

MRS. FORD'S RECITAL.

It Affords an Evening of Rare Enjoyment for Music Lovers.

Mrs. Seabury Ford's recital at The Carolina, Thursday evening, delighted a select company of music lovers who were most enthusiastic in their reception and applause.

Her numbers included the program printed in last week's OUTLOOK, and it offered excellent opportunity for varied work, all of the highest character. Mrs. Ford possesses a voice of wonderful power, sweetness and range, and she sings with ease and pathos; the effect being heightened by a striking personality.

In response to an enthusiastic encore Mrs. Ford sang "Way Down Upon the Swanee River", playing her own accompaniment, and when the last notes had died away there were few dry eyes in the hall.

It is hoped by many that Mrs. Ford may be heard again before her departure, if not at a public recital, at least in an informal way.
