

At The Berkshire.

The week's arrivals have filled the house very close to its capacity and added much to the enjoyment of social pleasures.

AMONG THE GUESTS.

Mrs. Emily Greiner and Miss Bula R. Waller, Zanesville, Ohio, are here for March.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Harris, Philadelphia, will remain several weeks.

Mr. James M. Moon, Philadelphia, Mr. Edward M. Jones and Mr. R. Barclay Moon, Germantown, Pa., are enjoying golf.

Mr. A. T. Kitzelman, Miss Mahala Kitzelman and Miss Louise Pike, Muncie, Ind., are making an extended visit.

Judge Edward F. Johnson, Woburn, Mass, Dr. C. P. Thayer and Dr. J. I. French, Boston, are here to remain until spring.

Mr. Andrew Brown, Fayette City, Pa., is making a return visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram S. Shimer, Allentown, Pa., will remain several weeks.

Mrs. James Andrews and Miss Andrews, Allegheny, Pa., come for a long sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. David Roberts and Miss E. A. Roberts, Moorestown, N. J., join the Misses Allen.

Mrs. A. S. Moore, Miss Catherine Moore, Mrs. W. E. Brackett and Miss Helen Brackett, Lynn, Mass., are here for March.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Radcliffe, Shelton, Conn., and Mrs. J. Peterson, Derby, Conn., will remain several weeks.

Recent visitors include the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pennock, Syracuse, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. White, Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. McDowell, South Carolina; Mr. Brown H. Perrine and Miss Katie Perrine, and Mr. and Mrs. John S. Silvers, Freehold, N. J.; Mr. L. C. Simons and Miss Belle D. Simons, Philadelphia; Mr. Adolph Sutters and Mr. C. Sutters, Pittsburgh.

MASQUE BALL TONIGHT.Village Employees Have Made Elaborate Plans For It.

The annual masquerade ball of the employees is about to take place as THE OUTLOOK goes to press this (Friday evening,) at the Village Hall, and a rare treat is promised participants and onlookers. The grand march will start very soon after nine o'clock.

Two prizes will be given, each, to men and women for the most elaborate, the most original, the best representative, and the most humorous costumes, and D. H. Hostetter, A. G. Warren, T. B. Cotter, F. W. Kenyon and Dr. Geo. S. Hill will be the judges.

For Episcopal Church Fund.

A vaudeville entertainment for the benefit of the Episcopal church building fund, is being arranged to take place in the Village Hall Tuesday evening, March 21st, and a rare merriment treat is promised. The entertainments of the season thus far have brought forth some excellent talent and the aim will be to gather the best of this together and produce an entertainment which will be a leader over all similar events of the past.

At the Lexington.

Hon. H. S. Stockwell, proprietor of the celebrated Devonshire Stock and Milk Farm of Sutton, Mass., with his wife, also Adolph Sutton, Pittsburg, Pa., Chas. Sutton, Elizabeth, Pa., Mrs. M. N. Wishard, Miss Lena Werule, Atlantic City, N. J., are at The Lexington.

GIVEN NEW IMPETUS.Bishop's Visit Awakens Additional Interest in Episcopal Church Project.

The movement which aims to build an Episcopal church here, has been given new impetus by the recent visit of Bishop Cheshire, who is much interested in the project. As an evidence of this he has appointed a committee consisting of Mr. T. B. Cotter, Dr. J. H. Packard and Mr. A. G. Warren to have full charge of the work under his personal interest and approval.

Numerous subscriptions are being received, and it is hoped that during the present month, a sufficient amount may be received to warrant the commencement of work upon the building.

The members of the committee would be glad to meet any one interested in the project. Subscriptions may be left at the Pinehurst General Office or handed to any member of the committee.

Boys Play Monkey Golf.

A Monkey Tournament was held for the boys of the school Saturday morning, and many of the laughable performances witnessed in the similar contest arranged by the Tin Whistles were repeated. The winning team included Albert Crockett, Russel Jones, Francis Hansel, Parker Hansel, Richard Tufts. The second team included Levi Jones, Gilman Crockett, Randolph Runyon, George Hayes and Guy Parkhurst.

RATTLING SPORT.Hunters Make Fine Bag of Quail and Woodcock.

John M. Ward and W. J. McConvill of New York, enjoyed a rattling day's shooting Thursday, bagging 20 quail and four woodcock.

A PRETTY CONTEST.C. R. Runyon Defeats F. A. King in Tennis Finals.

The final round of the men's singles tennis tournament for the George Washington cups, developed the prettiest contest of the season, C. R. Runyon of Yonkers, N. Y., winning the final round from F. A. King of Northboro, Mass.

A full summary of the event follows:

FIRST ROUND—C. R. Runyon, Yonkers, N. Y., beat R. R. Perkins, New York, 6-3, 6-4; C. B. Fraley, Philadelphia, beat Louis Sayer, Canandaigua, N. Y., 6-2, 6-5; F. A. King, Northboro, Mass., beat H. A. North, Chicago, 6-1, 6-1; L. E. Wardwell, Camden, Me., drew a bye.

SEMI-FINALS—Runyon beat Fraley, 6-3, 6-0; King beat Wardwell, 6-3, 6-4.

FINALS—Runyon beat King, 6-1, 6-1.

BOYS' TENNIS.Levi Jones Wins Final Round From Guy Parkhurst.

Judge John F. Parkhurst, Bath, N. Y., gave a cup for the winner of a series of tennis games among the boys on Monday, which was won by Levi Jones, who defeated Guy Parkhurst in the final round.

A summary of the games played follows:

FIRST ROUND—Levi Jones, Milton, N. H., beat Randolph Runyon, Yonkers, N. Y., 6-1; Guy Parkhurst, Bath, N. Y., beat Russell Jones, Milton, N. H., 6-0; Parker Hansel, New York, beat Gilman Crockett, Buffalo, 6-4.

SEMI-FINALS—Levi Jones beat Parker Hansel, 6-1; Guy Parkhurst drew a bye.

FINALS—Levi Jones beat Guy Parkhurst, 6-3.

TIE IN BOYS' TOURNEY.Albert Crockett and Guy Parkhurst Each Net One Hundred and Five.

Albert Crockett, Buffalo, N. Y., (0) and Guy Parkhurst, Bath, N. Y., (27), tied in Thursday's eighteen-hole medal play handicap for prizes offered by the management, with 105 each. Other scores were:

	Out	In	Gr.	Hp.	Net
Russell Jones,	65	68	133	27	106
Levi Jones,	56	53	109	2	109
George Hayes,	53	59	112	2	110
Francis Hansel,	76	80	156	36	120
Gilman Crockett, Karl Abbott, Richard Tufts and Randolph Runyon did not hand in cards.

MISS ROBERTS WINS.Defeats Miss Smith in Tennis Finals for Carolina Cup.

Miss E. A. Roberts of Philadelphia, was the winner of the women's singles tennis tournament for The Carolina cup played Thursday, defeating Miss Smith of Portland, Maine, in the finals.

A summary of the event follows:

FIRST ROUND—Mrs. G. R. Palmer beat Mrs. St. John Smith, 5-6, 6-4, 6-2; Miss E. A. Roberts beat Miss Ethel Check, by default; Miss Smith beat Miss M. Craven, by default.

SEMI-FINALS—Miss Smith beat Mrs. Palmer, 6-2, 6-1; Miss Roberts drew a bye.

FINALS—Miss Roberts beat Miss Smith, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4.

FIND THE YOUNG WOMAN'S COMPANION.

Hearts at the Holly Inn.

The progressive hearts party at The Holly Inn Monday evening, was much enjoyed. The first women's prize was won by Miss Ellen Hart of New York. Mrs. Harriet D. Ronley, Buffalo, N. Y., took second, and the third went to Mrs. E. F. Cohen, Schenectady, N. Y. The first men's prize was won by Mr. J. S. Case, New York. Mr. E. P. Williams, Bridgeport, Ct., secured second, and Mr. G. H. Converse, Boston, third.

The participants were: Mr. and Mrs. Caswell, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Case, Miss Hart, Miss Hinckley, Mrs. Gibbons, Mrs. Coit, Miss Coit, Miss Williams, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Pierce, Miss Joost, Mrs. Knowlton, Miss Eddy, Mrs. Breck, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Crane, Miss Wadsworth, Mrs. Ronley, Mrs. Cook, Mr. Rhodes, Mr. Runyon, Mr. Converse, Mr. Williams, Mr. Pierce, Mr. Tracy.

Sunday Evening Concert.

A general invitation is extended to the guests of the Village to attend the regular Sunday evening concerts at The Carolina, Prof. Trev. Sharp announces the following program for tomorrow evening:

Festival Grand March	Mendelssohn
Overture "Hungarian Lustspiel"	Keler-Bela
Vocal Solo a "Serenity"	Salter
b "March Wind"
	(Mrs. Ford)
Echoes from the Metropolitan Opera House
'Cello Solo "Capriccio" Op. 24	Goltermann
	(Mrs. Sharp)
Vocal Solo a "Let Us Forget"	White Beach
b "June"
	(Mrs. Ford)
Funeral March of a Marionnet	Gounod
Hymn "God Be With You"
	(Guests Please Join in Singing)

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Russel, well known here as entertainers, gave an interesting musical in the Music Hall of The Carolina Thursday evening, a portion of the proceeds being devoted to the Dickinson Colored School Fund.