Tuesday's German Easily Most Brilliant
Affair Ever Given Here.

Beautiful Gowns and a Wealth of Color Make Wondrously Beautiful Picture.

TUESDAY evening's German, at The Carolina, was easily the most brilliant affair of the character ever held here, replete with novel, picturesque and entertaining features which detracted none from the unlimited enjoyment of the occasion. Of surprises there were many, all cleverly worked out, and they afforded merriment and entertainment for both participants and onlookers.

The list of dancers numbered twenty couples, and beautiful gowns combined with a wealth of gay color, introduced through favors and figures, to make a wondrously beautiful scene, which will not soon be effaced from memory's picture gallery.

Introductions began at eight-thirty, the patronesses, Mrs. James W. Tufts and Mrs. H. W. Priest of Boston; Mrs. W. F.
Wilson of Pittsburg, and Miss Bruce of New York, receiving; dancing commencing soon after nine with the Paul Jones two step and circle.

Next came a favor figure in which fans and gaily plumed wands were exchanged, their color adding to the brilliancy of the scene. Following came the tennis ball figure in which the young women proved conclusively that they could not throw, but after many frantic efforts succeeded in getting partners.

A favor figure came next, in which duplicate souvenir postal cards were matched in the selection of partners, following which was the most amusing frolic of the evening, in which dress coated young men sat upon unsteady Poland water bottles and threaded needles; the first to succeed winning a dance.

Next in order was the spectacular feature of the evening, in which dainty varicolored parasols and gold headed and garlanded Louis XIV canes were exchanged as favors; a dance being followed by an intricate march; the whole culminating in a wonderfully beautiful tableaux effect.

Close after came the surprise of the evening and its novelty, the "chariot race," in which four young women, driven by a young man, and a like number of young men driven by one of the fair sex, thundered into the hall unexpectedly, and after a "mad race" came together in the centre of the hall; "steeds" and "charioteers" dancing together.

The next number was the evening's partner favor figure, the gifts being "dear" little Teddy bears for the women presided at the favor tables, and Mr.

Thomas H. Bauchle, Jr., of New York, led, "stag." Music was furnished by The Carolina orchestra, Prof. Trev. Sharp, director, and refreshments were served at intermission. The success of the affair was largely due to the interest and effort of a committee comprising Mr. Bauchle, Mrs. Jillson and Miss Priest.

and sterling scarf pins for the men. Following came the familiar parasol figure, the program closing with a two step, in which everybody pelted everybody else with confetti or serpentine tape, the whole making a melee wonderful to behold and as colorful as a French poppy field in June; a fitting ending to an evening of merrymaking.

SUBSTITUTE GOLF TOURNEY

Big Field Contests for Par Golf Ball
Prizes at Carolina.

Ties in Both Divisions, and Miss Firth and Mr. Hudson the Prize Winners.

AMEDALPLAY "substitute golf" tournament, open to both men and women, interested a company of sixty participants at The Carolina, Monday, demonstrating that the game has caught on in earnest here.

Two complete nine hole "courses" were laid out in the social hall and play occupied the attention of both participants and onlookers during the afternoon and evening.

PAR golf balls were offered as first and second prizes in each event, four to the winner and two to the loser, and tie play-offs were necessary in each division.

In the women's event Miss Firth of Boston, and Miss Foran of Philadelphia, both made forty-four, a second tie resulting in the nine hole play-off, Miss Firth winning the tenth hole.

In the men's event Mr. H. N. Hudson of St. Louis and Mr. L. F. Day of Minneapolis, tied at fifty-one, Mr. Hudson having an easy time of it on the playoff.

Other events are planned and the several sets of games at The Carolina are in frequent use.
