

The Pinehurst Outlook

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

VOL X, No. 14.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH SECOND, 1907.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

MAZE OF DAZZLING COLOR

Carolina Cotillon Adds Bright Star to Social Constellation.

Merriment Reigns Supreme and Novel Surprises Provide Evening of Rare Enjoyment.

WEALTH of unique and attractive favors made the Washington's birthday cotillon at The Carolina a maze of dazzling color wonderful to behold, adding another bright star to the constellation which has made the present social season brilliant. From first to last merriment reigned supreme, and novel surprises followed one after another, providing an evening of rare enjoyment for a company of onlookers which taxed the music hall to its capacity. Of beautiful gowns there were many, and the recollection of the affair is as a child's dream of fairyland.

The use of favors began with the Paul Jones or opening number, in which large American flags were distributed to all of the dancers as they circled. Next in order came one of the evening's most amusing features, in which trumpets with gay streamers were distributed among the men, and animal rattles with bright bows given to the women, a burst of melody (?) resulting, which would have made a German band green with envy.

Next came a frolic in the shape of an egg and spoon race, in which the men fought desperately for partners and "eggs," the manner in which the latter were whisked about the hall making everybody thankful that they were "hard boiled" (tennis ball) and not of the kind that one gets at the Poultry farm.

Next came one of the daintiest effects of the evening, a favor figure in which rakish crush opera hats and dainty varicolored parasols were exchanged, the effect flavoring most decidedly of the Mardi-gras and its recklessness and gaiety. Clusters and boutonnieres of bright colored poppies were then exchanged, adding another dash of color to the scene, after which came the whirlwind chariot race which made such a hit at the last German.

The picturesque feature of the evening followed, the couples dancing beneath graceful floral garlands, the effect culminating in an intricate march. Next in line was an exchange of admiral chapeaus of red, white and blue and diadem bow knots of soft tints, and once more the Mardi-gras was suggested.

After a distribution of sealed envelopes, only one of which drew a prize, and an exchange of butterfly lapel pins and coiffure ornaments, radiant in their brilliancy, came the climax of the evening. The dancers were called to the centre of the hall and assembled beneath a huge and mysterious ball from which dangled numerous strings, one of which each dancer grasped. Then came a moment of suspense and speculation, a pull, a shower of color, a roar of laughter, and all found themselves in the possession of a ball of confetti or a roll of serpentine tape. Just a moment for recovery from surprise and then a wild, mad melee began in which everybody pelted everybody else mercilessly; even the "non-combatants" getting their share. Then the quick two-step changed to the slow "Home, Sweet Home" waltz, growing fainter and fainter until it ceased, leaving an exhausted, happy faced, confetti-besprinkled and tape-entwined company upon the floor with the cotillon only a memory.

GOLF IS POPULAR WITH THE FAIR SEX.

The patronesses were Mrs. G. H. Partridge and Mrs. L. F. Day of Minneapolis, Mrs. N. J. Spain and Mrs. E. L. Tufts, of New York. At the favor tables were Mrs. J. D. Climo and Mrs. M. B. Johnson, of Cleveland, Miss Partridge, of Minneapolis, and Miss Pollard, of Pittsburg. Mr. Thomas H. Bauchle Jr., of New York, led "stag;" refreshments were served at intermission, and The Carolina orchestra furnished music. The significance of the day was emphasized by decorations, favors, and chair numbers. Dancing began at nine and ceased at twelve.

THE PARTICIPANTS.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harper, Boston.
Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Palmer, Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wells, Southbridge, Mass.
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Walker, Richmond, Ky.,
Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Bates Dana, Great Barrington, Mass.,
Mr. J. D. Foot, Rye, N. Y., and Miss Robinson, Stamford, Conn.,
Mr. J. W. Becker, New York, and Miss Grace Higgins, New York,
Mr. G. C. Hutchinson, New York, and Miss Dittson, Philadelphia,
Mr. J. H. Smith, Newark, N. J., and Miss Winants, Bayonne, N. J.
Mr. H. S. Cummings, Stamford, and Mrs. P. H. Lonergan, Cleveland,
Mr. George W. Keates, Boston, and Miss Lucy K. Priest, Boston,
Mr. George J. Ingraham, Hartford, and Miss Dunne, Boston,
Mr. Herbert L. Jillson, Worcester, and Miss Helen Smith, Portland, Me.,
Mr. A. C. Sullivan, Chicago, and Miss Kendrick, Minneapolis,
Mr. J. W. Cooper, Philadelphia, and Mrs. E. E. Rinehart Jr., Stamford.
Mr. A. H. Shute, Philadelphia, and Miss Barroll, Philadelphia,
Mr. C. H. Wheeler, Philadelphia, and Mrs. T. E. Young, Cleveland,

MISS CHECK THE WINNER

Defeats Mrs. Young in Finals of St. Valentine's Tourney.

Mrs. P. H. Lonergan Wins Qualification Gold Medal but Loses in Semi-finals.

MISS Ethel Check of East Orange, N. J., carried off the honors in the St. Valentine's match play golf tournament for women, defeating Mrs. T. E. Young of Cleveland, by five up and three to play in the final round; a good sized gallery following the contest, in spite of the modest spring shower.

In qualification Mrs. Lonergan led the field by a liberal margin of three strokes with a card of one hundred and thirteen, winning the gold medal offered, her nearest opponent being Miss Check. Heavy greens due to rain of the night previous, were responsible for the high scores.

Interest in the tournament was large and the entry list good, the match of the event being the keen game between Mrs. Young and Mrs. P. H. Lonergan, also of Cleveland, in the semi-finals, Mrs. Young winning on the home green and with a medal play score of ninety-six to ninety-seven for opponent.

THE SUMMARY.

The story of the week's play is told in the following summaries:

QUALIFICATION SCORES:

Mrs. P. H. Lonergan, Cleveland,	59	54	113
Miss Ethel Check, East Orange,	60	56	116
Mrs. St. John Smith, Portland,	57	61	118
Mrs. F. A. Potts, Lakewood,	62	57	119
Mrs. I. C. B. Dana, Great Barrington,	60	61	121
Miss Looker, Washington,	64	65	129
Mrs. David Fleming, Jr., Philadelphia,	66	66	132
Mrs. T. E. Young, Cleveland,	70	63	133

Other entries included the following: Mrs. T. R. Newbold, Washington; Miss Madeline Tufts, Boston; Miss Pauline Firth, Boston; Mrs. J. R. Shoaff, New York; Miss Olive M. Spain, New York; Mrs. C. H. Rosenfeld, New York; Miss E. Roe, Elmira; Mrs. Edward Worth, Media, Pa.

MATCH PLAY ROUNDS.

FIRST ROUND—Miss Ethel Check beat Mrs. F. A. Potts, 7 and 5; Mrs. H. St. John Smith beat Mrs. David Fleming, Jr., 5 and 4; Mrs. T. E. Young beat Miss Looker, 6 and 5; Mrs. P. H. Lonergan beat Mrs. I. C. Bates Dana, 2 up.

SEMI-FINALS—Miss Check beat Mrs. Smith, 4 and 3; Mrs. Young beat Mrs. Lonergan, 1 up.

FINAL—Miss Check beat Mrs. Young, 5 and 3.

TO-NIGHT--SATURDAY!

Fred Emerson Brooks, Poet-Humorist, Village Hall. Tickets on Sale at Pharmacy.

TILLMAN, MARCH 13.

Coming of South Carolina's Famous Senator Being Anticipated.

The star entertainment of the Village Hall series is booked for the week to come in the appearance, March 13, of South Carolina's famous senator, the Hon. Benjamin R. Tillman.

Tillman is one of the country's great men and his appearance here will interest everyone, concerning which more will be said in next week's OUTLOOK.