BOWLING INTEREST GROWING

The Pinehurst Outlook Offers Five Handsome Steins to Leading Team.

Winner of Matches in February and March Will Secure Them—Carolina and Store Team Met Tuesday.

THE increasing interest in bowling, brought about by the formation of the local bowling league, has prompted THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK to offer five very handsome steins to be the property of the members of the team winning the greatest number of matches in February and March.

The question as to whether the total number of points of the evenings bowling, or the best two out of three games will win, has been referred to The Boston

HEARTS AT THE HOLLY.

Tuesday Evening's Party was Much Enjoyed.

Nine tables were filled at the hearts party at The Holly Inn Tuesday evening. The first woman's prize, a handsome gilt clock, was won by Mrs. J. S. Case, New York, with eleven points. Mrs. M. B. Byrnes, New York, won the second, a sterling silver hat pin and the third, "Bridge Rules in Rhyme," went to Mrs. Parke Wright, Buffalo. The first men's prize, a pair of beautiful gold link cuff buttons, was won by Mr. Parke Wright, Buffalo. Mr. D. W. Coon, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., with eleven points won second, a sterling silver stamp holder and the third a pack of Congress playing cards, was secured by Mr. G. R. Wallace, Brooklyn.

Among those present were: Mrs. Hansel, Mrs. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. Vaill, Miss Vaill, Mrs. Gard, Mrs. Rosenfeld, Miss Carey, Mrs. Byrnes, Mrs. Hogg, Miss Durkee, Mr. Rae, Mr. Talcott, Mr. and Mrs. McFeely, Mr. Me-

TOLD FOR FACT!

Remarkable Shot Made by H. W. Cost on Tenth Tee.

The eleventh hole on the golf course has long been famous, but it must now take a back seat in face of the remarkable experience H. W. Cost had on the tenth. Mr. Cost topped his drive from the famous "rosin or pond tee," causing the ball to strike a portion of the bridge across the pond, and bound back, strike the ground at the foot of the tee, and roll up into place on the top!

When Mr. Cost had recovered himself he promptly played two without re-teeing! PHEW—!
