

The Pinehurst Outlook

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

VOL. XI, No. 4.

SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER TWENTY-FIRST, 1907.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

NEW BOOKS FOR LIBRARY

A Hundred or More There are with Bright, Unfamiliar Faces.

Some Will Prove Friends. Others
Enemies, for Books, Like People, are Individual.

THE arrival of a box of new books is as much of an event to a reader as the coming of a crowd of new people to the guests of a hotel, and so the arrival of many boxes of new books at the Village Library is an event of interest to the entire community. A hundred or more there are, all in different dress, with bright, unfamiliar faces. Some we know are to become friends, some enemies, for books have so much individuality that we love and hate them as heartily as though they walked about like ourselves.

The new covers certainly bid for friendship by their attractive appearance, and their titles are suggestive and interesting. Some of them we already know well for the papers have discussed Mr. Wharton's "The Fruit of the Tree", Gilbert Parker's "The Weavers", and Mrs. Burnett's "The Shuttle", with as much excitement as though the problems presented in them were veritable chronicles.

The "Lady of the Decoration" must consent to share attention with "The Lady of the Drawing Room Floor," and "The Turnpike Lady", "The Smuggler", "The Usurper" and "Clementina's Highwayman" seem to indicate that we have desperate characters among us. If that be so we may need the valiant protection of "Fanshawe of the Fifth" and the "Victor of Salamis." It is a natural transition from the heroes of old Greece to "Thalassa", the old cry "The Sea! The Sea!"

Myra Kelly gives us a chance to renew old acquaintances in "Wards of Liberty" and we find another old friend in "With Juliet in England." Those inclined to travel will enjoy the volumes dealing with the "Cities of Spain", "Oxford", and the "Lake Country Sketches", and those historically minded may consider "Our English Minsters", and "The Great Days of Versailles."

That these titles give but a hint of what is in store for all is shown by the following complete list of new books and their authors:

THE NEW BOOKS.

Fraulein Schmidt and Mr. Anstruther,
Baroness von Arnheim
Thalassa, Mrs. Baillie Reynolds
A Gentleman of Fortune, H. C. Bailey
Sheaves, E. F. Benson
The Mirror of Shalott, R. H. Benson
Mr. Tuckerman's Nieces,
Helen D. Brown

Alice-for-short, William De Morgan
My Lady Caprice, Jeffery Farnol
The Harringtons of Higheroft Farm,
J. S. Fletcher
Brunhilde's Paying Guest,
Caroline Fuller
The Cruise of the Make-Believes,
Tom Gallon
The Loves of Pelleas and Ettarre,
Zona Gale

O. B. PRESCOTT, BRAE BURN, WINNER SATURDAY'S MEDAL
PLAY TOURNEY.

The Shuttle, Frances Hodgson Burnett
My Merry Rockhurst,
Agnes and Egerton Castle
The Younger Set, R. W. Chambers
The Turnpike Lady, Sarah N. Cleghorne
The Lady of the Drawing-Room Floor,
M. E. Coleridge
Arethusa, F. M. Crawford
A Victor of Salamis, W. S. Davis

The Tyranny of the Dark,
Hamlin Garland
The Medusa Emerald, George Gibbs
Hazel of Heatherland,
Mabel Barnes-Grundy
The Affair at Pine Court,
Nelson R. Gilbert
The Stopping Lady, Maurice Hewlett
(Concluded on page 11.)

O. B. PRESCOTT THE WINNER

Leads Field with Low Score in First
Tin Whistle Tourney.

E. A. Slack, Going Fast, Lands Net
Score Prize with Balance of Field Close up.

A RECORD early season field of thirty-three golfers participated in Saturday's medal play handicap, held under the auspices of the Tin Whistles, providing a contest in which keen play and close scores were the rule, the entire field finishing under one hundred with numerous ties throughout, seven finishing in eighty-one.

O. B. Prescott of the Brae Burn Club, was the particular star of the day, carrying off the gross score trophy with a card of eighty-three, rounds of forty-one and forty-two; Leonard Ingersoll of Cleveland, A. I. Creamer of Damariscotta, and E. A. Slack of Brookline, finishing a close second in eighty-nine each.

Mr. Slack was the winner of the net score trophy, playing with an allowance of seventeen, and netting seventy-two, Mr. Prescott with a handicap of 9, making seventy-four and Mr. Creamer and Mr. Ingersoll (14 each), seventy-five. Next in order was T. J. Check of New York (22), who made seventy-seven; R. W. Bell of Chicago (20), being fifth with seventy-eight. The score:

E. A. Slack, Brookline,	44	45	89	17	72
O. B. Prescott, Newton Centre,	41	42	83	9	74
A. I. Creamer, Damariscotta,	41	48	89	14	75
L. Ingersoll, Cleveland,	45	44	89	14	75
T. J. Check, New York,	48	51	99	22	77
R. W. Bell, Chicago,	49	49	98	20	78
C. A. Taft, Whitinsville,	47	48	95	14	81
W. L. Hurd, Pittsburg,	48	51	99	18	81
R. M. Hamilton, Pelham, N.Y.,	47	49	96	15	81
R. L. Macleay, Portland, Ore.,	43	41	84	3	81
H. W. Ormsbee, Brooklyn,	48	47	95	14	81
S. H. Steele, New York,	52	53	105	24	81
E. Beech, New York,	62	63	125	44	81
M. D. Fink, New York,	54	56	110	28	82
J. B. Moore, New York,	57	66	123	40	83
P. L. Lightbourn, Bermuda,	49	52	101	18	83
J. D. C. Rumsey, Brooklyn,	46	54	100	16	84
N. S. Hurd, Pittsburg,	44	50	94	10	84
H. W. Priest, Franconia, N.H.,	49	50	99	14	85
J. R. Goodall, St. Louis,	52	51	103	18	85
E. B. Babbitt, Rock Island,	54	57	111	25	86
C. W. Baldwin, Orange, N.J.,	52	58	110	24	86
E. J. Spaulding, Burlington, Vt.,	46	51	97	9	88
R. C. Russell, Chicago,	56	54	110	22	88
T. R. Moore, Brooklyn,	47	58	105	16	89
J. M. Robinson, Littleton, N.H.,	55	60	115	24	91
H. G. Streat, New Rochelle,	61	64	125	36	95
Dr. Geo. S. Hill, Marblehead,	57	63	120	23	97
J. B. Bowen, Philadelphia,	60	57	117	20	97
J. T. Dickson, Chicago,	51	68	119	20	99