MIDSEASONS COMMENCEMENT

The Week Brings Many Old Friends who Return for the Season.

Dinners, Dances and Bridge Happily
Combining with Sport and Recreation
in the Open Air.

HE week has brought many old friends who come for the season as well as newcomers who plan long sojourns, marking midseason's commencement and maintaining hotel housecounts at record figures. Many of the golfers will remain through the coming week so that tonight's departures will make little change in the big company which has made the week the busiest and merriest of the season.

Socially the younger people of the Village are popularizing the Wednesday and Saturday evening hops at The Carolina and the announcement of the renewal of the Monday morning bridge parties for women is received with universal pleasure. As far as the weather itself it could not be more delightful, sports and recreations in the open rounding out the sunny days.
