

ARTS AND CRAFTS.Opening of the "Shop" a Welcome Announcement to Visitors.

The announcement of the reopening of the Arts and Crafts exhibit at the former location in the Administration building, will be received with general pleasure. This "shop" has come to be regarded by many as an entertainment feature as well as providing souvenirs which all are glad to possess.

As in the past, native products will be featured. Upon regular days weaving will be done by native women, and there will be a new departure in the way of a native cabinet worker.

The collection includes products from native woods, pine cones and the like, nearly all of them useful, and a large variety of rugs, spreads, etc.

Some real gems are shown in pottery creations by North Carolina Indians, and there is quite a display of Frederick Parsons' "opus pictums," or colored bas-reliefs, as well as handicraft novelties from many sections.

OPIE REED'S LECTURE.*Large Audience will Hear the Novelist at Village Hall.

Opie Reed's lecture at the Village Hall, next Friday, the fifteenth, is being anticipated throughout the Village and a big audience is assured the famous novelist and story teller.

The program announced, "An Evening of Southern Stories," will be particularly appropriate and it will sparkle from first to last with brilliant wit and tender pathos.

Tickets are on sale at the Pharmacy and the hotel desks and the demand for them has been large.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY.*Everybody in Town Will Attend Village Hall Bazaar.

Every detail is complete for the Bazaar to be held in the Village Hall, Monday and Tuesday, afternoon and evening, for the benefit of the Catholic church building fund, and most everybody is planning to attend.

Of novelties there will be many, and of opportunities to spend money no end.

HANDICAP SWATFEST.*Becker and Prescott Play Twenty Hole Match.

A medal play handicap ball sweepstakes "Swatfest" occupied the attention of golfers Saturday, C. L. Becker (1,) and O. B. Prescott (3,) playing off a tie on the twentieth hole for first place, Mr. Becker winning.

Other participants were N. S. Hurd (7,) W. L. Hurd (12,) C. N. Gorton (14,) L. D. Pierce (4,) Donald Vaughan (7,) T. R. Newbold (5,) H. W. Ormsbee (6,) and J. E. Kellogg (8.)

WILL BE RECORD BREAKER,Golfers Coming from Everywhere for St. Valentine's Tourney.

The third annual St. Valentine's golf tournament which begins Wednesday and continues through Monday, promises to be a record breaker. Many participants are thus early here, familiarizing themselves with the course, and big delegations are booked to arrive tonight and tomorrow.

At The Lenox and Cedars.

A taffy pull furnished much amusement for the guests, Monday evening, and occasional burned finger-tips were forgotten in the face of a feast on real old fashioned home-made candy.

A progressive hearts party, in which all of the guests participated, was an entertaining affair of the week, Miss Elizabeth Roe, Mrs. J. H. Wharton, Mr. H. F. Le Gendre and Mr. J. H. Wharton winning the prizes.

Mrs. C. F. Dunham of West Newton, Mass., joins her son for an indefinite sojourn.

A full house and "standing room only" are thus early the rule here.

At The Magnolia.

Mr. Clemens Titzek of Philadelphia, a prominent capitalist and real estate operator, who is widely known as the Secretary of the Northeastern Trading Company, returns for his annual sojourn.

Mrs. W. J. Millring and daughter, Emily, of Buffalo, are here for the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell Cairns of England, are late arrivals.

Mr. E. E. Mack and Miss Ida Mack of Erie, Pa., are spending the winter here.
