

THE LARGEST IN HISTORY

Number of Early April Guests Breaks
all Records of the Past.

Hotels Filled Very Close to Their Capacity and Little Indication of Diminution.

HE largest number of early April guests in history is gathered here, the hotels filled very close to their capacity, and little or no indication of diminution for some weeks to come. Rare spring days have completely crowded indoor social pleasures into the background, and brought outdoor pleasures into special prominence. Many are here for the championship tournament, not only those who come to participate, but others who will follow the event as interested onlookers.

At The Carolina.

Gen. and Mrs. Rockwood Hoar and Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rice, Worcester, Mass., are completing ten days and are delighted with Pinehurst, and planning to return again. Gen. Hoar is a son of the late Senator Hoar, and was recently elected to Congress from his district. Mr. Rice is one of Worcester's prominent business men and was for many years at the head of the Washburn & Moen Mfg. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Moses, Tilton, N. H., are making a return visit and will remain several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson and Miss Jane B. Johnson, New York, are here for their annual sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Vose, New York, are completing a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fancher, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nicola and Mr. H. F. McNutt, Cleveland, O., are here for a two weeks' stay.

Mrs. John Reed Scott and Miss Stewart, Pittsburg, were guests of the week.

Mr. N. H. Howell, Newark, N. J., comes for a short stay.

Mrs. H. Conant and Miss McPherson, Pawtucket, R. I., are spending two weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richardson, Boston, are making a ten days' stay.

Mr. Walter C. Baker, Cleveland, O., joins Mrs. Baker.

Mr. Dudley Tibbits and Miss Tibbits, Troy, N. Y., will remain some time.

Mr. John D. Blair, Hollidaysburg, Pa., is making a return visit.

Mrs. Mathewson and Miss Mathewson, Montreal, will remain until well in April.

Mr. Harley Roberts, Watertown, and Mr. George Cook Ford, Cleveland, join friends.

Miss Mary F. Bryce, New York, and Miss S. M. Gay, Boston, are here for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Watson and Miss Beatrice Watson, New York, are making a ten days' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fuller, Mt. Kisco, N. Y., are among the guests.

Mrs. A. W. Cook and Mr. A. W. Cook, Jr., Brookville, Pa., and Mrs. L. G. Haines are here to remain until the house closes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Whitcomb, Mr. G. H. Whitcomb, Boston, are making a return visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McClure, Pittsburg, are here for an extended visit.

Miss Edna Rosenfeld, New York, joins her parents.

Mr. George Lippincott, Philadelphia, Mr. Thomas J. Baldrige, Hollidaysburg, Pa., join friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jeffray, Toronto, Can., will remain until the middle of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. King McLanahan, Jr., Miss Helen McLanahan, Miss Elizabeth McLanahan and Miss Margaret McLanahan and Miss Martha Duncan, Hollidaysburg, Pa., are here for their second season.

Mrs. W. W. O'Neil and Miss O'Neil, Pittsburg, Pa., will remain two weeks.

Mr. Philip Hamburger, and Miss Hamburger, Pittsburg, are enjoying their first visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cook, Montreal, are spending April here.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Sutton, New York, will remain through the coming week.

Mr. L. W. Bickley, New York, is spending two weeks here.

Mr. S. K. Killam and Mrs. A. C. Killam, Winnipeg, will remain sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hurff and child, Camden, N. J., are completing a short visit.

Mrs. F. J. Stegmaier and Mrs. C. E. Stegmaier, Wilkes Barre, Pa., are completing a short but pleasant visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bierck, Garden City and Miss Florence E. Ball, New York, are among the weeks arrivals.

Mrs. Thomas Sedgwick Steele, Pawtucket, R. I., and Miss M. D. Foster, Boston, and Mrs. L. W. Clapp and Miss Lucy M. Clapp, Port Deposit, Md., are making a short return visit.

Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Moore and Miss Grace M. Deats, Detroit, Mich., were guests of the week.

Mr. E. A. Fitts, Haverhill, Mass.; Mrs. R. H. Spendley, Hollidaysburg, Pa.; Mr. Durant, New York; Mrs. J. Lewis Crozier and Miss S. K. Ubel, Chester, Pa., were guests of the week.

Mrs. B. F. Herreshoff, Mr. Fred K. Herreshoff, Miss Herreshoff, New York, and Miss Lucy W. Wormley, Richmond, are here for the tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wilkinson, Montclair, N. J., are enjoying an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Peabody, Boston, will remain some weeks.

Mrs. H. S. Denney, Mr. J. O. H. Denney, and Mr. F. H. Denney, Pittsburg, Pa., are making a return visit.

Mr. H. F. Louchheim, New York, is making a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Walker and Miss Walker, Bangor, Me., are here for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taft, Boston, will remain for the tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Beckwith, Miss Beckwith, New York, were guests Thursday.

Mr. James A. Ford, Cleveland, joins his brother.

Mr. R. L. Titus, New York, is enjoying golf.

At The Holly Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilmore, Boston, come for ten days' visit, joining Mrs. G. H. Converse, Boston.

Mrs. Donald Fuller, child and nurse, Detroit, are making a two weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Sweeten, Camden, N. J., are making their first visit to Pinehurst and are already planning to return next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Spigelmire, Miss Eleanor Spigelmire and Miss Irene Spigelmire, Braddock, Pa., are making their annual visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shreve, Miss Mary D. Shreve and Mr. M. F. Shreve, Bordentown, N. J., are completing a brief stay.

Mrs. Albert S. Marten and Miss M. L. Marten, E. Orange, joined Mr. Marten for a short visit, and are leaving for home.

Miss F. W. Masters and Mr. J. Ford Johnson, Jr., Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., relatives of Miss Mary Wilbur, Canandaigua, N. Y., are here for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ballentine, Nyack, N. Y., and Mrs. C. L. Whitney, Albany, will remain until the middle of the month.

Mr. George E. Hodson, New Haven, Conn., joins his wife to remain till the middle of April.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hector, Boston, come for a week's visit.

Miss Anna M. Goodwin, Mr. George R. Goodwin, Mr. Charles L. Goodwin and Mrs. M. G. Barker, Hartford, Conn., are here for an extended visit.

Mrs. Edmund Ocrupaugh and Miss L. L. Ocrupaugh, Rochester, will remain till the house closes.

Mr. Peter Reis, Sheboygan, joins Mrs. Reis.

Mrs. C. Kress, Miss Kress, New York, and Miss Burford, London, are here for a week's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Field and Miss Helen P. Field, Newton Centre, Mass., are here for a short stay.

Mr. A. W. Hayes, Rochester, N. H., is here to remain until May.

Mr. E. S. Gillespie, Mr. A. L. Gillespie and Mrs. F. R. Gillespie, New York, will remain some weeks.

Among the other guests of the week were: Miss Laura Peltin, Indiana; Mrs. Colegate and Miss Amy Colegate, New York; Miss Ida Dana, New York; Miss Clara M. Chancer, Leavenworth, Kansas; Mrs. Kilroy, Washington; Mr. P. W. Holden, New York; Mrs. R. H. Spendley, Hollidaysburg, Pa.; Mrs. Harry Raynes and Miss K. L. Shannon, Lowell, Mass.; Dr. and Mrs. McWatt and Mrs. McRae, Maxton, N. C.; Mr. Polk Miller, Virginia; Mr. O. M. Allen, Jr., Washington; Dr. Allen, New York; Mr. Charles Radloff and Mr. Jason Radloff, Cincinnati; Mrs. J. H. Consty, Philadelphia.

At The Berkshire.

Miss Stella A. Neumann, Newark, N. J., comes for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Wohl and son, Philadelphia, are here for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. D. D. Sollenberger and Miss Lallie Sollenberger, Chambersburg, Pa., were guests of the week.

Mrs. F. M. Selchow and Master Donald Hoffman Selchow, New York, come for a ten days' stay.

Mrs. M. A. Stannard and Miss F. E. Stevens, Boston, are here for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Yorston will remain several weeks.

Mrs. G. H. Hickok, Philadelphia, is here for an indefinite stay.

Among the guests of the week were: Mr. E. H. Clarke, North Carolina; Mr. W. G. Taylor, Jr., Roanoke, Va.; Mr. E. L. Schmidt, Washington.

At The Harvard.

Mr. T. M. R. Krause, New York, is here to remain through April.

Mrs. W. H. Holman and Miss Clara H. Holman come for a long sojourn.

Mr. Charles Radloff and Mr. Jason Radloff, Cincinnati, are here for a short stay.

Guests at The Magnolia.

Mrs. J. H. Melvin, Chicago, comes for some time.

Miss I. Dana, New York, is here for a few weeks.

Mrs. S. W. Holmes and Miss Margareta Holmes, Philadelphia, are spending several weeks here.

Miss Minnie L. Sleeper, Lakeport, N. H., is making a short visit.

Mr. J. P. Reardoss, Lawrence, Mass., is among the recent arrivals.

Miss Alice Battelle and Master Harrison Smith, Charleston, W. Va., come for some time.

Mrs. George Thayer, Haverhill, Mass., has just completed a brief visit, and Miss Ida M. Thayer is here for a short time.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cheseborough, New York, and Mr. Eugene G. Zacker, Buffalo.

Whist at The Berkshire.

The weekly Whist party at The Berkshire was much enjoyed. Mrs. S. A. Thompson, Norwood, Mass., was the winner of the first women's prize, and Miss Maude White, Rome, N. Y., second. The first men's prize was won by Mr. Charles Legg, Boston, and Dr. Arthur Legg, Boston, secured second.

Hearts at The Holly.

A hearts party at The Holly Inn Friday evening, was well attended and much enjoyed. Miss Elizabeth Eddy, West Newton, Mass., won the first women's prize; Mrs. A. M. Morton, Boston, the second, and Miss Ellen Hart, New York, third. The first men's prize went to Mr. H. L. Caswell, Parkersburg, West Virginia. Mr. R. H. Fleming, Chicago, took second, and Mr. G. H. Converse, Boston, third.

Putting at The Lenox.

Twenty people participated in a putting contest held recently at The Lenox and many low scores were made. Mr. Arthur M. Allen, Newton Centre, Mass., won the first prize, with 24, Mrs. F. A. Danforth, Norway, Me., second, and Miss Emma B. Josselyn, Lawrence, Mass., third, and Mr. G. R. Wallace, Brooklyn, took fourth.