MIXED FOURSOMES POPULAR

MIXED foursomes for Tin Whistle trophies attracted a field of twenty-two couples, demonstrating very forcibly the popularity of this form of golf here; a feature which plays an important part in making Pinehurst attractive to the fair sex.

Keen scores ruled, only twenty-two points, an average of one point per pair, separating the first score from the last; Mr. John E. Porter of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson of Worcester, playing with an allowance of seven strokes, winning first with a card of ninety net, and also making the best gross score of the day. Second in line were Mr. J. D. Foot of Rye, and Mrs. A. F. Rodgers of Toronto, whose handicap was four, who scored ninety-four net, and ninety-eight gross.

Mr. J. C. Head and Miss Elkins of Pittsburg (8), were third in ninety-six, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Converse of Boston (9), and Mr. L. E. Wardwell of Camden, Me., and Miss Ethel Check of New York (4), tying for fourth position at ninety-seven each, with a quadruple tie at ninety-eight for fifth place. The trophies were sterling cups presented by Mr. H. W. Priest and Mr. A. I. Creamer, and gold medals offered by the Club.

Pleasantly Remembered.

Friends of right fielder William E. Bailey of The Carolina ball team, observed his 29th birthday, Monday, very pleasantly by the presentation of a monster cake, bearing twenty-one candles, and numerous gifts including a sterling watch fob. Just whether the twenty-one candles represented the age that Mr. Bailey passes for amongst his fair friends or whether the pastry cook's supply was short, is still a matter of doubt.

In Progress Today.

The final round of the annual Club Championship golf tournament is in progress as THE OUTLOOK goes to press; the field of participants, the fastest in the history of these events. The contest will be reported fully in next week's paper.
