

ALEX AND DONALD WIN

They Lead the Field Easily in Brilliant Professional Golf Contest.

Best Ball Play Won by Two, and Five Ball Match by Four Strokes Over Anderson, Low and Nichols.

THE visit of Professionals Willie Anderson, the open champion, George Low and Bernard Nichols, was a special golf feature of the week past which aroused interest among all the Village guests, and a series of close matches were played in which the visitors suffered defeat at the hands of the local Professionals, Donald and Alex. Ross. Brilliant golf, however, was the rule and the matches were all of absorbing interest, galleries numbering several hundred people following them over the entire course.

BEST BALL MATCH.

The first of the matches was a thirty-six hole best ball match between Alex. and Donald, and Anderson and Nichols, which Donald and Alex won by two strokes medal play and two holes match play. At no time were the players more than one hole apart and brilliant plays there were almost without number. The feature of the morning's play was a seventy-two made by Donald.

The medal play scores for the thirty-six holes were 154 each for Donald and Anderson, 156 for Alex, and 158 for Nichols. The best ball totals were 143 for Donald and Alex and 145 for Anderson and Nichols. The cards form an interesting basis for comparison:
