Horseback Riding Popular.

Horseback riding was never more popular and many are enjoying the recreation. Added interest has been given to the sport by the giving of riding parties by the young women guests of the Village, and numerous all day excursions and picnic parties are being arranged.

Manager Horton of the stables has an exceptionally fine string of saddlers with him, and Riding Master Thomas W. Mack is finding plenty to do.

The Delineator for March.

Containing the first authentic reports of the Spring and Summer styles, the March Delineator is of special interest to the women of fashion and a most attractive number throughout. A discussion of "The Use and Abuse of Armorial Bearings," by William Armstrong Crozier, is a noteworthy contribution, containing a fund of information in regard to coat armor that is little known or widely disregarded. N. Hudson Moore's article on "Old Pewter," the first in a series on kindred subjects, will appeal particularly to collectors, and the story of Charlotte Elliott's famous hymn, "Just as I Am," as related by Allan Sutherland, is of greatest interest. Other features are "Robert and Clara Schumann," by Gustav Kobbe, in the Composers' Series, "The Game of Politics as it is Played in Washington"—and more particularly, woman's part in it—by "Marie Columbia," and a reproduction of miniatures from the Marie collection. There are two notable pieces of fiction in "The Things That Are Real," by Zona Gale, and "His Honor vs. Cupid," by Virginia Woodward Cloud, in addition to delightful verse. For the young folks, L. Frank Baum gives an "Animal Fairy Tale," Grace MacGowan Cooke a "Son Riley Rabbit" story, and Lina Beard an amusing pastime. There are the usual departments and other matter of interest to women within and without the home.
