T. E. BANCROFT THE WINNER

Leads the Field in Advertising Handicap by Margin of Single Stroke.

W. M. Sanford, Jay V. Hall and W. J. Todd Also Win—Sharp Play

Throughout—Numerous Ties.

BIG field and sharp play characterized the medal play handicap of the Advertising tournament, held Wednesday morning in connection with the semi-final rounds. The event was open to both those in and out of the tournament, with the understanding that all winning prizes were barred; tournament contestants keeping medal scores of their morning rounds.

Thomas E. Bancroft of New York, was the winner of the splendid Leonard Tufts trophy offered for the best net score, with a card of seventy-eight, playing with an allowance of twenty-five, and leading W. M. Sanford, also of New York (12), who won second, a single stroke. Jay V. Hall of Pittsburg (22), took third with eighty-two, and W. J. Todd of London, England (13), fourth with eighty-four.

There were two ties at eighty-five, five at eighty-seven, three at eighty-eight and eight at ninety; thirty-one finishing in ninety and under, a splendid record for the handicap committee!

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895, it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are bath rooms, electric lights, steam heat and open fireplaces. There is a call bell in every room, and all beds are furnished with best hair mattresses. An orchestra furnishes fine concerts daily, and also provides for dancing. The cuisine is unsurpassed. The waitresses are all white girls from the North. Rooms for billiards and other games are provided in the hotel.
