THE WEEK AT THE HOTELS

RECORD BREAKING list of arrivals and numerous social pleasures mark midseason's commencement in advance of previous years. All of the hotels are filling rapidly and the demand for accommodations will continue unabated for weeks to come. Old and new friends there are, all pleasantly occupied indoors and out; all forming congenial acquaintances.

At The Carolina.

The week at The Carolina has been the gayest of the season, the social centre 'round which the entire Village has radiated, interest culminating in Tuesday evening's brilliant German.

In addition numerous less formal affairs were enjoyed, among them the Substitute Golf tournament, bridge parties and dinners. A large bridge tournament is planned for the immediate future and the young people are already looking forward to another Cotillion, with Washington's Birthday as the probable date.

At The Holly Inn.

The week has been conspicuous for its social affairs, cards, golf and dancing all being much in evidence, and a large influx of guests augmenting the number already assembled.

Thursday evening Mr. David Fleming of Philadelphia, entertained at whist, Mrs. C. E. Cameron, Mrs. Franklin Berwin, Mrs. A. I. Creamer, Mr. Franklin Berwin, Mr. C. L. Becker and Dr. E. R. Frankish winning the prizes.

Monday evening Mrs. C. H. Wilson entertained at euchre, Miss Macleod, Miss Cable, Mr. C. F. Spear and Mr. Wm. Beach being the prize winners.

A putting contest for ball prizes also filled in a pleasant evening, Mr. E. M. Rockwell winning first, with Mr. O. B. Prescott and Mr. H. W. Ormsbee a close second, the former winning second on the tie play-off.

A novelty in connection was placing the tee in the front office and having the net or "hole," just beyond the stairs leading to the dining room; somewhat of a cross-hotel match!
