168	340
Carroll	93	81	168	282

1,710

CLUB FOR BOYS.

It Aims to Bring Them Together for Sports and Social Affairs.

A movement is on foot to start a Club among the boys of the school, with the object of bringing them together under the direction of the teachers, in sports and social affairs.

It is hoped that a student association may be formed which will be of present interest and lasting value. Already the nucleus of a baseball team has been collected, and frequent practice games are being had.

At The Lenox.

Miss Eliza H. Brown, Brooklyn, and Miss Lydia Pierce, Philadelphia, are among recent arrivals at The Lenox.

A clock golf green which is being laid out promises to be much enjoyed.

With the return of a number of last year's players, croquet is becoming popular again.

AT THE BERKSHIRE.

Hotel is Filling Rapidly With Congenial Guests.

Mr. John C. Hirshey, Philadelphia, returns for a short stay.

Mrs. C. E. Moorehouse, Fair Haven, Vt., comes to again take charge of the fancy work at the Studio.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Williams and Miss Williams, Bridgeport, Conn., were recent visitors.

Mr. F. S. Miller, New York, returns for the season.

delphia; Mr. M. DeWitt Rae, Netherland, N. J.; Mr. H. P. Talcott, New York, are among the week's arrivals.