PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

Down and Out Club Announces that it is Formed for Keeps.

The editor begs to acknowledge the receipt of a letter from the office of the seventh president of the "Down and Out Club of Pinehurst and America;" visible evidence of a permanent organization as the result of what started here more as a frolic than anything else. The "ghastly details" of the first meeting are promised in due season.

Here's to the club's long life and prosperity!

Wright Wins Tennis Tourney.

A. E. Wright of Cooperstown, N. Y., was the winner of the annual St. Valentine's tennis tournament which ended during the week, defeating J. C. Roe of Elmira, N. Y., 6-0, 6-1, 6-1, in the final round.

UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS.

Catholic Church Building Fund Bazaar Attracts Big Crowd.

The Bazaar for the benefit of the Catholic church building fund transformed the Village Hall Monday and Tuesday, gaily decorated booths and throngs of interested people combining to make an animated picture. Of novelties there were many, and their purse string pulling power resulted in the extraction of coin far beyond the hopes of the most sanguine; a splendid foundation upon which to lay additional funds.

Among the novelties was Mme. Stella (Miss Blanche Prentice), who told fortunes for a consideration, within her tiny tent beside a camp fire and a kettle which refused to boil under the influence of partially concealed incandescents.

The good old fashioned wheel of fortune in charge of Mr. John Paget and Mr.
James Gorman, interested all, and the mystery table in charge of Miss Lydia Graves and Miss Jennie Gorman, was continually besieged.

About the refreshment table, in charge of Miss Ruth J. Leavitt, Miss Maude Paget and Miss Mary Powers, there was a continual crush, and the fancy work table, in charge of Miss Nellie McNulty, Mrs. W. L. Murphy and Miss Catherine Murphy, was equally popular.

Dancing was enjoyed each evening from 9:30 to eleven, The Carolina and Holly Inn orchestras furnishing music, and there was life, color and gaiety throughout, which will long be pleasantly remembered.

Details of arrangement were in the hands of a committee, including Mr.
Owen Farrey, Mr. John Paget, Mr. Ed.
Ellis, Mrs. Ward, Miss McNulty, Miss Leavitt, Miss Crowley and Miss Powers.

Donations are acknowledged from Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tufts, Mr. and Mrs. H.
W. Priest, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Abbott,
Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Creamer, Mr. and Mrs.
E. L. Merrow, Mrs. J. F. Paget, Mrs. W.
L. Murphy and others.

CAROLINA DEFEATS VILLAGE.

Wednesdays Baseball Game is by Far the Best of the Series.

Wednesday's base ball game was the best of the series, a pitcher's battle with good support by the field, and the score close enough to keep interest keen; the Carolina team defeating the Village, 8 to 6.

Ruggles was in the box for the winners and Morris for the losers.

A regular series of games will be played during February, March and April, and the gauntlet has been thrown down to the Southern Pines nine with hopes that the challenge will be accepted.

Trap and Pistol Shooting.

Trap and pistol shooting are proving unusually popular since the establishment of an attendant who is continuously on duty.

In a word one finds everything needed on the grounds; shells and a shot gun, or pistols, ammunition and targets.
