

TIN WHISTLES SMOKER

Members and Friends Spend Merry Evening at Annual Gathering.

John Williams and Caddy Minstrel Troupe Provide Novel Evening's Entertainment.

THE annual smoker of the Tin Whistles, held at the Golf Club House Saturday evening, was attended by a large number of the members and many invited guests, and good fellowship reigned supreme. In the absence of President C. A. Lockwood, Vice-President G. Lee Knight presided.

John Williams and a troupe of caddy-minstrels, provided the bulk of the evening's entertainment, giving songs, dances and "orchestral selections" in addition to "John's" quaint comments which may be summed up in his opening remark, in which he likened those not members of the Tin Whistles, to the man who fell out of a balloon and when asked what happened, remarked tersely: "Well, I'm not in it, that's all."

The orchestra was composed of two pieces, a fiddle and a banjo, and assisted by rhythmic hand-clapping, and it furnished the motive power for the buck and wing dancing which was remarkably good, and the many songs and choruses which flavored of Darkey land and were given with much natural harmony.

Uncle Demus contributed to the evening's enjoyment with the familiar song about Pharaoh's daughter:

"Where o where is Pharaoh's daughter;
Went to bathe and the alligator caught her
Far away in the promised land!"

adding several new verses and singing the chorus in unison with the company.

Mr. W. E. Hervey gave two songs with banjo accompaniment, which were warmly received.

At the close of the entertainment program refreshments were served, cigars lighted and a time spent in story telling, chorus singing and sociability.

During the evening the drawings for Saturday's Kickers Handicap were made and the winners announced.

MRS. ANDERSON WINS.

Termination of Interesting Bridge Tournament at the Carolina.

Bridge whist is claiming many devotees at The Carolina and a progressive tournament, in which a large number of participants played down through a series of rubbers, was an interesting feature recently.

The players at the last table were Mrs. J. G. Anderson, Pittsburg, Dr. Montgomery A. Crockett, Buffalo, Mr. G. Lee Knight, Philadelphia, and Mr. Lindsey Hall, Medford, Mass.

Mrs. Anderson won the prize offered with 1,040 points, Dr. Crockett finishing second with 960.

WILL DANCE IN DISGUISE.

Novel Frolic Planned for This Evening at The Carolina.

A Disguise Party at The Carolina has been arranged for this evening, to which a general invitation is extended. Participants may wear any disguise they see fit, but it must be a complete disguise.

Numbers will be given out by those taking part as they enter the hall, and a prize will be given for the largest number of correct guesses as to the names of the masqueraders. Dancing begins at eight-thirty o'clock.

LOCAL MINSTRELS.

Rare Entertainment Treat Promised Later in the Month.

A rare treat is promised at the Village Hall the last of the month, in the shape of a Minstrel Show which is being arranged by the employees of the Village through the efforts of A. M. Swinnerton.

It is sufficient to say that the sign "Come early and avoid the rush" will be in order when the date is announced for there is sure to be "sompin' doin'" from the time the curtain rises until it falls.

Guests from Nova Scotia.

Mr. N. A. Rhodes, Mayor of Amherst, Nova Scotia, and a member of the firm of Curry & Co., and Mr. M. D. Pride, manager and president of the Amherst Boot and Shoe Company, are completing a two weeks' stay at the Holly Inn, delighted with their impression of Pinehurst.

Baseball Plans.

The baseball grounds will be rolled very shortly and systematic practice begun. A series of interesting games are promised during March and April.

REASON ENOUGH.

Jaggles—"When that Russian applied to have his name changed did the court ask for any reasons?"

Waggles—"Not after he gave his name"

HARRINGTON MILLS
PROPRIETOR.

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA.

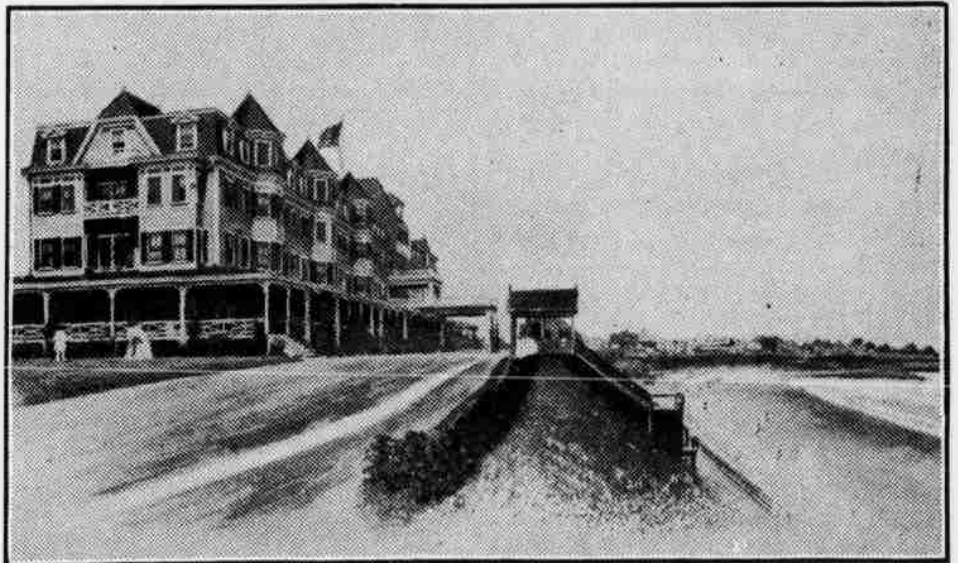

The Princess Anne Hotel, one of the most delightfully situated hotels in the south, only 300 feet from the ocean waves. The gulf stream which is near by makes the climate mild in winter, average temperature Feb. to May 60 degrees. Here you avoid the enervating effects of the climate further south. Great pine forests skirt the beach. The mingling of the salt air with the ozone of the pines makes this the most charming of resorts.

We conduct our own farm and dairy, plenty fish and oysters, thus assuring our guests the best of everything for the table. Beautiful drives through the pines and along the beach. Splendid golf course. Best wild fowl shooting in America. You cannot come to a spot where you will be more charmed than here.
