

The Pinehurst Outlook

Published Saturday Morning, Twenty-five Weeks in the year, at

Pinehurst, Moore County, North Carolina.

(Founded by JAMES W. TUFTS.)

Herbert L. Jilson, . . . . . Editor.
The Outlook Publishing Company, - Publishers.

One Dollar Annually, Payable in Advance;
Five Cents a Copy.

Address Communications and make Remittances payable to

THE OUTLOOK PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Entered in the Post Office at Pinehurst, N. C., as Second Class Mail Matter.

SATURDAY FEB. 11, 1905

The Imported Auto.

The crowd was gathered at the start,
The "auto" course was clear,
The stern chauffeur upon the seat
Was Chauncey Vere de Vere.

Like galloping tubercull
The tiling began to cough.
Brave Chauncey seized the what's-its-name—
A shot, and they were off!

His engine was a thing-um-bob
Imported from Patee,
His tires, I wot, were you-know-what—
The kind they ought to be.

Small wonder, then that Chauncey sped
More swiftly than the wynde—
Before him lay the open course,
His rivals all behind.

But Chauncey looked with anguished gaze
Upon his steering gear—
The crack-a-jack was out of whack
And acting very queer.

The thing-ma-jig began to dig,
The what's-its-name to pop,
And shame, O shame! the "auto" came
Abruptly to a stop!

With leers and jeers and dastard sneers
The rival cars shot by—
Their spunk was up to win the cup,
Their hopes and speed were high.

But prone beneath his moveless car
Our anguished hero lay—
No hope was his—the funny-biz
Had broken quite away.

So Vere de Vere, the chauffeur, wept
Beside a wayside ditch.
"All lost!" he cried, "because of that Defective ask-me-which!"

—Life.

A Polite Suggestion.

There is a place, we have been taught,
With torrid torment fiercely fraught,
Where sinners their repentance take
Straight from a simmering brimstone Lake;
Where the thermometer doth range
About 500, without change

How thankful would those sufferers be
If just one snow ball they could see.
This blizzard which persistent roars
About our windows and our doors,
It sets our peace of mind at naught
And leads to many an impious thought.
Would that it might be swiftly freighted
There, where 'twould be appreciated.

Frenzied Finance.

Lives of great men oft remind us,
If we only owned a trust,
We could squeeze each smaller dealer
Till he'd pay our price or bust.

—From the Princeton Tiger.

AT THE VARIOUS HOTELS

The Week Brings Many Guests and Intro- duces Delightful Social Events.

A Large Number of Old and New Friends Swell the Number of Guests Assembled Here.

THE arrivals at the different hotels are constantly increasing, and already the time when accommodations will be extremely limited is not far distant.
The coming week will mark the commencement of the midseason, and inaugurate its varied pleasures.

AT THE CAROLINA.

Many Informal Social Events—Large Number of New Arrivals.

Many new guests have arrived at The Carolina during this week, and social events, formal and informal, have crowded the week's program to its utmost. A progressive bridge whist tournament was started Tuesday evening, and unusual interest has been manifested by the participants. Carpet bowling is attracting considerable attention. Putting, a nail driving contest, and a needle threading contest have given a varied nature to the week's pleasures.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Willcox, Miss Katherine Willcox, Mr. James M. Willcox and valet, Philadelphia, were here for a few days.

Mrs. E. F. Cost and maid, Herbert W. Cost and Dr. George E. Lyon, St. Louis, come to spend the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. North, Chicago, return for another season. Mr. North is a well-known member of The Tin Whistles.

Mr. M. L. Cobb and Mr. C. M. Cobb, Boston, are here for a few days.

Mr. J. F. Shanley, Newark, N. J., and Father J. A. Reynolds, Red Bank, N. J., come for a short stay.

Mr. H. Nelson Burroughs, Philadelphia, joins the ranks of the Tin Whistles.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Supplee, Philadelphia, intend to remain for several weeks.

Mr. Fred W. Haynes and Miss C. C. Haynes, New York, come for the season.

Commodore James, Norbuth, Pa., and Mr. M. C. Paul, Philadelphia, will be here for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Powell, Toronto, Canada, will remain a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Buckman, Trenton, N. J., come for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Buck, Cambridge, Mass., come to spend their sixth season in Pinehurst.

Miss Alice Pine, New York, joins her aunt Mrs. Sands.

Mr. James J. Flood, New York, returns for a few weeks.

Chevalier S. L. de Fabry, New Jersey, is spending a few days here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hastings, and Mr.

Rolland T. Rankin, Chicago, are making a short stay.

Mr. Manuel C. Velarde, Lima, Peru, was the guest of Mr. Herbert W. Cost over Sunday. Mr. Velarde is a Cornell graduate, and was Secretary of the Peruvian Commission at the St. Louis Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Sikes, Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Waters, Buffalo, will remain a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Moss, child and nurse, Bala, Pa., intend to spend the winter here.

Mr. E. F. Cost, Norfolk, Va., spent Sunday with his wife and son.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Du Bois, Montclair, N. J., are making a visit of a few weeks.

Mrs. Walter C. Baker comes for the season, and Mr. Baker leaves to return for frequent visits during the winter.

Miss H. L. Wister, Germantown, Pa., and Miss Holcomb, Lambertville, Pa., were guests during the week.

A jolly party from Raleigh spent the week end here. The party included Mr. C. W. Burkett, Mr. R. G. Sherrill, Dr. H. McK. Tucker, Mr. W. W. Vass, Mr. F. P. Haywood, Mr. A. P. Bauman, Mr. Hollis Winston, Mr. W. H. King, Miss Florence Jones, Miss Frances Jones, Miss Marian Fiske and Miss Sadie Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Campbell, Boston, Mass., come for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hermance, Williamsport, Pa., are guests of Mr. F. H. Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan E. Lard, Washington, D. C., have returned from a trip through Georgia and Florida, well satisfied to pass the remainder of the season in Pinehurst.

Mr. R. P. White and Mr. Fred R. White, Cleveland, join Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Baker.

Mr. J. Roberts Allan, Ottawa, Canada, will remain for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Vollmer and Mr. W. A. Vollmer, Brooklyn, were late arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sherman, Lawrence, L. I., come for a few week's sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wardwell and Mr. L. E. Wardwell, Camden, Me., intend to remain through the season.

Mr. and Mrs. John V. Schaefer, Jr., New York, come for some weeks.

Mr. W. N. Whaley and Mr. W. A. Whaley, Norfolk, Va., were among the guests of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Unger, Newark, N. J., will remain a number of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Vanderhoof, New York, are here for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac B. Johnson, Miss Johnson, and Miss Helen B. Johnson, Spuyten Duyvil, return for another season.

Mr. C. A. Taft, Whitinsville, Mass., comes to spend the rest of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rudolph, Washington, D. C., are spending a few weeks here.

Mr. Joseph McManus and Mr. J. P. Weber, Elizabeth, N. J., come for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Craven, Miss Mabel Craven, J. V. Craven, Jr., and maid, West Chester, Pa., return for the season.

Mr. William Penn Hussey, Danvers,

Mass., will make a short stay.

Mr and Mrs. George Pick, child and nurse, Milwaukee, are here to spend the winter.

Mr. Nathan Weill, Washington, D. C., Traveling Passenger Agent for the South Eastern Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad is making a short stay here.

Among the other guests were: Mr. John T. Christie, Troy, N. Y.; Mr. J. B. Rogers, New York; Mr. J. A. Middleton, Chicago; Mr. H. Allan Bate, Ottawa.

At The Berkshire.

Many new friends are arriving, and the advancing season has crowded the house to its full capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carr, Wilkesbarre, Pa., intend to stay for some weeks.

Mrs. R. G. Post and Miss Anna Harmon, Oswego, N. Y., come for the season. Mrs. Post joins her daughter who is one of the assistants in the Pinehurst School.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clifford, Bath, Me., will stay for several weeks.

Mrs. F. C. Winkler and Marion W. Winkler, Milwaukee, Wis., come to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Eastman, Roslyn, N. Y., are making a prolonged stay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sanford, New Haven, Conn., come to make a brief visit.

Mr. A. G. Duncan, Pittsburg, is here for the season.

Mrs. C. E. Joslin, Keene, N. H., comes for the rest of the season.

Mrs. D. J. Murphy and D. J. Murphy, Jr., Lawrence, Mass., are spending a few days here.

Mr. and Mrs. Terwilliger, New York, come for two weeks.

Mrs. A. Hurlbut, Utica, N. Y., will be here for some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stockwell, Toronto, come for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Sedgwick, New York, is spending the week here.

Mr. George C. Lindsay, Philadelphia, plans to be here till the end of the season.

Mrs. A. Schutte, Miss B. Schutte and Miss M. C. Elliott, New York, are spending the winter here.

Mrs. Christian Siebert, and the Misses Siebert, Waterbury, Conn., are enjoying a visit of some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hubbard, Manchester, N. H., are here for a short sojourn.

Mr. Benjamin Graben, Newark, N. J., comes for a couple of weeks.

Mr. Andrew Brown, Fayette City, Pa., will stay for a few weeks.

Mrs. Louis Saunders and Miss Marjorie Saunders, Annapolis, were among the late arrivals.

Literary Guessing Party at Harvard.

The Guests at the Harvard were entertained on Friday evening by a literary guessing contest, the questions and answers being furnished by Mrs. Grace R. Palmer, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. The participants were given thirty minutes to guess the names of noted men and women from brief descriptions, the first letters of the words in the description being the same as the initials of the persons described. Mrs. E. A. Whitman, Cambridge, won the first prize, Miss E. Check, East Orange, N. J., took second, and Mrs. H. D. Evans, Boston, received the consolation prize.