

Mr. Ernest J. Spaulding, Burlington, Vt., will remain some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hinckley and child, Chicago, are here for a short visit.

Mrs. J. K. Heath and Master Archie LeRoy Heath, New York, will spend the season here.

Mr. E. P. Williams and Mr. W. G. Halkett, Philadelphia, come for several weeks' golf.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Keiney and children, New London, Conn., come for a months' visit.

Miss J. Bailey and maid, Philadelphia, will remain through February.

Mrs. Joseph Nicholson, Boston, is here for an extended visit.

Mr. C. D. Sedberry, Philadelphia, made a brief visit during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brown, Mrs. H. T. Colt and Miss Louise Colt, New London, Conn., are among the late arrivals.

At The Harvard.

A number of old friends and some new ones were welcomed at The Harvard during the week. Informal card parties and putting contests have added to the week's pleasures.

AMONG THE GUESTS.

Mrs. Ida B. Moore and Miss Marie Moore, Union City, Pa., return for their second season. Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Malden, Mass., are here for a short visit.

Mrs. Telfair Creighton and Miss Creighton, Los Angeles, Cal., join Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Peet. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nash, Norfolk, are completing a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rogers, Round Lake, N. Y., were guests during the week.

Mrs. Willis G. Kendiz, Lancaster, Pa., is visiting her uncle, Mr. George Kessler.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Pierce, Lorain, Ohio, are here for an extended visit.

Mrs. S. A. T. Ackerman and Miss A. M. Ackerman, Brooklyn, return for their second season.

Mr. William H. Castle, Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. H. C. Luders, and will remain for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest N. Wright, Master Ernest N. Wright, Jr., Master Carleton Wright and Miss Kathleen Wright, Newton Centre, Mass., join Mr. A. J. Wellington.

Mr. Walter R. Meins, Boston, comes for two weeks' stay.

Mr. Thomas J. Check, East Orange, N. J., joins his wife and daughter for a short visit.

BURROUGHS THE WINNER.

Leads Field in Tuesday's Trap Shooting Tournament.

Tuesday's trap shooting tournament, 40 targets from the tower trap, ten each, right, left, overhead, and unknown angles, developed one of the most interesting contests of the season, which was enjoyed by a large company of onlookers. The event was scheduled as a handicap, but by general consent was shot from scratch.

H. Nelson Burroughs, Philadelphia, won the event with 27, leaving W. E. Hervey, Far Rockaway, N. Y., two targets, S. K. Warnick, Amsterdam, N. Y., scored 24, H. E. Green, Amsterdam, N. Y., 21, E. J. Choate, Boston, 20, G. F. Tiffany, New York, 13, and George Middleton, Chicago, 8.

An informal sweepstake shoot last week, drew a good field, and there were two ten target events. In the first J. G. Anderson, New York, tied with C. A. Lockwood, New York, and in the second, Anderson won, E. P. McMurty, New York, and C. A. Taft, Whitinsville, Mass., tying for second.

MR. AND MRS. FOOT'S GUESTS.

Progressive Bridge in Observance of Birthday Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foot, of Rye, N. Y., entertained very delightfully at The Carolina Tuesday evening with a progressive bridge whist tournament, the occasion being Mr. Foot's birthday anniversary. There were four tables and three rubbers were played at each. Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. McAdam, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Rinehart, and Mrs. Crockett won the dainty prizes offered. Following the evening's play an appetizing Welsh rarebit supper was served, and an hour spent pleasantly in story telling.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. Foot, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Johnson, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. E. Rinehart, Stamford, Conn., Dr. and Mrs. Montgomery A. Crockett, Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson, Worcester, Mrs. J. N. Anderson, Pittsburg, Mrs. B. B. Glenny, Sheffield, Mass., Mrs. Harold Roberts, Stamford, Conn., Mrs. Amelia McAdam, Miss McAdam, Washington, D. C., Mr. J. R. Allen, Ottawa, Canada.

FOR AN IDLE MOMENT.

FIND THE YOUNG WOMAN'S AUNT.

ST. VALENTINE'S TENNIS.

Mrs. St. John Smith and Mr. Kenney Win Mixed Doubles.

Mrs. St. John Smith, Portland, Maine, and Mr. J. M. Kenney, Pittsburg, were the winners of the St. Valentine's silver medals in Thursday's mixed doubles tennis tournament, defeating Miss Smith, Portland, and Mr. H. W. Cost, St. Louis, 7-5, 6-4 in the final round.

In the first round Mrs. Smith and Mr. Kenney defeated Mrs. M. A. Crockett, Buffalo, and Mr. F. A. King, Northboro, Mass., by default; and Miss Smith and Mr. Cost defeated Miss Ethel Check, East Orange, and Mr. Charles, New York, 6-1, 6-4.

Men's singles are in progress as THE OUTLOOK goes to press.

MR. FOOT-MISS HUSELTON.

They are Winners of Tin Whistles Mixed Foursomes.

J. D. Foot, Rye, N. Y., and Miss Huselton, Pittsburg, were the winners of the Tin Whistles medal play handicap mixed foursomes Wednesday, scoring 82 net, and playing with a handicap of 18. Mr. and Mrs. Parke Wright, Buffalo, (27,) were second with 87.

	Out.	In.	Gr.	Hp.	Net.
J. D. Foot,	47	53	100	18	82
Miss Huselton,
Parke Wright,	57	57	114	27	87
Mrs. Wright,
D. Ross,	55	60	115	27	88
Mrs. Ross,
Alex Ross,	49	55	104	15	89
Miss Aldridge,
C. L. Becker,	53	61	114	23	91
Miss Check,
T. B. Cotter,	70	83	153	60	93
Mrs. B. B. Glenny,

FRIDAY'S PISTOL SHOOT.

A. J. Wellington Takes Cup With Ninety-Seven Net.

Friday's pistol shoot was five strings of ten shots each, at five separate targets, at a distance of 20 yards, the best target winning.

A. J. Wellington, Boston, won the trophy offered for the best net score, with 97, and H. Nelson Burroughs, Philadelphia, made the best gross score of the day, 82.

THE SCORES.

	Gr.	Hdp.	Net
A. J. Wellington, Boston,	77	20	97
Dr. George S. Hill, Marblehead, Mass.,	64	30	94
H. N. Burroughs, Philadelphia,	82	10	92
M. H. Turner, Boston,	60	10	70
W. E. Scott, Portland, Me.,	61	6	67

FIRST SERMON SUNDAY.

Rev. R. K. Harlow Delivers Sermon at Union Service.

Rev. R. K. Harlow, of Medway, Mass., succeeds Rev. J. B. Seabury as the pastor in charge of the Sunday union services at the Village Hall, and will deliver his first sermon tomorrow morning at 11:15.

Rev. Mr. Harlow is a native of Massachusetts and born and bred a congregationalist. He is a graduate of Amherst College, and the Bangor Theological Seminary. Immediately following his graduation he supplied for the St. Lawrence Street Congregational Church in Portland for a time, and later settled in Medway, Mass., where he remained twenty-eight years.

A severe illness, however, caused his resignation, and an eighteen month's sojourn in California, where he regained his health. Since his return to the east Rev. Mr. Harlow has supplied as occasion offered, his most recent engagements being at Holliston and Quincy, Mass.

THIRTY-FIVE QUAIL.

Frank Presbrey and Party Enjoy Good Shooting at Candor.

Frank Presbrey, of New York, and G. H. Johnson, of Bridgeport, hunted in the Candor section of the Pinehurst preserves Wednesday in company with Frank Page, of Aberdeen, starting thirteen coveys and bagging thirty-five quail.

Miss Browne Returns.

Miss E. M. Browne, of New London, Conn., is again located at The Carolina with an attractive line of needlework novelties.

FURNISHED HOME TO LET.

Desiring to go abroad for two years would lease my furnished home, hot water heated, modern conveniences, desirable locality. Address, 227 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh, N. C.

LOST!

A black ribbon watch fob with gold charm bear initials "J. C. H." - Finder please return to Holly Inn and be rewarded.